Worker At Toronto Killed When Sewer Ditch Walls Cave In

2 Are Buried Up To Necks But Rescued

Mingo Father Of 2 Dies Of Asphyxiation In Trench's Collapse

One of three men trapped in a 20-foot deep sewer trench when it collapsed late Monday afternoon in Toronto died of asphyxiation, Dr. John P. Smarella, Jefferson County coroner, ruled today.

Warren Hatcher, 36, of Mingo Junction, father of 2 children, was buried alive by the cave-in at the site of the city's new interceptor sewer and disposal plant system on 3rd St. near the intersection of Loretto Ave.

Efforts of Toronto police and firemen to revive him failed.

The other two men, Evan Dalton, 31, and Willie Evans, 50, both of Triadelphia, were covered with dirt up to their necks. They were injured only slightly and were treated at the Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville for contusions and back strain.

The three were working in a 20-foot deep ditch which collapsed at 3:20 yesterday afternoon. A passing truck driver saw the cave-in and called for help.

It took about 15 minutes to dig Dalton and Evans free from the dirt. Police and firemen worked about 45 minutes before they reached Mr. Hatcher's body.

All three were employes of the Erskine Construction & Mining Co. of Youngstown. This was the third cave-in since the project started six weeks ago, it was reported. The first was minor but a worker was injured slightly in the second when buried up to the waist.

Work has halted temporarily on the project. Firm officials were to inspect the scene today.

Appeals Court 'Affirms'

Cunningham's Bribery Case Conviction Upheld

The conviction of Ira Cunningham, former city police officer, for attempted bribery of a juror in his 1958 burglary trial, has been upheld by the 7th District Court of Appeals.

"Judgement affirmed" was the terse notice filed with the clerk of courts office at Lisbon today by the appelate court in the case of the former officer's appeal of the conviction for attempting to bribe a prospective juror.

CUNNINGHAM and Jerry Raimond, ex-special officer, were convicted in 1958 of the burglary of the Burbick Hardware Co. store in 1952, but this conviction was dismissed by the appelate panel on grounds the defendants had not been tried within the statutory period.

The indictment for the attempted bribery was filed after this trial, charging Cunningham had offered to make up the difference in pay for Donald Lockhart, a city drugstore clerk, and the jury allowance he would get if called to serve on the jury for the trial. Lockhart was not called.

THE CLERK advised the prosecutor's office which later taped a conversation between Cunningham, who delivered film at the drugstore, and Lockhart. The recording was used at the trial.

Cunningham faces from 1 - 5 years in prison and a fine of up to $500 for attempted bribery.

Meanwhile, Prosecutor G. William Brokaw is awaiting a ruling from the Ohio Supreme Court concerning his appeal of the appellate court's dismissal of the burglary charge against the two former officers.

BROKAW and Atty. Hugo Alexander of Steubenville, counsel for the pair, filed arguments on merits of the case at Columbus last week.

The two defendants were among 7 officers and ex-officers indicted for nine burglaries in a 1956 investigation of the city police department.

Ike, DeGaulle Pledge Unity For Summit

We'll Stand Together In Talks With Reds, 2 Leaders Declare

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today bade farewell to French President Charles de Gaulle with a pledge that "we'll stand together" in dealing with the Soviet Union.

De Gaulle told Eisenhower: "I have even greater confidence in our cause now since I have seen you."

The exchange took place on the north portico of the White House as De Gaulle paid a parting call on his host. De Gaulle was heading first for New York on a U.S. tour.

The tall French leader was accompanied by his wife on the brief White House visit.

The French and U.S. chiefs were in agreement on a plan to challenge Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to demonstrate by action that he wants a relaxation of tension.

That action, at the start of next month's summit conference in Paris, was agreed on by the two presidents in four days of talks which end today with De Gaulle's departure for New York.

The two Western leaders agreed to make clear to Khrushchev that if he presses his Berlin demands too far he will kill all chance of getting an improvement in East-West relations in other fields.

Their hope is that the Soviet Premier will agree to soft-pedal the Berlin dispute—in spite of his persistent tough talk about it—and concentrate instead on the summit search for common ground in disarmament.

Diplomats reported that Eisenhower and De Gaulle had reached a high degree of agreement in their pre-summit strategy discussions. They were represented as confident of full support and cooperation from British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, who will join them in meeting with Khrushchev at the Paris conference beginning May 16.

Susan Shepherd Is Champ

Six From County Gain Canton Bee

By BYRON EELLS

An eighth-grader at St. Aloysius School in East Liverpool, representing county parochial schools, won the championship of the first countywide spelling bee Monday night at Lisbon and with five other students will represent Columbiana County in the district contest May 6 in Canton.

Susan Shepherd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shepherd, 611 Harrison St., Newell, captured the title from 31 other contestants representing 8 school systems in the spelldown at David Anderson High School auditorium. About 200 attended.

THE OTHER five who move on to the Canton contest in the order of their finish are:

Linda Ferguson, 12, a seventh-grader at Fairview School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ferguson, 965 Township Line Rd., Wellsville.

Jeanne Klemann, 13, an eighth-grader at United Local and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Klemann of Hanoverton R. D. 1.

Catherine Jones, 11, sixth-grader at Klondyke School in East Liverpool and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones, 2162 Ohio Ave.

Kenneth Huk, 13, an eighth-grader and son of Mr. and Mrs. George Huk, 222 Allen St., Columbiana.

Sally Bennett, 11, a sixth-grader at LaCroft and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. James Bennett of Shady Ln. Dr.

Miss Shepherd had three narrow escapes before finally winning the crown.

WITH ONLY Miss Shepherd and Miss Ferguson left in the bee, the Newell youngster misspelled temerity by substituting an "a" for the first "e." However, Miss Ferguson missed, too, so the contest continued.

A few words later, Miss Shepherd spelled gamut "gamat" and gave Miss Ferguson another opportunity. However, the Wellsville student spelled the word "gamot" and both started over again.

On her next turn, Miss Ferguson spelled navigable with a second "i." Miss Shepherd spelled it correctly and then ended the bee by spelling ingredient.

Just after Miss Shepherd had started the ninth round with fission, Judy Cope of Fairfield-Waterford missed marauder to reduce the field to the six for the Canton bee.

WHEN spelling resumed, Miss Shepherd was given fanatical to spell and missed and Miss Bennett spelled lariat correctly.

Then bee officials realized the words should have resumed with Miss Bennett following Miss Cope and ordered Miss Shepherd reinstated.

Miss Bennett later missed partiality and Huk was eliminated on receptacle. The four remaining contestants battled through several more rounds before Miss Jones forgot the second "r" in scriptural.

A few rounds later, Miss Klemann went down on hilarious, putting an "a" in place of the first "i," reducing the field to the last two entrants.

Preceding Miss Cope to the sidelines in the eighth round were Delbert Williams of Highlandtown, who missed illicit; Ada Edgerton of Leetonia on frivolous, and Carol Hughes of Lisbon with laudable.

Victoria Desenze of Wellsville Immaculate Conception went down on opportune in the seventh round after Jackie Jewell of United Local missed municipal.

Cuba Holds 2 In Slaying Of Ship Captain

Americans Caught When Stolen Yacht Grounds On Islet

HAVANA (AP) — Cuban officials today held two American hot check men who killed a ship captain trying to rescue them from a Bahaman island and fled in his cabin cruiser.

Cuban authorities captured the pair—Alvin Table Jr., 25, and William Sees, 23—and the stolen yacht Muriel III Monday after they went aground on an islet near Isabela de Sagua, 200 miles east of Havana.

Officials said the fugitives would be brought to Havana, but did not say when. The British want them in the Bahamas on charges of murder and piracy.

Table, Sees and Table's 18-year-old bride, Barbara Fisher of San Antonio, Tex., stole a boat in Key West last week, ran out of gas and were stranded last Tuesday on Elbow Cay, a deserted island in the Bahamas. Their boat broke up on the rocks.

On Sunday Angus Boatwright, 55, of Key West, owner of the Muriel III, spotted the castaways while cruising for game fish with four Pennsylvania men who had chartered his boat.

Kent Hokanson, 21, mate of the Muriel, said Sees swam out and shot Boatwright after the skipper refused to land. He said Table joined Sees aboard the boat and they let the four Pennsylvanians swim ashore, floating Boatwright's body with them on life jackets. Hokanson said he dove overboard and also swam ashore, and Sees and Table fled in the Muriel, leaving Barbara Table on the island.

A Coast Guard plane picked up the castaways and flew them to Nassau. Another Coast Guard plane shadowed the Muriel but turned back five miles from the Cuban coast because of the strained relations between the United States and Cuba.

The British Embassy asked the Cuban government to apprehend the fugitives.

The British placed no charges against Barbara Table, but she said she hoped to stay in Nassau until her husband was brought there.

Barbara said she and Table eloped from San Antonio to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, a month ago. Table formerly lived at Torrance, Calif., and deserted a wife, Beverly, and their two small children there last September. Beverly Table said Monday she has filed for divorce.

Barbara said she, Table and Sees came to Miami early in April, stayed three or four days, paid their hotel bill with a bad check and went on to Key West. There they tried to buy a cabin

Rhee Set To Quit President's Post

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — President Syngman Rhee's 12-year rule over South Korea tottered and threatened to collapse today in the face of another great outburst of public opposition and firm pressure from the U.S. government.

After all-night street demonstrations in Seoul against his government, the 85-year-old leader offered to resign the presidency, ordered new elections of a president and vice president and promised to hand executive power over to a cabinet responsible to Parliament.

The National Assembly responded with a resolution asking Rhee to resign immediately and also called for elections to replace the Assembly, now dominated by Rhee's Liberal party.

There was no indication when Rhee would formally resign and when he would call the elections. But it was clear that the 12-year rule of South Korea's first and only president, its national hero and "George Washington," was nearly at an end.

Mystery surrounded Rhee's whereabouts. A spokesman at the presidential mansion said he had left there by car and he did not know where he was.

His prospective resignation raised the question of who would take over the reins of government, since Vice President John M. Chang, leader of the opposition Democratic party, has resigned and so has Lee Ki-Poong, the vice president-elect.

Presumably control will pass to Huh Chung, an independent politician and onetime acting premier whom Rhee Monday appointed foreign minister and ranking member of the new cabinet the president has been trying to form.

Jubilation swept Seoul. Police —symbol of oppression and torture under Rhee's rule — disappeared from the streets. Thousands besieged Rhee's hillside mansion. Uproarious, celebrating throngs milled down the broad, tree-lined avenue leading to the Capitol building.

Crowds pulled two statues of Rhee from their pedestals in public parks and dragged them through the streets.

Violence was not ended. One crowd of students attacked and burned a police station. Before they fled through a back door, the police opened fire, killing six students and wounding 36 others.

The Health Ministry announced that 15 demonstrators were killed and 173 wounded in Seoul today. It did not specify how the casualties came about.

Midland Sees Light Turnout

143 Ballots Counted In Forenoon Polling

Only a light vote was registered as Midland voters went to the polls today to decide a $625,000 general obligation bond issue for a new sewage plant, elect party committeemen and nominate party candidates for state and national posts.

A survey of 3 of the borough's five precincts showed a turnout of only 143 voters.

Voting was expected to increase this afternoon and continue heavier until the polls close at 9 p. m. A total of 3,003 are eligible to vote.

An official of the Second Precinct voting at 7th St. School said: "The morning's dragging." Only 29 had cast ballots shortly before noon — 18 Democrats, and 11 Republicans.

Precinct officials reported 59 had voted in the First Precinct in the Borough Building and 63 had cast ballots in the Fourth Precinct at the 4th St. School. Republicans were overwhelmed in the Fourth Precinct, with 57 Democrats voting as compared to 6 Republicans.

Voting In Beaver Reported As 'Slow'

BEAVER — Voting in the primary election today in Beaver County was reported as "slow" by election officials.

The horse racing referendum which has been drawing much attention in Pennsylvania is not on the ballot in Beaver County. Only 14 of the state's 67 counties are voting on the issue. Those counties casting votes on the referendum petitioned to have it placed on the ballot.

Nehru Turns Down Chou On Border Offer

Premier Sought To Abandon One Claim For Disputed Area

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru today rejected a proposal by Red China's Chou En-Lai that India abandon her claim to 15,000 square miles in the Ladakh sector of Kashmir in exchange for clear title to 36,000 disputed square miles on the northeast frontier.

"There can be no question of bartering away this area. Its ownership (by India) is a settled fact," Nehru told reporters at the airport after seeing Chou off to Nepal.

Before winding up his week-long visit, Chou told a news conference he had offered to abandon Peiping's claims to the northeast frontier territory in exchange for the Ladakh sector.

The Red Chinese Premier said India was "not entirely agreed" to the swap he proposed, but the border dispute "became smaller" as a result of his 21 hours of talk with Nehru.

Commenting on Chou's remarks, Nehru told newsmen that the Chinese leader's facts "are so basically different from ours that naturally conclusions differ, too."

Nehru said the week-long negotiations has brought "no lessening in the basic tensions" but added that feeling was not so bitter as during the border skirmishes last year in which 12 Indians were killed.

Wife Will Aid Hancock Bid Of Humphrey

Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey, wife of the senator from Minnesota who is contesting Sen. John F. Kennedy in the May 10 West Virginia primary, will make several stops in the Northern Panhandle area Wednesday.

Her appearances will begin at 10:30 a. m. with a reception in the Eagles Hall at Wellsburg. She then will be a guest of the New Cumberland Women's Democratic Club from noon to 1 p. m. during a luncheon in the VFW Hall there.

From 2:30 to 3:30, she will attend a reception in the Weirton Community Center and then visit the Weirton Steel Co. plant. Another reception at Moundsville tomorrow night will wind up the tour.

This is Mrs. Humphrey's second trip into West Virginia on behalf of her husband's bid for the presidential nomination on the Democratic ticket. She and the senator plan to return to West Virginia next week to continue the campaign, Humphrey headquarters in Wheeling said this morning.

Mrs. Humphrey will fly to Wheeling tonight from her home in Chevy Chase, Md.

Ballot Allows Write-Ins

Nixon May Find Pitfalls In Pennsylvania Primary

By The Associated Press

Vice President Richard M. Nixon faces no opposition in two state primaries today but he may find some pitfalls on at least one of the uncrowded ballots.

In Pennsylvania, his total will be compared with the 951,932 votes won by President Eisenhower four years ago. A rather poor showing could start talk of dumping Nixon and looking elsewhere for a Republican presidential nominee.

If Nixon surpasses the Eisenhower total, however, that might squelch any further attempt to boost Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York as a possible candidate.

Observers may have a difficult time squeezing significance out of the day's other primary in Massachusetts. There, Nixon is unopposed on the Republican ballot and the state's junior senator, John F. Kennedy, is unopposed on the Democratic ballot.

The Pennsylvania ballot allows write-ins, and Democrats as well as Rockefeller supporters are hoping for unusual demonstrations of appeal by their favorites.

Any large amount of write-in votes for a Democrat or Rockefeller could hurt Nixon and give the recipient a tremendous psychological boost.

Nixon backers have not shown any pre-primary concern. In fact one prominent, official resident of Pennsylvania, who has endorsed Nixon, most likely will be too busy in Washington to vote. He is President Eisenhower.

Two special congressional elections in the state may shed some light on the present strength of the parties. In the normally Republican 17th and 18th districts, voters will pick successors to the late

Lisbon Area Child Hurt When Struck By Auto

LISBON — Charlotte Myers, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Myers of R. D. 2, is in "fairly good" condition today at Salem City Hospital with injuries suffered when struck by a car on Route 30 about 2.5 miles south Monday at 3:30 p. m.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said the child ran from the east side of the road into the path of a southbound car driven by Benson Pelley, 52, of Wellsville.

The girl was treated by a Lisbon physician, then taken to the hospital.

To Help With Arrangements

Labor-Management Peace Parley Eyed By President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower takes a hand today in arrangements for holding a high level labor-management peace meeting in the near future.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell and AFL-CIO President George Meany had a midday appointment at the White House to discuss tentative plans with the President.

Plans worked out by Mitchell and Meany have not been disclosed but they are reported to involve inviting a group of top employers whose firms have labor agreements with AFL-CIO unions.

When the talks take place they are likely to be held in secret in hopes informality may lead to successfull agreement.

Eisenhower's State of the Union message to Congress last January said the lengthy steel strike demonstrated the need for better labor - management understanding. He said labor peace depends primarily on the good common sense of the responsible individuals.

"It is my intention," the President said then, "to encourage regular discussions between management and labor outside the bargaining table, to consider the interest of the public as well as their mutual interest in the maintenance of industrial peace, price stability and economic growth."

But arrangements for such talks were held up by opposition of some employer groups such as the National Assn. of Manufacturers and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

For that reason Meany and Mitchell are reported to have decided to suggest only individual employers be invited, instead of spokesmen for the employer organizations. Mitchell was delegated by Eisenhower to make the arrangements.

Increase Seen In Population For Hancock

The preliminary report of the Bureau of the Census shows Hancock County increased in population by 4,984 in the last decade.

Thomas F. Wilshire II of Fairmont, district supervisor, said Hancock County's population has reached 39,372, compared to 34,388 at the conclusion of the 1950 census.

Hancock was the only one of West Virginia's 55 counties that exceeded the national per capita income average in 1959 with $2,193. The per capital personal income in the state was $1,599.

The district supervisor said Weirton's population for 1960 is 23,853. It was 24,055 officially in 1950.

"These figures are believed to be substantially correct but are subject to revision after the returns for non-residents are credited to their proper locality and other routine checks have been made," Wilshire pointed out.

The official announcement of the population, including that for Chester, Newell and villages under 10,000, will be made at a later date by the director of the census.

Cuba Holds 2 In Slaying Of Ship Captain

Americans Caught When Stolen Yacht Grounds On Islet

HAVANA (AP) — Cuban officials today held two American hot check men who killed a ship captain trying to rescue them from a Bahaman island and fled in his cabin cruiser.

Cuban authorities captured the pair—Alvin Table Jr., 25, and William Sees, 23—and the stolen yacht Muriel III Monday after they went aground on an islet near Isabela de Sagua, 200 miles east of Havana.

Officials said the fugitives would be brought to Havana, but did not say when. The British want them in the Bahamas on charges of murder and piracy.

Table, Sees and Table's 18-year-old bride, Barbara Fisher of San Antonio, Tex., stole a boat in Key West last week, ran out of gas and were stranded last Tuesday on Elbow Cay, a deserted island in the Bahamas. Their boat broke up on the rocks.

On Sunday Angus Boatwright, 55, of Key West, owner of the Muriel III, spotted the castaways while cruising for game fish with four Pennsylvania men who had chartered his boat.

He said Table joined Sees aboard the boat and they let the four Pennsylvanians swim ashore, floating Boatwright's body with them on life jackets. Hokanson said he dove overboard and also swam ashore, and Sees and Table fled in the Muriel, leaving Barbara Table on the island.

A Coast Guard plane picked up the castaways and flew them to Nassau. Another Coast Guard plane shadowed the Muriel but turned back five miles from the Cuban coast because of the strained relations between the United States and Cuba.

The British Embassy asked the Cuban government to apprehend the fugitives.

The British placed no charges against Barbara Table, but she said she hoped to stay in Nassau until her husband was brought there.

Barbara said she and Table eloped from San Antonio to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, a month ago. Table formerly lived at Torrance, Calif., and deserted a wife, Beverly, and their two small children there last September. Beverly Table said Monday she has filed for divorce.

Barbara said she, Table and Sees came to Miami early in April, stayed three or four days, paid their hotel bill with a bad check and went on to Key West. There they tried to buy a cabin

One of three men trapped in a 20-foot deep sewer trench when it collapsed late Monday afternoon in Toronto died of asphyxiation, Dr. John P. Smarella, Jefferson County coroner, ruled today.

Warren Hatcher, 36, of Mingo Junction, father of 2 children, was buried alive by the cave-in at the site of the city's new interceptor sewer and disposal plant system on 3rd St. near the intersection of Loretto Ave.

Efforts of Toronto police and firemen to revive him failed.

The other two men, Evan Dalton, 31, and Willie Evans, 50, both of Triadelphia, were covered with dirt up to their necks. They were injured only slightly and were treated at the Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville for contusions and back strain.

The three were working in a 20-foot deep ditch which collapsed at 3:20 yesterday afternoon. A passing truck driver saw the cave-in and called for help.

It took about 15 minutes to dig Dalton and Evans free from the dirt. Police and firemen worked about 45 minutes before they reached Mr. Hatcher's body.

All three were employes of the Erskine Construction & Mining Co. of Youngstown. This was the third cave-in since the project started six weeks ago, it was reported. The first was minor but a worker was injured slightly in the second when buried up to the waist.

Work has halted temporarily on the project. Firm officials were to inspect the scene today.

143 Ballots Counted In Forenoon Polling

Only a light vote was registered as Midland voters went to the polls today to decide a $625,000 general obligation bond issue for a new sewage plant, elect party committeemen and nominate party candidates for state and national posts.

A survey of 3 of the borough's five precincts showed a turnout of only 143 voters.

Voting was expected to increase this afternoon and continue heavier until the polls close at 9 p. m. A total of 3,003 are eligible to vote.

An official of the Second Precinct voting at 7th St. School said: "The morning's dragging." Only 29 had cast ballots shortly before noon — 18 Democrats, and 11 Republicans.

Precinct officials reported 59 had voted in the First Precinct in the Borough Building and 63 had cast ballots in the Fourth Precinct at the 4th St. School. Republicans were overwhelmed in the Fourth Precinct, with 57 Democrats voting as compared to 6 Republicans.

Voting In Beaver Reported As 'Slow'

BEAVER — Voting in the primary election today in Beaver County was reported as "slow" by election officials.

The horse racing referendum which has been drawing much attention in Pennsylvania is not on the ballot in Beaver County. Only 14 of the state's 67 counties are voting on the issue. Those counties casting votes on the referendum petitioned to have it placed on the ballot.

Infiltrators Sentenced

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — A military court sentenced two armed Egyptian infiltrators Monday to 20 years in prison.

Cunningham's Bribery Case Conviction Upheld

The conviction of Ira Cunningham, former city police officer, for attempted bribery of a juror in his 1958 burglary trial, has been upheld by the 7th District Court of Appeals.

"Judgement affirmed" was the terse notice filed with the clerk of courts office at Lisbon today by the appelate court in the case of the former officer's appeal of the conviction for attempting to bribe a prospective juror.

CUNNINGHAM and Jerry Raimond, ex-special officer, were convicted in 1958 of the burglary of the Burbick Hardware Co. store in 1952, but this conviction was dismissed by the appelate panel on grounds the defendants had not been tried within the statutory period.

The indictment for the attempted bribery was filed after this trial, charging Cunningham had offered to make up the difference in pay for Donald Lockhart, a city drugstore clerk, and the jury allowance he would get if called to serve on the jury for the trial. Lockhart was not called.

THE CLERK advised the prosecutor's office which later taped a conversation between Cunningham, who delivered film at the drugstore, and Lockhart. The recording was used at the trial.

Cunningham faces from 1 - 5 years in prison and a fine of up to $500 for attempted bribery.

Meanwhile, Prosecutor G. William Brokaw is awaiting a ruling from the Ohio Supreme Court concerning his appeal of the appellate court's dismissal of the burglary charge against the two former officers.

BROKAW and Atty. Hugo Alexander of Steubenville, counsel for the pair, filed arguments on merits of the case at Columbus last week.

The two defendants were among 7 officers and ex-officers indicted for nine burglaries in a 1956 investigation of the city police department.

Would Order New Vote

Rhee Set To Quit President's Post

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — President Syngman Rhee's 12-year rule over South Korea tottered and threatened to collapse today in the face of another great outburst of public opposition and firm pressure from the U.S. government.

After all-night street demonstrations in Seoul against his government, the 85-year-old leader offered to resign the presidency, ordered new elections of a president and vice president and promised to hand executive power over to a cabinet responsible to Parliament.

The National Assembly responded with a resolution asking Rhee to resign immediately and also called for elections to replace the Assembly, now dominated by Rhee's Liberal party.

There was no indication when Rhee would formally resign and when he would call the elections. But it was clear that the 12-year rule of South Korea's first and only president, its national hero and "George Washington," was nearly at an end.

Mystery surrounded Rhee's whereabouts. A spokesman at the presidential mansion said he had left there by car and he did not know where he was.

His prospective resignation raised the question of who would take over the reins of government, since Vice President John M. Chang, leader of the opposition Democratic party, has resigned and so has Lee Ki-Poong, the vice president-elect.

Presumably control will pass to Huh Chung, an independent politician and onetime acting premier whom Rhee Monday appointed foreign minister and ranking member of the new cabinet the president has been trying to form.

Jubilation swept Seoul. Police—symbol of oppression and torture under Rhee's rule — disappeared from the streets. Thousands besieged Rhee's hillside mansion. Uproarious, celebrating throngs milled down the broad, tree-lined avenue leading to the Capitol building.

Crowds pulled two statues of Rhee from their pedestals in public parks and dragged them through the streets.

Violence was not ended. One crowd of students attacked and burned a police station. Before they fled through a back door, the police opened fire, killing six students and wounding 36 others.

The Health Ministry announced that 15 demonstrators were killed and 173 wounded in Seoul today. It did not specify how the casualties came about.

To Help With Arrangements

Labor-Management Peace Parley Eyed By President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower takes a hand today in arrangements for holding a high level labor-management peace meeting in the near future.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell and AFL-CIO President George Meany had a midday appointment at the White House to discuss tentative plans with the President.

Plans worked out by Mitchell and Meany have not been disclosed but they are reported to involve inviting a group of top employers whose firms have labor agreements with AFL-CIO unions.

When the talks take place they are likely to be held in secret in hopes informality may lead to successfull agreement.

Eisenhower's State of the Union message to Congress last January said the lengthy steel strike demonstrated the need for better labor - management understanding. He said labor peace depends primarily on the good common sense of the responsible individuals.

"It is my intention," the President said then, "to encourage regular discussions between management and labor outside the bargaining table, to consider the interest of the public as well as their mutual interest in the maintenance of industrial peace, price stability and economic growth."

But arrangements for such talks were held up by opposition of some employer groups such as the National Assn. of Manufacturers and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

For that reason Meany and Mitchell are reported to have decided to suggest only individual employers be invited, instead of spokesmen for the employer organizations. Mitchell was delegated by Eisenhower to make the arrangements.

Nehru Turns Down Chou On Border Offer

Premier Sought To Abandon One Claim For Disputed Area

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru today rejected a proposal by Red China's Chou En-Lai that India abandon her claim to 15,000 square miles in the Ladakh sector of Kashmir in exchange for clear title to 36,000 disputed square miles on the northeast frontier.

"There can be no question of bartering away this area. Its ownership (by India) is a settled fact," Nehru told reporters at the airport after seeing Chou off to Nepal.

Before winding up his week-long visit, Chou told a news conference he had offered to abandon Peiping's claims to the northeast frontier territory in exchange for the Ladakh sector.

The Red Chinese Premier said India was "not entirely agreed" to the swap he proposed, but the border dispute "became smaller" as a result of his 21 hours of talk with Nehru.

Commenting on Chou's remarks, Nehru told newsmen that the Chinese leader's facts "are so basically different from ours that naturally conclusions differ, too."

Nehru said the week-long negotiations has brought "no lessening in the basic tensions" but added that feeling was not so bitter as during the border skirmishes last year in which 12 Indians were killed.

Increase Seen In Population For Hancock

The preliminary report of the Bureau of the Census shows Hancock County increased in population by 4,984 in the last decade.

Thomas F. Wilshire II of Fairmont, district supervisor, said Hancock County's population has reached 39,372, compared to 34,388 at the conclusion of the 1950 census.

Hancock was the only one of West Virginia's 55 counties that exceeded the national per capita income average in 1959 with $2,198. The per capital personal income in the state was $1,599.

The district supervisor said Weirton's population for 1960 is 23,853. It was 24,055 officially in 1950.

"These figures are believed to be substantially correct but are subject to revision after the returns for non-residents are credited to their proper locality and other routine checks have been made," Wilshire pointed out.

The official announcement of the population, including that for Chester, Newell and villages under 10,000, will be made at a later date by the director of the census.

2nd Time At Salineville

Gas Rate Request Tabled In Council

SALINEVILLE — A proposed ordinance providing for a 16 per cent average gas rate increase was tabled by Council Monday night for the second time.

Council discussed possible extension of the rate period of the ordinance submitted by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., calling for rate increases ranging from 8 to 25 per cent, depending upon the amount consumed.

COUNCILMAN Donald Lewis asked Paul Temple, representative of the utility, if the rate period could not be changed from three to five years.

He also asked if an escalator clause, permitting rate boosts of gas suppliers to be passed on to the consumers, could not be eliminated.

Temple said the rate period might be revised, but he doubts if the escalator clause would be changed because that provision has been approved by the Public Utilities Commission.

Mayor Kenneth Leishman asked why Salineville had to pay so much of an increase when East Liverpool and Wellsville are to pay only an overall 12 per cent boost.

TEMPLE said the rates for the two larger communities were only tentative until a permanent rate agreement can be reached.

Mayor Leishman declared the rate ordinance will be up to Council, but said he is "going to take out gas and put in electricity."

Temple reminded Council the escalator clause has allowed less than 4 cents of a boost in the past 4 years.

He said the proposed ordinance has charges figured which would be less than the utility would get by going to the PUC, "because if we lost our requests from the PUC we never would get an ordinance through a community Council."

Council agreed to study the rate ordinance in more detail at a caucus meeting, and to advise Temple of its decision prior to the next meeting May 9.

IN OTHER action, Council approved first reading of an amendment to a junk yard ordinance establishing a penalty of from $25 to $200 for operators of scrap and junk yards who fail to construct a 7-foot fence about their premises.

Council accepted the resignation of Harold Merriner from Council, but took no action on appointing a successor. Merriner resigned to become caretaker at Woodland Cemetery.

Stanley Fitch of West End and Gillis Earl of Route 644 have applied for the Council post and action may be taken at the next session.

MAYOR LEISHMAN reported on plans for the annual clean-up days in May. He said trash collections will be made in the east section of town May 11, the center May 12 and the west section May 13.

Mayor Leishman said a representative of a bonding company will meet with Council May 23 to discuss possible financing procedures for the village's proposed sewage disposal system.

The mayor said the Madison Engineering Co., which has conducted a preliminary survey for the system, will be asked to send a representative to the meeting. It was advanced from May 30 because of Memorial Day.

A proposal from Washington Township trustees that Council pay for construction of a roof for a shelter to be erected at the jointly operated dump was reported by the mayor. Council is to confer with the trustees.

THE MAYOR said the county commissioners have authorized $1,278 for blacktopping three streets in the village as requested for the summer road aid program. He said the commissioners also will pay $300 as half share of work to be done on Route 644 within the village.

He added that a request for replacement of a bridge on Main St. was placed tentatively on the 1961 highway program.

It was announced Police Chief Cleo Mellott will start filing monthly reports in May. Needed repairs to a porch at the Village Hall were referred to the building committee.

Requests for street cleaning, a complaint of an open storm sewer on Foundry Hill and other matters were referred to committees.

DISCUSSION was held on the effectiveness of the recently established two-hour parking limit in the business section. Councilmen John Beadnell and Joe Knight reported complaints of trash and garbage being tossed along roads.

The meeting was held at the fire station because or remodeling of Council's room at the Village Hall.

'Whatizit' Injures Calcutta Youth's Hand In Capture

A Calcutta area youth who thought he caught a beaver near the former street car barns in East End, then decided it was a muskrat but was told it may be a nutria, has only a sore hand to account for the experience today.

Paul Carpenter, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crane of Clairmont Addition near Longs Run, snared the animal with a blanket Saturday night, thinking it was a beaver.

Closer inspection showed a tapering tail rather than the flat beaver tail, so Carpenter decided he had a large muskrat.

Later he was told he might have taken a nutria, an aquatic animal raised for its fur, but Don Dailey of Old Fredericktown Rd., who raises nutria, last night viewed the catch and termed it a muskrat.

Whatever it was, it suffered a fatal neck fracture when it tried to get out of its box and a member of the family closed the lid on it. Carpenter was treated at City Hospital for lacerations of the hand suffered while handling it after the capture.

3 City Students Attain Kent State Dean's List

Three city students and one from Wellsville attained the dean's list for the winter quarter of classes in the College of Arts and Sciences at Kent State University.

East Liverpool students listed are Mary E. Buchheit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Buchheit, 241 W. Church Ln., a senior majoring in library science; Larry C. Vermillion, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vermillion of LaCroft Ave., a sophomore majoring in geology, and Sue C. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Smith of Richardson Ave., a senior studying to be a laboratory technician.

The Wellsville student is Diane E. Moore, 216 Wells Ave. Paul R. Miller and Geraldine Pastorelli, both of Salem, also made the dean's list.

Stanton High School Goes On Approved List

IRONDALE — Stanton Local High School has been placed on the list of secondary schools approved for next year by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

Supt. C. P. Henderson has been notified of the action taken at the association's annual meeting in March in Chicago.

Asphyxiated In Crib

MALINE, N. Y. (AP) — John E. Sturgeon, 4 months old, was asphyxiated in his crib Monday, apparently when the family cat curled up on his face.

2 Youngsters Receive Cuts

Two youngsters, who suffered arm lacerations in separate falls against storm doors, were among four children and a woman treated at City Hospital Monday.

Mickey Scarry, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Scarry, 168 Indiana Ave., Chester, was treated last night for a laceration of the right wrist suffered in a fall against the storm door.

Thomas Charlton, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Charlton of Morton St., received a laceration of the upper right arm in a similar mishap at home.

Dewayne Gravey, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alber J. Garvey of Canton St., suffered a cut of the left knee in a fall while riding a bicycle.

Mrs. Charlotte Snyder of Irish Ridge Rd. suffered a cut of a finger of the right hand when caught against a trailer.

Alida Edwards, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards of Riverview St., received a laceration of the forehead when struck by a stone at play.

Prisoner Given Release To Sign For Jobless Pay

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff Monday ordered the release of Ronald Roach of Mulberry St., who had served 14 days in County Jail on a 30-day sentence imposed April 12 for assault and battery on another man April 7 in front of the Veterans Social Club on Pennsylvania Ave.

Judge Chertoff said he decided to release the prisoner because he could not register for unemployment compensation while in jail and the lack of income was working a hardship on Roach's wife and family.

Roach was placed on probation for the balance of his term and warned to "be of good behavior," the judge said.

Roach was sentenced in connecton with injuries suffered by Walter C. Hicks of W. 8th St. The defendant originally was charged with assault with a deadly weapon, but the count later was reduced to assault and battery.

150 Seen Wednesday At Dinner Of Chamber

An estimated 150 will attend the spring membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night at the Country Club to hear an address by Donald W. Stull of Columbus, assistant director of the new Ohio Department of Industrial and Economic Development.

Stull's address will follow an informal buffet supper at 6:30. T. Fred Edwards, president, will preside. Dr. Myer Alpern, co-chairman of the industrial development committee, will introduce the speaker.

Courthouse To Close At Noon On Tuesday

LISBON — The Columbiana County Courthouse, by mutual agreement of the officeholders will close next Tuesday at noon because of the primary election.

This is not a legal holiday so county commissioners had no authority to close the Courthouse but all the office heads decided to close their offices at noon.

Deaths And Funerals

Illness Takes Local Man, 85

James Fox, 85, of 823 Avondale St., a retired potter, died this morning at 10:40 at City Hospital, where he had been a patient since Feb. 2.

Born at New Matamoras, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Fox and resided in East Liverpool for 70 years.

He was employed last at the Harker Pottery Co., as a kiln-placer, retiring four years ago. He was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church and the IBOP.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Florence Howell and Miss Edith Fox, both at the home; a brother, William Fox of East Liverpool, and a granddaughter.

The body was removed to the Dawson Funeral Home. Arrangements are incomplete.

Mrs. John Bodinar

Mrs. Belva Snyder Bodinar, wife of John Bodinar of Westfield, died this morning at 10:15 at her home following a lingering illness. She was 65.

A native of Chester, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder. She had resided in East Liverpool for 29 years.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a step-daughter, Miss Margaret Bodinar at home, and four step-sons, William Bodinar and Edward Bodinar, both of Pomona, Calif., and Richard Bodinar and Donald Bodinar, both of East Liverpool.

The body was removed to the Dawson Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Edward Thomas

Services will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. at the East Liverpool Arner Home for Funerals by Maj. William Hathorn of the Salvation Army for Edward Thomas, 714 Belmar Ave., a retired potter who died early Monday morning at City Hospital. He was 74.

Burial will be in Locust Hill Cemetery at Chester. Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and evening.

William H. Lowe

William H. Lowe, 67, of Sparta, N. J., father of William Lowe of Cannons Mill Rd., died Saturday at his home.

He also leaves his widow, at home, and a daughter in Georgia.

Services and burial will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Golba Funeral Home at Sparta.

Mary Gould

LISBON — Mary Gould, 63, of the County Home died Monday at 4:35 p. m. at Salem City Hospital, where she had been a patient for 2 days.

She had been a resident at the home for 29 years.

Arrangements by the Eells-Leggett Funeral Home are incomplete.

De Gaulle

sociates as fully satisfied with his discussions with Eisenhower.

A communique issued at the White House late Monday gave no details but said Eisenhower and De Gaulle had been able "to define more precisely the position which will be taken at the summit conference on the questions which will be raised there."

"The main purpose of the conference in the view of the two presidents," the communique said, "is to achieve an easing of tension in the international situation."

Spokesmen for the two limited their report of full agreement between Eisenhower and De Gaulle to the summit problems they discussed. This indicated that they had not reconciled differences they have within the Western alliance. De Gaulle, for example has declined to permit U.S. nuclear warheads to be based on French soil but insists that France must have its own atomic weapons.

Kiwanis To See Film

LISBON — Films of the 1959 "Little Brown Jug" and the Hambletonian race meet in New York state will be shown at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday noon at the American Legion home. Edwin L. Kauffman is program chairman for April.

Harold D. Gregory Dies; Principal At Wells High

Harold D. Gregory, 49, veteran principal of Wells High School at Newell, died this morning about 9:30 at his Chester home from an apparent stroke.

Mr. Gregory, who with his family had just recently moved into a new home near the Chester High School, became ill during the night. He had attended a meeting of Hancock County principals Monday night at Weirton.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Gregory of Dunn St., he was born at Newell, where he attended school, graduating from Wells High School in 1929. He was graduated from West Virginia Business College at Fairmont.

He received a bachelor degree from West Virginia University in 1935 and a master's degree from the university in 1938.

Mr. Gregory began teaching at Chester in 1935 and served until 1943, when he became principal at Newell.

He was also interested in home construction and built a number of Chester area houses, including his new home on Louisiana Ave. near the high school. The family moved at Easter time from the former home near Dunn St.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Kathryn Gregory at the home and his parents, survivors include two sons,

H. D. GREGORY
Taken By Sudden Illness.

Harold Gregory Jr., student at West Virginia University, and Robert Gregory at home; and two daughters, Jean Gregory, also a student at the university, and Ann Gregory at home.

The body was removed to the Arner Chester Chapel where arrangements are incomplete.

Pair Honored By Ceramists At Convention

The American Ceramic Society conferred its highest honors on an Ohioan and a New York state woman as it opened its 62nd annual meeting Monday in Philadelphia.

The title of honorary member was conferred on Dr. George A. Bole, professor emeritus at Ohio State University and a charter fellow of the society, and Miss Emily Van Schoick of Alfred, N. Y., who organized the library at the New York College of Ceramics at Alfred.

It was the second time in the 61-year history of the society that the title of honorary member was conferred on two individuals at the same meeting.

Dr. Bole was honored for "notable accomplishments in the ceramic sciences, leadership in ceramic research and many services to the American Ceramic Society." Miss Van Schoick was honored for her "long and active career in ceramic literature and work for the society." She has served as assistant editor of all three of the society's monthly publications.

Twenty men were elevated to the rank of fellow of the society, including Edwin Ruh of Harbison - Walker Refractories Co. at Pittsburgh, long active in the Pittsburgh Section.

Congregation Told Of Plans

Plans for the 1960-61 program and finances for the Orchard Grove Methodist Church were outlined by commission members and church leaders at a congregational dinner and meeting Monday night.

The Rev. James Gardner, minister, discussed the program of worship and social concern, and Thomas Doland, chairman of the Financial Commission, reported on plans for stewardship, financing and support of the pastoral ministry.

Mrs. Robert Miller, chairman of the membership and evangelism commission, spoke of plans for evangelistic meetings and distribution of literature. Mrs. Paul Jones, chairman of the commission on education, discussed the Church School program.

The immediate needs of the church building were outlined by Frederick McManus, president of the trustees, and the missionary program was reviewed by Carlos Deemer, member of the Missionary Commission.

The total program of the church was summarized by Robert Miller, chairman of the program and resources committee. Dr. Fred Banfield was master of ceremonies. Selections were sung by the Crusaders Quartet of the First Nazarene Church.

William Warrick was in charge of the dinner.

Exam Planned For Fire Jobs

A competitive examination will be held June 6 at 8 p. m. at City Hall to make up a new eligibility list for fire department appointments, the Municipal Civil Service Commission decided Monday night.

The deadline for applications will be Wednesday, May 18, at 4 p. m. The age bracket is 21-31. A fireman draws $320 monthly during a 6-month probationary period, then advances to $338.

The department has no vacancies at present, but the commission maintains a list of eligibles from which to certify names to the administration in case a job is to be filled.

The date for the examination was set after the commission conducted a test last night to make up a new eligibility list for police department posts.

Of five who competed, four were given passing grades. Ten had applied for the exam before the deadline last week, but five did not appear. There are no openings at present in the police department, but the eligibility list will be held in the commission's files.

Forms for the fire department test may be obtained at the office of Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, from any member of the commission — Donal I. Burcham, Atty. Ben H. Berman and Clarence E. Reagle — or from P. K. Calhoon, secretary.

Speeder Forfeits $15

LISBON — Robert Robb, 36, of 314 Lincoln Way forfeited $15 bond in County Judge James L. MacDonald's court Monday when he failed to appear on a charge of speeding. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Marshal Tito, ruler of Yugoslavia, went to school at the age of 15 to learn to be a locksmith. He was also taught metal-working, geography, history, and languages.

Jail 'Population' Low

LISBON — Columbiana County Jail Monday had only 16 inmates, the lowest number of prisoners since the jail opened in 1955, according to Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan. Up to Monday, the lowest number held at one time was 18, VanFossan said.

The Pittsburgh Civic Arena, which will cost 20 million dollars, will have the world's largest retractable dome. The movable roof will be 415 feet in diameter.

Cautious Optimism For The Summit

President Eisenhower and President De Gaulle concluded their Washington talks in agreement that the West must stand firm at the Geneva summit conference on the Berlin question.

Meanwhile, back at the Soviet oil center of Baku, Premier Khrushchev was repeating his threat to sign a separate treaty with East Germany and thus leave the West at the mercy of that Communist regime in trying to keep supply lines open to West Berlin.

Those two reports summarize the reasons pundits on international affairs are predicting the world will not wake up the morning after the Geneva parley ends to find peace dawning everywhere.

NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV'S threat on Berlin was the issue that precipitated the decision to hold a summit meeting and the Berlin issue is still nominally the No. 1 item on the agenda. But neither side has budged an inch on the Berlin question and neither side has any real hopes that an out-and-out agreement will be reached.

The issue remains basically a threat that Premier Khrushchev is unlikely to withdraw and that Western leaders are unlikely to be cowed by.

Instead, both sides are talking more and more about disarmament, which promises to be the No. 1 item on the Geneva agenda in fact if not in name. There are vast differences of opinion between East and West on this, too, but it is a constructive subject with an aura of hope about it.

Besides, disarmament is still an embryo in international development, so it is possible for the two power blocs to reach agreement in terms of broad principle without committing themselves to any rigid course of action. Everybody agrees already it would be desirable, so it is a good thing to talk about at a "peace conference."

Summit conferences are valuable not because of the concrete steps they make toward world peace, but because of the propaganda effect they can have in "easing world tensions."

NO ONE CAN DENY that the tensions created by Mr. K's original threat on Berlin a a year and a half ago have been greatly diminished in the preparations of the last nine months or so for the Geneva meeting. No one can deny that the shifting of emphasis from the Berlin question to disarmament has encouraged hope rather than despair, even though little of real substance may be accomplished on either topic.

The danger of summit conferences is the arousing of false hopes, which are followed by grand disillusionment. What is needed is cautious optimism rather than soaring illusion or stark pessimism.

The fact that a summit conference can be held at all is something to be thankful for.

Anniversary Picture

Unfanciful Thoughts On Love

Along with the beauties of new foliage, new blossoms and blue skies, spring has produced a rash of ugly political upheavals around the world.

In at least half a dozen spots on the globe, young men are arming themselves with physical or spiritual weapons and marching, picketing, rioting or merely sitting down in protest.

It makes one wonder if something has happened to the old idea that "in spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

Probably not. It remains true as ever. What appears to have changed is the perspective that quickly spanned distances put on things.

Because he was concentrating at the moment on romance, the poet did not mention that young men have always been as prone to rebellion in the spring as they are to love. The two are complementary rather than contradictory. They both represent a renewed demand for self-expression, for swimming closer to the mainstream of life.

In this age of emphasis on harsh realities, cynicism and insecurity, rebellion and discontent often make a greater impression than romance. Rebellion seems to symbolize more aptly than love what is going on in the world.

And rapid communications tend to heighten the impact. The riot in South Africa or Korea, which once would have been a purely local matter, winds up in the lap of a newspaper reader halfway around the world in a matter of hours.

But don't forget that "love makes the world go 'round." What men rebel for is what is closest to their hearts — love of self, love of family, love of race or creed, love of country.

There never was a rebellion so tragic as to quash the stirrings of romance in a young man's breast. There never will be, because they spring from the same phenomenon of springtime.

This spring of 1960, young men's fancies are still turning lightly to thoughts of love. And so they will long after this spring's rebellions are forgotten and the world's orders have been uprooted a thousand times.

Is Khrushchev Slipping At Home?

By Victor Riesel

NEW YORK

Among the intensely informed men who met here at the AFL-CIO World Affairs Conference, there are those who believe that N. S. Khrushchev's personal pedestal is a slip-summit at home.

Victor Riesel

There are documents in the hands of some of these men which say bluntly that the Soviet chairman has lost power and prestige inside the Central Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.S.R.

True, the men who report this are but a few out of several leaders. True, they were gathered above Pershing Square last Tuesday and Wednesday, thousands of miles from Red Square. But they did have authenticated reports of Soviet Central Committee members blaming Khrushchev for vast crop failures, strikes, youth uprisings and the dangerous disgruntling of 250,000 army officers.

THERE ARE no great philosophical and ideological upsurgings.

The army men, for example are in an uproar because they want good jobs or pensions since they have been demobilized. They have families to support. Yet many of them are too young to be eligible for military pensions.

And their Socialist fatherland can't use them in well-paying jobs because they are too old for training for modern industry after their years in the army.

They have been sent to the "new construction sites" in Siberia, the Far East and Kazakhstan, which runs out from the Caspian Sea to the Chinese border. They don't like being used as raw, heavy labor.

They blame their loss of status —as much sought after in Russia as in Westchester, U.S.A.— on Khrushchev's desire to make world propaganda.

It was none other than Minister of Defense Marshal Rodion Malinovsky who said: "The release of more than 250,000 officers will be accompanied by certain difficulties."

He was quoted in Red Star, Jan. 20. He appealed to the patriotism and Communism of the affected men and asked them to "show proper understanding of and a correct attitude toward the circumtances that have arisen.

"It is hardly fitting for Soviet citizens — Soviet officers, Communists and Komsomol members (youth)—to be disheartened by the necessity of changing their profession or because they have to leave the ranks of the army before they have served the time laid down as qualification for a pension," Malinovsky stated.

APPARENTLY those dispatched to Kazakhstan, according to reports here, thought patriotism was a matter of taste. There was an uprising and a strike. More than 100 were killed during the protest against low wages and dismal living conditions at the construction site of the Karaganda Metallurgical Plant. The director of the big steel and iron complex was thrown out of the fourth floor window.

N. S. Khrushchev is depending on the metal from this plant to put steel into his boasting that he will out-race us into the skies and bury us with rockets.

In the heavy documentation of all this surly restlessness there is much to pick from—but perhaps the point is best made by an action of the party's Central Committee and the Council of Ministers of the U.S.S.R. on Jan. 20. They took sudden and public note of the people's need for hospitalization and health protection. The Soviet people were told not to worry any more about illness.

THE TEXT of the statement was practically a promise to abolish diphtheria, tularemia, polio, malaria, uncinariasis, trachoma and a few important diseases as well as the promise to "reveal the causes of cancer. . . and to set up elaborate measures for their prevention and effective cure."

Apparently the high command is desperate for a real opiate for the people.

This move is characteristic of a series of promises of sudden delivery from hunger, decrepit housing and low wages as well as from pestilence.

Inside the Central Committee there is more and more open criticism of Khrushchev—and an understanding that N.S.K. can front for the U.S.S.R. so long as he knows that the real power is not his. That's what some documents here state.

Soon enough we shall see if they have analyzed correctly the private weakness of this public strong man.

What Will Mr. K Say

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

There's only one gimmick left for the summit conference, but it's a beaut.

The Western Allies are now all agreed on what they'll say to Premier Nikita Khrushchev. They have a solid front.

What they don't know is what he'll say to them.

If he goes to the May 16 meeting in Paris in the same mood which seized him Monday, he is going to make it uncomfortable for them.

Since the Western Allies were at sixes and sevens on what to do and say at the summit, the first thing for them was to make up their minds.

They finally did. Almost two weeks ago the Western foreign ministers met here and wound up sounding as much in harmony as a barbershop quartet.

Khrushchev wants the West to get its troops out of Berlin. He wants the West to sign separate peace treaties with West Germany and Communist East Germany, a move which would recognize the permanent division of Germany.

The West has consistently refused to pull out its troops. Instead of separate peace treaties dividing Germany, the West wants the two parts of that country unified.

To no one's surprise, the foreign ministers agreed they would stand pat.

Khrushchev has his own ideas about world disarmament. The Western Allies have different ones. The foreign ministers decided to stand pat on them, too.

Meanwhile, although it didn't get much publicity, the Western Allies and the Soviet Union agreed that there would be three subjects on their agenda of things to talk about at the summit: Germany, including Berlin; disarmament; and East-West relations.

Then French President Charles de Gaulle, although the agenda was already agreed on and settled, came over to talk to President Eisenhower.

Since foreign affairs can sometimes get as solemn as a man wearing a high silk hat when all he needs is a derby, what followed was no surprise.

After four days of talks between Eisenhower and De Gaulle, there came an announcement of what was already well known — that they would present a solid front to Khrushchev on disarmament and Berlin. For good measure they threw in another point. They agreed to talk to Khrushchev about one of De Gaulle's pet ideas —getting the West and the Soviet Union to work together a bit in providing aid to backward countries.

But Khrushchev, who has a way of tearing up the furniture, seemed determined not to let Eisenhower and De Gaulle have a completely pleasant day.

Away off in the Soviet oil center of Baku he got ugly. It was as if he had been getting a little fed up hearing the Allies announce, before they ever met him at the summit, that he wasn't going to change them a bit on Berlin and Germany.

The Allies have always been at a bit of a disadvantage in arguing with Khrushchev about Berlin for very practical reasons.

Although the city is linked with West Germany in its sympathy and political thinking, it lies 100 miles inside Communist East Germany, which makes it a little island in a big Communist world.

Its supplies from the West—by rail, water or air—can reach the city only so long as the Communists don't shut them off.

As if giving the Allies a bang on the head, Khrushchev advised them to show "common sense" when they got to the summit.

If he has to, he said, he'll sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany and then the Allies could be shut out of Berlin by air, rail or water.

This could be an awful mess if he made good on his threat.

What the Allies don't know and can't guess is: Will he make good unless they climb down off their horse and yield a bit?

Hope For Railroad-Union Agreement

As expected, President Eisenhower has named a three-man emergency board to study and recommend solutions to a dispute between the nation's major railroads and 11 non-operating rail unions.

The effect is to delay for 60 days any overt move such as a strike by the unions or a wage cut threatened by the companies. Half of that time will be devoted to negotiations between the two sides on the recommendations made by the board.

Whether this procedure, which is provided by the Railway Labor Act, will ultimately settle the dispute and prevent a strike cannot be predicted, because there is nothing that makes the board's suggestions binding on the opposing parties. But there is a constructive aspect to the approach that offers more hope for settlement than methods used in some other labor-management battles.

For one thing, it allows the President to act before a strike occurs, as opposed to the Taft-Hartley injunction, which allows the President to act only when a strike is deemed to be injuring the national welfare. Once a strike has occurred, the lines tend to become more hardened and the feelings on both sides more bitter. There is more prestige at stake.

For another, it provides for something a little extra special in the way of negotiations during the 60-day delay. Under the Taft-Hartley's 80-day "cooling off" period, negotiations go on pretty much as before, except that there is a provision for "best offer" votes among workers on a company-by-company basis if no settlement is reached after the first 60 days.

Still another alternative lies in the possibility the board can recommend a more detailed and lengthy study if the issues are too knotty for quick resolution. This is deemed a possibility in another railroad dispute with the operating unions, where work rules involving carrier charges of "featherbedding" are the primary issue.

The attempt throughout is to exhaust every avenue of peaceful settlement before a dispute reaches the critical stage.

Assuming that neither management nor the unions want a strike if it can possibly be avoided, there is greater hope for settlement without a strike that could have a serious effect on the nation's economy.

The high cost of college education is being increased by cost of dormatories and apartment lodgings for married students. Once upon a time boys couldn't marry and stay in college.

Today it can be hard to find one on the campus who is still single. Big colleges welcome student, missus and kids.

Can a boy keep his mind on his studies if he has begun the day with a row with his wife at breakfast? Isn't it likely every question in the classroom will be dominated by "How can I manage to take the missus to the theater tonight?"

These days a student may have to cut class because baby is sick. The classbook vote may include "Man Most Likely To Be Help Around the House," "Class Floorwalker" and "Student Most Likely To Avoid Nevada Divorce."

Costs of education are getting higher and higher, with the possibility colleges may have to adopt credit cards and teach on the "Get Diploma Now; Pay Later" plan.

Stevenson's Keynote

By David Lawrence

Adlai Comes Near Predicting A GOP Victory

Adlai Stevenson in a speech the other day came near to predicting a Republican victory in the presidential election next November.

David Lawrence

He didn't do it intentionally, of course, and the paragraph in his address to the American Society of Newspaper Editors in which he conveyed that impression did 't get any emphasis in the press the next morning. But it's the key to the American electorate's attitude as of today, which strongly resembles what happened in Great Britain a year ago when the Conservatives won the national election despite the widely acknowledged fact that supporters of the Socialist Labor party had previously outnumbered them by a wide margin.

"We are, I think, witnessing," Mr. Stevenson said, "something new here in the democracies of the West. In the past, critics of social evils, of obvious injustice or privilege or oppression could mobilize behind their protest something like a majority vote.

"Most people were poor and oppressed and helpless. The vote was their first instrument to register their protest. The first force, other than violence, given them to redress their wrongs.

"But our modern mass electorate are verging on the comfortable —and to many, freedom has come to mean freedom from political responsibility. 'Don't let them take it away'—with all the connotations of conservatism (and distasteful memories for me)—is more appealing than 'let's build a better world.'

"The engine of social progress has run out of fuel—the fuel of discontent. I suspect all three of us here today have found how difficult it is to struggle for change and challenge and reform as the waves of affluence and the high tide of consumption breaks over the modern electorate."

-:-

MR. STEVENSON had alongside him at the meeting of the editors Hugh Gaitskell, who leads the British Labor party and Lester B. Pearson, who is the leader of the political opposition to the Conservatives in Canada.

Mr. Stevenson unwittingly perhaps was trying to draw a parallel on the basis of what has long been known in politics as the doctrine of economic content or discontent.

Opposition parties win overwhelmingly when there is depression or recession or when some emotional issue arises in relation to peace or war or there are charges of lack of integrity that seem persuasive to the electorate. Candidates, however well qualified, cannot successfully buck that tide.

Now Mr. Stevenson, whose advisers have doubtless been taking soundings and polls, is disturbed because of the "waves of affluence and the high tide of consumption" in America.

He says it is difficult for dissenters to be given a hearing. They don't seem to be able as yet, at least, to organize an effective protest.

They have, of course, tried with such subjects as the missile gap, Russia's achievements with the "Sputnik" and the supposed lack of interest in social-welfare legislation by the Republicans. None of these arguments has as yet clicked and that's what may be read between the lines of Mr. Stevenson's speech.

INCIDENTALLY, the former Illinois governor is smarting still over his 1956 defeat and allowed his emotions to get the better of his judgment in one part of his speech as he complained that President Eisenhower today is embracing the very policy on banning nuclear tests that he, Mr. Stevenson, was criticized for proposing at the meeting of the American Society of Editors in April 1956. But the newspaper clippings are still available and they show that the former Illinois governor suggested in 1956 a "unilateral" suspension of all tests by the United States.

This meant that the United States would stop all tests irrespective would stop all tests irrespective of any agreement whatsoever by the Russians persisted in testing, "we will know about it and we can reconsider our policy."

The facts are that the current negotiations for banning nuclear tests above ground provide for certain written pledges by both sides. As for tests below ground, this is still an unsettled problem and, while each side is to agree on its own to refrain from certain of these tests for a brief period, this is conditioned so far as America is concerned upon an accord in many other categories. It is part of an over-all package.

IF MR. STEVENSON was trying to say that there is at present a proposal "unilaterally" to refrain on certain type of test, he has a point; but this can hardly be compared to what was suggested by the Illinois governor in 1956. It will be recalled that Sen. Clinton Anderson, Democrat, chairman of the congressional Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, also criticized and vigoroulsly dissented from Mr. Stevenson's proposition in 1956.

This very controversy raised by Mr. Stevenson illustrates why the aspirants for the Democratic presidential nomination this year are having a hard time mobilizing supporters for their protests among the independent-minded voters.

The public is interested in pocketbook issues and human issues such as whether peace has been advanced or retarded. Thus far the Republicans have the psychological advantage in their slogans: "We're giving you peace and prosperity," and "This is no time for change."

Letters To The Editor

The Review has certainly gone out on a limb by printing the editorial "With Due Respect to Missileers" on Friday, April 22. Apparently the Review is a little confused on several points.

The Review chides militarists because they predicted gas would be used throughout World War II. Needless to say, the defense against an ICBM traveling 17,254 MPH is more difficult to obtain than a defense against gas. No country would think of using a weapon when the opponent already had an effective defense against it. At the present there is no defense against the ICBM.

The second charge made by The Review is that the ICBM's are not accurate. It charges that no ICBM will hit its target except by accident. This is not so. Currently the operational Atlas can hit within two miles of any given target. This is accurate enough to destroy any target in the world, including air bases, since the Atlas carries an H-bomb which is 50 times more powerful than the A-bomb dropped on Japan during World War II.

You have even gone so far as to say that they may never be accurate. Apparently The Review has not taken the time to get the facts. At the present time, four out of every five H-bombs carrying Atlas-D's can hit within two miles of the target. These are standing on their launching pads, ready to go.

As far as the statement that the U.S. and the USSR will be allies in any future war is concerned this is highly unlikely unless the USSR discontinues its policy of murder behind the Iron Curtain.

A few days ago I had to take my daughter to the dentist and I parked the car in front of a dentist's office on 6th St.

When I came back, I had gotten a ticket for parking in a truck-loading zone. I parked illegally. I got a ticket and I paid it. What I can't understand is why I got a ticket for parking in a truck parking zone and a car that was parked at a fire hydrant did not. He parked when I did and he was still there when I left.

Since when did it become legal for cars to park in front of a fire hydrant?

I don't think the city firemen will put up with this. The next time I see cars parked at fireplugs, I am going to the fire hall and ask the fire chief if it is legal.

Cautious Optimism For The Summit

President Eisenhower and President De Gaulle concluded their Washington talks in agreement that the West must stand firm at the Geneva summit conference on the Berlin question.

Meanwhile, back at the Soviet oil center of Baku, Premier Khrushchev was repeating his threat to sign a separate treaty with East Germany and thus leave the West at the mercy of that Communist regime in trying to keep supply lines open to West Berlin.

Those two reports summarize the reasons pundits on international affairs are predicting the world will not wake up the morning after the Geneva parley ends to find peace dawning everywhere.

NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV'S threat on Berlin was the issue that precipitated the decision to hold a summit meeting and the Berlin issue is still nominally the No. 1 item on the agenda. But neither side has budged an inch on the Berlin question and neither side has any real hopes that an out-and-out agreement will be reached.

The issue remains basically a threat that Premier Khrushchev is unlikely to withdraw and that Western leaders are unlikely to be cowed by.

Instead, both sides are talking more and more about disarmament, which promises to be the No. 1 item on the Geneva agenda in fact if not in name. There are vast differences of opinion between East and West on this, too, but it is a constructive subject with an aura of hope about it.

Besides, disarmament is still an embryo in international development, so it is possible for the two power blocs to reach agreement in terms of broad principle without committing themselves to any rigid course of action. Everybody agrees already it would be desirable, so it is a good thing to talk about at a "peace conference."

Summit conferences are valuable not because of the concrete steps they make toward world peace, but because of the propaganda effect they can have in "easing world tensions."

NO ONE CAN DENY that the tensions created by Mr. K's original threat on Berlin a a year and a half ago have been greatly diminished in the preparations of the last nine months or so for the Geneva meeting. No one can deny that the shifting of emphasis from the Berlin question to disarmament has encouraged hope rather than despair, even though little of real substance may be accomplished on either topic.

The danger of summit conferences is the arousing of false hopes, which are followed by grand disillusionment. What is needed is cautious optimism rather than soaring illusion or stark pessimism.

The fact that a summit conference can be held at all is something to be thankful for.

Unfanciful Thoughts On Love

Along with the beauties of new foliage, new blossoms and blue skies, spring has produced a rash of ugly political upheavals around the world.

In at least half a dozen spots on the globe, young men are arming themselves with physical or spiritual weapons and marching, picketing, rioting or merely sitting down in protest.

It makes one wonder if something has happened to the old idea that "in spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

Probably not. It remains true as ever. What appears to have changed is the perspective that quickly spanned distances put on things.

Because he was concentrating at the moment on romance, the poet did not mention that young men have always been as prone to rebellion in the spring as they are to love. The two are complementary rather than contradictory. They both represent a renewed demand for self-expression, for swimming closer to the mainstream of life.

Away off in the Soviet oil center of Baku he got ugly. It was as if he had been getting a little fed up hearing the Allies announce, before they ever met him at the summit, that he wasn't going to change them a bit on Berlin and Germany.

The Allies have always been at a bit of a disadvantage in arguing with Khrushchev about Berlin for very practical reasons.

Although the city is linked with West Germany in its sympathy and political thinking, it lies 100 miles inside Communist East Germany, which makes it a little island in a big Communist world.

Its supplies from the West—by rail, water or air—can reach the city only so long as the Communists don't shut them off.

As if giving the Allies a bang on the head, Khrushchev advised them to show "common sense" when they got to the summit.

If he has to, he said, he'll sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany and then the Allies could be shut out of Berlin by air, rail or water.

This could be an awful mess if he made good on his threat.

Hope For Railroad-Union Agreement

As expected, President Eisenhower has named a three-man emergency board to study and recommend solutions to a dispute between the nation's major railroads and 11 non-operating rail unions.

The effect is to delay for 60 days any overt move such as a strike by the unions or a wage cut threatened by the companies. Half of that time will be devoted to negotiations between the two sides on the recommendations made by the board.

Whether this procedure, which is provided by the Railway Labor Act, will ultimately settle the dispute and prevent a strike cannot be predicted, because there is nothing that makes the board's suggestions binding on the opposing parties. But there is a constructive aspect to the approach that offers more hope for settlement than methods used in some other labor-management battles.

For one thing, it allows the President to act before a strike occurs, as opposed to the Taft-Hartley injunction, which allows the President to act only when a strike is deemed to be injuring the national welfare. Once a strike has occurred, the lines tend to become more hardened and the feelings on both sides more bitter. There is more prestige at stake.

For another, it provides for something a little extra special in the way of negotiations during the 60-day delay. Under the Taft-Hartley's 80-day "cooling off" period, negotiations go on pretty much as before, except that there is a provision for "best offer" votes among workers on a company-by-company basis if no settlement is reached after the first 60 days.

Still another alternative lies in the possibility the board can recommend a more detailed and lengthy study if the issues are too knotty for quick resolution. This is deemed a possibility in another railroad dispute with the operating unions, where work rules involving carrier charges of "featherbedding" are the primary issue.

The attempt throughout is to exhaust every avenue of peaceful settlement before a dispute reaches the critical stage.

Assuming that neither management nor the unions want a strike if it can possibly be avoided, there is greater hope for settlement without a strike that could have a serious effect on the nation's economy.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The high cost of college education is being increased by cost of dormatories and apartment lodgings for married students. Once upon a time boys couldn't marry and stay in college.

Today it can be hard to find one on the campus who is still single. Big colleges welcome student, missus and kids.

Yale has bought a tract to build apartments for married students carrying books in one hand and grocery list in other.

Similar steps are being taken by other universities. It will hurt football. How can a boy on the gridiron squad follow orders to "Beat Harvard" if his uppermost is the aim to beat the problem of rent, electricity and the butcher bills?

Is there much chance of a broken-field runner doing his best if in midfield the thought occurs to him "I musn't forget to stop and get a receipted bill for last month's diaper service"?

Can a boy keep his mind on his studies if he has begun the day with a row with his wife at breakfast? Isn't it likely every question in the classroom will be dominated by "How can I manage to take the missus to the theater tonight?"

These days a student may have to cut class because baby is sick. The classbook vote may include "Man Most Likely To Be Help Around the House," "Class Floorwalker" and "Student Most Likely To Avoid Nevada Divorce."

Costs of education are getting higher and higher, with the possibility colleges may have to adopt credit cards and teach on the "Get Diploma Now; Pay Later" plan.

Stevenson's Keynote

By David Lawrence

Adlai Comes Near Predicting A GOP Victory

Adlai Stevenson in a speech the other day came near to predicting a Republican victory in the presidential election next November.

David Lawrence

He didn't do it intentionally, of course, and the paragraph in his address to the American Society of Newspaper Editors in which he conveyed that impression did 't get any emphasis in the press the next morning. But it's the key to the American electorate's attitude as of today, which strongly resembles what happened in Great Britain a year ago when the Conservatives won the national election despite the widely acknowledged fact that supporters of the Socialist Labor party had previously outnumbered them by a wide margin.

"We are, I think, witnessing," Mr. Stevenson said, "something new here in the democracies of the West. In the past, critics of social evils, of obvious injustice or privilege or oppression could mobilize behind their protest something like a majority vote.

"Most people were poor and oppressed and helpless. The vote was their first instrument to register their protest. The first force, other than violence, given them to redress their wrongs.

"But our modern mass electorate are verging on the comfortable —and to many, freedom has come to mean freedom from political responsibility. 'Don't let them take it away'—with all the connotations of conservatism (and distasteful memories for me)—is more appealing than 'let's build a better world.'

"The engine of social progress has run out of fuel—the fuel of discontent. I suspect all three of us here today have found how difficult it is to struggle for change and challenge and reform as the waves of affluence and the high tide of consumption breaks over the modern electorate."

-:-

MR. STEVENSON had alongside him at the meeting of the editors Hugh Gaitskell, who leads the British Labor party and Lester B. Pearson, who is the leader of the political opposition to the Conservatives in Canada.

Mr. Stevenson unwittingly perhaps was trying to draw a parallel on the basis of what has long been known in politics as the doctrine of economic content or discontent.

Opposition parties win overwhelmingly when there is depression or recession or when some emotional issue arises in relation to peace or war or there are charges of lack of integrity that seem persuasive to the electorate. Candidates, however well qualified, cannot successfully buck that tide.

Now Mr. Stevenson, whose advisers have doubtless been taking soundings and polls, is disturbed because of the "waves of affluence and the high tide of consumption" in America.

He says it is difficult for dissenters to be given a hearing. They don't seem to be able as yet, at least, to organize an effective protest.

They have, of course, tried with such subjects as the missile gap, Russia's achievements with the "Sputnik" and the supposed lack of interest in social-welfare legislation by the Republicans. None of these arguments has as yet clicked and that's what may be read between the lines of Mr. Stevenson's speech.

INCIDENTALLY, the former Illinois governor is smarting still over his 1956 defeat and allowed his emotions to get the better of his judgment in one part of his speech as he complained that President Eisenhower today is embracing the very policy on banning nuclear tests that he, Mr. Stevenson, was criticized for proposing at the meeting of the American Society of Editors in April 1956. But the newspaper clippings are still available and they show that the former Illinois governor suggested in 1956 a "unilateral" suspension of all tests by the United States.

This meant that the United States would stop all tests irrespective would stop all tests irrespective of any agreement whatsoever by the Russians persisted in testing, "we will know about it and we can reconsider our policy."

The facts are that the current negotiations for banning nuclear tests above ground provide for certain written pledges by both sides. As for tests below ground, this is still an unsettled problem and, while each side is to agree on its own to refrain from certain of these tests for a brief period, this is conditioned so far as America is concerned upon an accord in many other categories. It is part of an over-all package.

IF MR. STEVENSON was trying to say that there is at present a proposal "unilaterally" to refrain on certain type of test, he has a point; but this can hardly be compared to what was suggested by the Illinois governor in 1956. It will be recalled that Sen. Clinton Anderson, Democrat, chairman of the congressional Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, also criticized and vigoroulsly dissented from Mr. Stevenson's proposition in 1956.

This very controversy raised by Mr. Stevenson illustrates why the aspirants for the Democratic presidential nomination this year are having a hard time mobilizing supporters for their protests among the independent-minded voters.

The public is interested in pocketbook issues and human issues such as whether peace has been advanced or retarded. Thus far the Republicans have the psychological advantage in their slogans: "We're giving you peace and prosperity," and "This is no time for change."

Letters To The Editor

The Review has certainly gone out on a limb by printing the editorial "With Due Respect to Missileers" on Friday, April 22. Apparently the Review is a little confused on several points.

The Review chides militarists because they predicted gas would be used throughout World War II. Needless to say, the defense against an ICBM traveling 17,254 MPH is more difficult to obtain than a defense against gas. No country would think of using a weapon when the opponent already had an effective defense against it. At the present there is no defense against the ICBM.

The second charge made by The Review is that the ICBM's are not accurate. It charges that no ICBM will hit its target except by accident. This is not so. Currently the operational Atlas can hit within two miles of any given target. This is accurate enough to destroy any target in the world, including air bases, since the Atlas carries an H-bomb which is 50 times more powerful than the A-bomb dropped on Japan during World War II.

You have even gone so far as to say that they may never be accurate. Apparently The Review has not taken the time to get the facts. At the present time, four out of every five H-bombs carrying Atlas-D's can hit within two miles of the target. These are standing on their launching pads, ready to go.

As far as the statement that the U.S. and the USSR will be allies in any future war is concerned this is highly unlikely unless the USSR discontinues its policy of murder behind the Iron Curtain.

A few days ago I had to take my daughter to the dentist and I parked the car in front of a dentist's office on 6th St.

When I came back, I had gotten a ticket for parking in a truck-loading zone. I parked illegally. I got a ticket and I paid it. What I can't understand is why I got a ticket for parking in a truck parking zone and a car that was parked at a fire hydrant did not. He parked when I did and he was still there when I left.

Since when did it become legal for cars to park in front of a fire hydrant?

I don't think the city firemen will put up with this. The next time I see cars parked at fireplugs, I am going to the fire hall and ask the fire chief if it is legal.

Incident At Greensboro

Story Behind The Counter Sitdown

How did the lunch-counter sit-downs get their start? In this first of a three-part series on the demonstrations that have spread across the South this spring, an Associated Press staff writer examines the incident in Greensboro, N. C., last February that set the pattern for what was to follow.

By PERRY MULLEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

Ten years ago a 7-year-old Negro newsboy was the victim, he says, of abuse by some white boys in Greensboro, N.C.

The newsboy, Ezell Blair Jr., grew up to become a teen-age leader in the first Southern lunch counter sit-down demonstration. In the three months since that action in Greensboro, the idea spread to many parts of the South as Negroes sought to end segregation in variety stores and other establishments that also serve food.

Blair, whose parents are college graduates and teachers, recalled:

"I don't like having to go to a separate section of a public place. Older Negroes have always put up with that because they were afraid of losing their jobs. As college students we have no jobs to lose.

"The feeling I have began building up a long time ago. I had a newspaper route in Greensboro. Some white boys grabbed my papers. I went to the home of one and asked his mother to get the papers back for me. She began cursing and threatened to have me put in jail."

Blair, now 17, said he spent a great deal of time last winter discussing segregation with fellow-students at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical College. At one such dormitory session, he said, Joseph McNeil, also 17, first suggested they try to obtain a cup of coffee at the F. W. Woolworth store in Greensboro.

Blair, McNeil and two others did try on Feb. 1. They were refused service. The manager was polite about it. Negroes working in the store's kitchen told the youths they were stupid and ignorant to press their demands.

Fearful of legal action, Blair said the students then sought help from George Simkins Jr., Negro dentist and head of the Greensboro National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. He promised them backing, but warned against any violence.

"I wrote to CORE (Congress of Racial Equality) and asked them to put pressure on Woolworth in New York," Simkins said. "CORE sent representatives to see me. In the meantime, the movement had spread to Durham."

That is one version of the beginning of the lunch counter sit-down movement. It has spread to many Southern cities, to the accompaniment in some areas of tear gas, fire hoses and tension. Sympathy demonstrations have occurred in Northern cities where lunch counters are not segregated.

However, not everyone accepts this version. Said Alabama's Asst. Atty. Gen. Edwin Strickland:

"The claim that the Greensboro sit-down was spontaneous is a lot of stuff."

It is his theory that CORE was behind this and other sit-downs of the kind. He claimed some of them were rehearsed in advance on the campuses of Negro colleges in the South.

Clarence Mitchell, Washington bureau director of the NAACP, said of the student sit-down movement:

"Part of it was due to activity by CORE. The other is that at our national convention in New York in 1959 we had a fine report from young people in Oklahoma about orderly sit-downs opening restaurants to colored people. Both the NAACP and CORE urged a nationwide boycott of stores that refuse to serve Negroes at lunch counters along with white customers.

"There wasn't any formal admonition to use it. One or two communities started doing it and it spread almost spontaneously.

"NAACP attorneys are providing legal service and local chapters are furnishing bail for students. Most of the demonstrations started quite independently of NAACP."

CORE is an action arm of those fighting for racial equality. Its spokesmen claim the lunch counter movement started spontaneously with the four Greensboro students and that CORE gave aid and direction only after it began spreading.

In Greensboro, Blair, McNeil and the others won support from other A. & T. college students and eventually closed down not only Woolworth's lunch counter but one also at the S. H. Kress store.

But by this time, the pattern first outlined at Greensboro had spread to many parts of the South. Whatever lay behind it — the alleged abuse 10 years ago of a Negro lad or a carefully planned CORE program—a new seed had been sown in the fertile soil of Dixie.

Mary was once lonely. Note, she's a glowing, glamorous bride!

Dicky once felt confused, rejected. Today, he's a Little League hero!

Who is this maker of miracles?

He is the man who can help you, as he has helped countless others, to find new happiness in life. This man is any one of the thousands of hearing-aid dealers of America.

For this man is part of a team. He works closely with the men who make hearing aids—hearing aids so small that they can be concealed under your hair, in your eye-glasses... even within your ear. He collaborates with the people who make the tiny, lightweight "Eveready" batteries that have made the new feather-light hearing aids possible.

If you no longer hear as well as you used to, if your enjoyment of life is lessened because you're shut off from others, let this man bring the miracle of new hearing to you! Don't wait until tomorrow! Call the miracle maker, your hearing aid dealer, today.

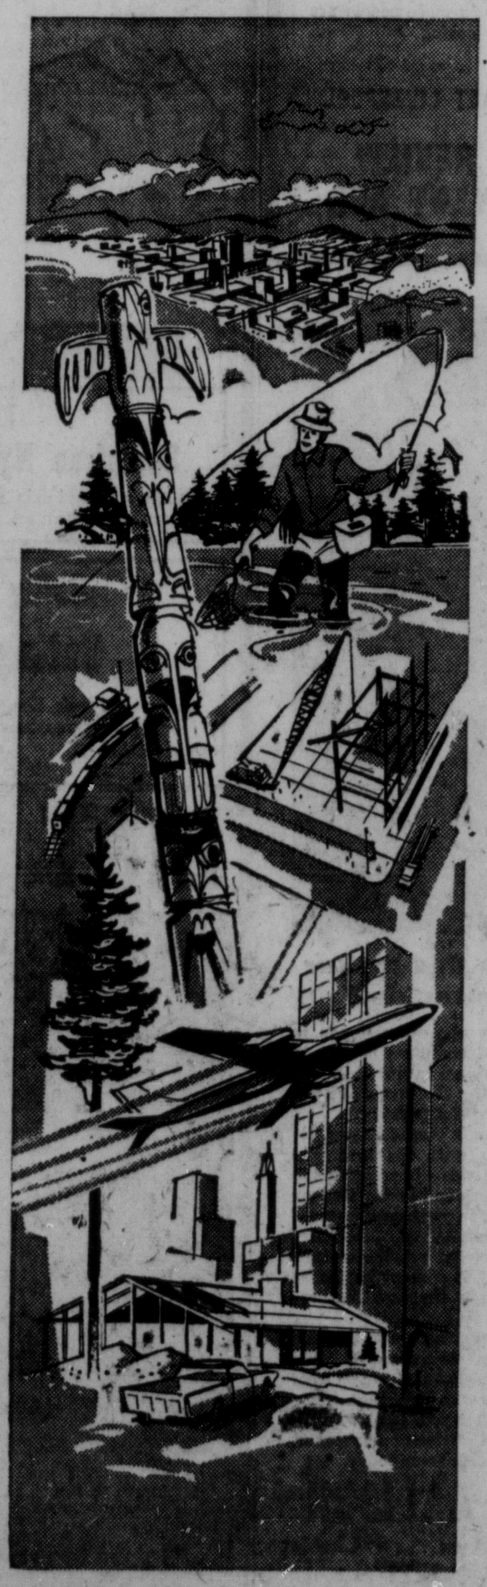
IN 1959,

We learned some amazing facts about...

THE BOOMING PACIFIC NORTHWEST



Did you know that the normal summer temperatures in Seattle and Portland, largest cities in the Pacific Northwest, have the delightful range of 56° to 79°? Or that their winter temperatures are in the moderate 35° to 45° range? Or that annual precipitation in these booming economic centers is under 40 inches (less than New York City or Little Rock) with little snow?

The facts about the climate of Seattle, Portland, Spokane, Tacoma, Olympia and other Pacific Northwest cities were not a surprise to us. But we didn't know that Portland's winter weather was more moderate than in Louisville, Kentucky. We didn't know that Seattle's summers were cooler than in Portland, Maine.

In fact, when El Paso Natural Gas Company began to serve this dynamic region, we learned a lot of new things about a northwest wonderland destined for an increasingly major role in America's economic future.

Washington and Oregon, and their neighboring states, are on the go. Long famed for natural resources, for scenery, for vitality, the Pacific Northwest's growing population and expanding economy are a guarantee of future prosperity.

If you're looking for a major industrial site—or a better place to build a home—visit the Pacific Northwest. You'll be sold, just as we were. And you'll want to stay.

Not the least of the Pacific Northwest's economic assets is natural gas, furnished by El Paso Natural Gas Company. In 1959, El Paso took major steps to assure energy supplies for the Pacific Northwest, and to continue to meet the mounting energy demands of California and the Southwest, whose growth has paced the nation since World War II.

The dynamic Pacific Northwest is featured in photographs in El Paso's 1959 Annual Report. El Paso's broadened service area and plans for the future, outlined in this Annual Report, assure 11 Western states the dependable long-term gas supplies so necessary to sound and speedy economic growth.

NORMAL TEMPERATURE AND PRECIPITATION, SELECTED CITIES IN PACIFIC NORTHWEST*

| | SUMMER TEMPERATURE | WINTER TEMPERATURE | ANNUAL PRECIPITATION |
|---|---|---|---|
| SEATTLE: | 56°-75° | 36°-45° | 31.92 inches |
| PORTLAND: | 58°-79° | 35°-44° | 39.91 inches |
| SPOKANE: | 57°-82° | 20°-30° | 14.92 inches |
| TACOMA: | 55°-74° | 34°-44° | 35.20 inches |
| OLYMPIA: | 49°-76° | 31°-43° | 45.74 inches |

Driver's Hearing Postponed

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff has set an indefinite continuance in a hearing that was scheduled today for William M. Ice, 28, of 1909 Pennsylvania Ave., arrested April 9 on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol and operating an auto without a driver's permit. The case must be reset because both Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark, the prosecutor, and Atty. W. S. Foulks, defense counsel, are busy with pre-trial matters in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon, the judge explained.

Youth Penalized In Theft

A 17-year-old Bloomfield youth was penalized Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon after he pleaded guilty to stealing money from a soft drink machine at the American Theater. Judge Tobin told the boy to make restitution of $30, observe a 9 p.m. curfew and not to drive an auto until he is 18. The youth's 18-year-old companion was given a suspended sentence in Municipal Court yesterday.

Gas Firm, Union Discuss Contract

Contract negotiations were being held today at the Ft. Steuben Hotel in Steubenville between workers and management of the East Liverpool office of the Ohio Valley Gas Co.

The present contract expires at midnight Saturday. East Liverpool Local 13656 is affiliated with District 50, United Mine Workers, which represents gas employes in Western Pennsylvania.

Employes of Ohio Valley Gas at Steubenville will meet with management Wednesday at the hotel.

The union has 600 workers in East Liverpool, Steubenville and Bellaire areas. They include inspectors, meter readers, maintenance and service men.

The Pennsylvania men are employed by Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. Both Manufacturers and Ohio Valley are affiliated with the Columbia Gas System, one of the nation's major suppliers of domestic and industrial fuel.

Harold Sneddon is the East Liverpool district manager. William Bleigh of Alpha St. is the local union president.

IN 1959,

We learned some amazing facts about...

THE BOOMING PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Did you know that the normal summer temperatures in Seattle and Portland, largest cities in the Pacific Northwest, have the delightful range of 56° to 79°? Or that their winter temperatures are in the moderate 35° to 45° range? Or that annual precipitation in these booming economic centers is under 40 inches (less than New York City or Little Rock) with little snow?

The facts about the climate of Seattle, Portland, Spokane, Tacoma, Olympia and other Pacific Northwest cities were not a surprise to us. But we didn't know that Portland's winter weather was more moderate than in Louisville, Kentucky. We didn't know that Seattle's summers were cooler than in Portland, Maine.

In fact, when El Paso Natural Gas Company began to serve this dynamic region, we learned a lot of new things about a northwest wonderland destined for an increasingly major role in America's economic future.

Washington and Oregon, and their neighboring states, are on the go. Long famed for natural resources, for scenery, for vitality, the Pacific Northwest's growing population and expanding economy are a guarantee of future prosperity.

If you're looking for a major industrial site—or a better place to build a home—visit the Pacific Northwest. You'll be sold, just as we were. And you'll want to stay.

Not the least of the Pacific Northwest's economic assets is natural gas, furnished by El Paso Natural Gas Company. In 1959, El Paso took major steps to assure energy supplies for the Pacific Northwest, and to continue to meet the mounting energy demands of California and the Southwest, whose growth has paced the nation since World War II.

The dynamic Pacific Northwest is featured in photographs in El Paso's 1959 Annual Report. El Paso's broadened service area and plans for the future, outlined in this Annual Report, assure 11 Western states the dependable long-term gas supplies so necessary to sound and speedy economic growth.

First Expense Seen Block To Building Code

Council may be asked to enact plumbing, building, gas and electric codes piecemeal over a span of years — rather than setting them up simultaneously as a single regulation — because the initial administrative cost of the master code would be prohibitive, it was indicated at a meeting of the City Planning Commission Monday night.

In addition to hiring either an architect or a registered engineer as a general overseer of a code system, the city would be required to maintain an office, hire inspectors and foot the bill for legal advertising of four bulky books of regulations, which probably would run into thousands of dollars.

In a two-hour meeting in the office of Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, discussion centered on the probable cost of setting up a system of codes. Attending were Don Eckert, chairman, George Steele, E. L. Wheatley, Mayor Goodballet and Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver, all members of the commission, John F. Kelly and John A. Melvin, members of the Council planning committee, Councilman Donald S. Hancock and City Engineer George S. Bloomgren.

Although the commission recommended Council adoption of the four codes at a meeting in June 1959, no subsequent action was taken and the recommendation apparently died when the former Council left office Dec. 31. Last night's discussion centered on whether all or part of the four codes should be proposed to Council again, especially because of the high cost factor.

Eckert was asked to obtain approximate estimates from the Review on the cost of publishing each of the four codes as legal notices. Under Ohio law, a general ordinance enacted by Council cannot take effect until it has been published in a newspaper of general circulation. Eckert said the cost has been estimated unofficially at from $8,000 to $10,000, as there is a lengthy volume for each of the four codes.

"I don't think it would do any good to resubmit the same plan," Mayor Goodballet said. "I know what Council's reply would be: 'The money is not available'."

"Possibly this could be modified to include only part of the program at the outset," the mayor added. "We would have to take it point-by-point if we don't have the money to do it all at once. Sometimes it takes 5 to 10 years to make a big program like this a reality."

Adoption of the electrical code might be proposed to Council "as a starter," Bloomgren suggested.

Eckert said most such programs are 50 to 60 per cent self-sustaining from permit fees and licenses, based on experience in other communities. He said there is a possibility of East Liverpool joining with other nearby communities in hiring inspectors as a way of holding down expenses.

As that phase of the discussion ended, it was agreed another meeting will be called when estimates are available on the cost of legal advertising of the codes.

The commission also talked over bids received from four concerns last year on preparation of a city "master plan," an overall pattern for growth and urban renewal that would make the community eligible for federal aid.

Wheatley said he favors preparing the minimum plan necessary to qualify the city for the federal funds. In response to queries, Eckert said the estimates submitted to the commission in 1959 ranged from $24,000 to $37,000. The commission agreed to examine the proposals at a future meeting with a view to finding how the costs can be scaled down and still meet federal requirements.

Ballots Reprinted For Lone Precinct As Candidate Dies

Approximately 250 ballots for the May 3 primaries in Wellsville's Precinct 4-D are being reprinted because of the death Sunday of Mrs. Helen Jane Aeckerle, 512 Aten Ave., who was a candidate for member of the Democratic Central Committee from that precinct.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, explained that the Democratic ticket for state, district and county offices is being reprinted for the lone precinct because state law provides that when a candidate dies not later than five days before a primary the name will not appear on the ballots.

Both Mrs. Aeckerle's name and the office she was seeking will be dropped from the new ballots, as she was the only candidate and write-in votes are not permitted in an election. Although next week's voting is a primary, the precinct officials will be elected.

Meanwhile, the Wilson Printing Co. of Market St., contractor, has delivered ballots to the Courthouse in Lisbon for northern county precincts and is scheduled to complete deliveries to the board's office soon for precincts in the southern area.

Precinct supplies for the northern county area will be distributed to presiding judges Saturday from 9 a. m. to noon at the Courthouse. For the southern county area, the distribution will be made Monday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the board's office on W. 6th St. and Monday at 6:45 p. m. at the Wellsville City Hall.

Chester Legion Post Donates To Cancer, Red Cross Funds

Contributions of $25 for the Cancer Fund and the Red Cross were authorized at a meeting of the Chester American Legion Post 121 Monday night at the post home.

A further contribution of $20 was authorized for a gift for retired police Chief Floyd Lyons, who will be honored at a banquet May 4 at the post home.

It was announced that Miss Saretta McKnight, Chester High School student sponsored to an American Legion oratorical contest at Wellsburg, has been awarded a scholarship to a college.

Charles Morris, chairman of the competition, said the award is the second for a Chester student in the past four years — Miss Judy Linger won two years ago.

The post will sponsor five high school youths to Boys State at Jackson Mills June 5-11. The boys — Sam Pipes, Edwin Jordan, Thomas Davis, John Bickerstaff and Joseph Price — will attend an orientation session at Wellsburg Sunday.

The post will also sponsor six Boy Scouts and six Girl Scouts to the Hancock County conservation camp at Tomlinson Run State Park in June.

New, 50-star American flags will be purchased and presented to the three Chester schools, City Park, Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops and post auxiliary, in addition to one for the post.

The annual post-prom party for the junior-senior dance will be held at the post home May 27. Tony Amedeo is chairman of the committee, which includes John Corcoran, John Merriman and William Martin, commander.

The event, to be held from midnight to 5 a. m., will include a program of entertainment with a Pittsburgh disc jockey and a breakfast.

Corcoran, chairman of the social committee, said a bus will be chartered to Pittsburgh Pirate baseball games May 20, June 24, July 1, July 15 and Aug. 12.

Nominations were presented by a committee.

Larry Thompson, chairman of the Memorial Day committee, reported on a program to be held May 30 at the post plot at Locust Hill Cemetery.

The next meeting will be May 9. After the meeting members visited the Arner Funeral Home to pay respects to the late Dr. R. D. Watkins, charter member of the post.

Trustees Discuss Street Proposal

A request for widening and extending the old Thompson Rd. in a new development east of Calcutta, was filed with the St. Clair Township trustees at a meeting Monday night.

Charles Coleman and Hallie Adkins were advised they would have to seek an easement from the property owners.

Kenneth McPeet of Glenmoor, who filed for appointment as a special constable for the Glenmoor and Calcutta firemen's fairs this summer, was told a request for such an officer would have to be made by the trustees of the firemen.

Fred Link of Oakmont asked to have 800 feet of Clifton and Purinton Aves. placed on the blacktop program. He was advised the request will be relayed to the county engineer.

Five requests for road oiling were received, and will be added to the work to be done by a private contractor.

Workshops To End

LISBON — Mrs. Mary Waddle, a consultant in the department of school services at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn., will complete the last of four workshops in county schools today on reading work in news and current events, according to Supt. James L. McBride. Workshops were held Monday in the Fairfield-Waterford and Beaver Local systems and are being held today at Salineville and United Local Schools.

Driver To Ask New Hearings On 2 Charges

A Shadyside Ave. motorist, convicted Monday in Municipal Court on charges of reckless operation and driving with improper plates, has informed Judge Samuel M. Chertoff he will seek a new trial.

Atty. Lawrence W. Smith, counsel for Donald C. Rockhold, said he will file the motion for new hearings on both charges as soon as the necessary paper work is completed.

Rockhold, who entered not guilty pleas, was found guilty on both counts at the full-scale hearing yesterday.

Judge Chertoff decreed a fine of $50 and costs plus a 15-day license suspension on the reckless operation charge. Rockhold was fined an additional $15 and costs for the improper plates.

He was arrested Friday by Constable Clifford Owen, who testified.

Rockhold did not take the stand in his own behalf but Elmer Martin, manager of Columbiana County Memorial Park, testified the defendant was at work at the time the constable said he arrested him.

Two Wellsville drag racers drew suspended 3-day jail terms, along with fines and license suspensions, while two other drivers also received fines and license suspensions ranging from 30 to 60 days. Two other motorists were fined in one of the busiest afternoons the court has had.

The suspended jail terms and fines of $50 and costs each were given Robert Allen Buck, 546 Campground Rd., and James Ronald Wolf, 324 Campground Rd., both of Wellsville.

Buck's license was suspended for 30 days and Wolfe's for 60 days. Both pleaded guilty to the charges by the State Highway Patrol they were drag racing April 19 on Route 7.

Robert Helman, 23, of 226 E. Chestnut St., Lisbon, who was cited by police after his Golden Star Dairy milk truck was involved in a wreck Friday in which two motorists were hurt, was fined $50 and costs for failing to stop within the assured clear distance.

Judge Chertoff also revoked Helman's license for 60 days but said he would permit him to use it to drive to and from work only.

Kenneth L. Spencer, 2111 Pennsylvania Ave., cited by the State Highway Patrol for traveling 90 miles an hour Saturday night on Route 7, was fined $25 and costs and his license was suspended for 30 days with the condition he be permitted to drive to and from work and for work purposes only.

Robert Lee Walker, 514 Oak Grove Rd., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs and Clifton L. Beohm, 1912 Ohio Ave., $10 and costs. Both were cited Saturday night by the State Highway Patrol for speeding on Route 7.

County OK's Removal Of 'Hump' At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE—Columbiana County commissioners have approved plans for removal of a hump in Brookdale Ave., using county equipment, Mayor Robert Harding announced today.

The mayor said the commissioners authorized $1,200 for the elimination of the over 50-foot long hump in the roadway. The city is to blacktop the area when the work is finished.

The county will also remove two humps and eliminate a curve on the back road to Unity, an extension of Brookdale Ave. in the county territory.

Police at Redondo Beach, Calif., said Table was caught with a woman companion trying to open an office safe there last May, pleaded guilty to burglary charges and was put on probation for two years. He was arrested a week later on bad check charges but made restitution and the charges were dropped.

Barbara Table said Sees was from Arkansas and talked about serving a prison term but she didn't know where.

Due Study In Austria

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP) — The Oberlin Conservatory of Music's practice of sending the entire junior class to Austria for study will go on at least three more years. The conservatory faculty voted 33-20 Monday to continue the plan started in 1958 under which the class spends the school year at the Salzburg Mozartium, Salzburg, Austria.

Traffic Crash Injures 3 Men

Three men, including a Wellsville area motorist, were injured in a headon collision Monday morning on Route 30 in Beaver County when a Youngstown driver said his vision was obscured by dust.

The crash near the Pennsylvania-West Virginia border sent William P. Barker, 37, of Wellsville R. D. 1, his passenger, Joseph Epstein, 45, of Philadelphia and Fred Federan, 26, of Youngstown to City Hospital.

Epstein suffered multiple lacerations and abrasions of the face; Federan received abrasions of the left arm and contusions of the forehead, and Barker was treated for abrasions of the left knee and arm. All were released.

Federan told Pennsylvania State Police from Carnegie he was headed east on Route 30 and was following a pickup truck. The truck pulled off onto the berm, throwing up clouds of dust, Federan said.

Unable to see, Federan's car collided almost headon with the westbound car driven by Barker. State Police estimated about $1,000 damage to each car.

FOR NECESSARY YEARLY REPAIRS

In the present budget we have only $30,000 for building repairs. The new levies will permit us to increase this amount to $47,500, which equals the return from one (1) mill on our tax duplicate. The buildings of the East Liverpool School District have an insurable value of $6,990,000. The increased amount from this levy would permit the Board of Education to more adequately protect this investment. During the life of the levy the Board would never have less than $47,500.00 annually for repairs. The income from the 1 mill could be used for no other purpose.

New, 50-star American flags will be purchased and presented to the three Chester schools, City Park, Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops and post auxiliary, in addition to one for the post.

The annual post-prom party for the junior-senior dance will be held at the post home May 27. Tony Amedeo is chairman of the committee, which includes John Corcoran, John Merriman and William Martin, commander.

The event, to be held from midnight to 5 a. m., will include a program of entertainment with a Pittsburgh disc jockey and a breakfast.

Corcoran, chairman of the social committee, said a bus will be chartered to Pittsburgh Pirate baseball games May 20, June 24, July 1, July 15 and Aug. 12.

Nominations were presented by a committee.

Larry Thompson, chairman of the Memorial Day committee, reported on a program to be held May 30 at the post plot at Locust Hill Cemetery.

The next meeting will be May 9. After the meeting members visited the Arner Funeral Home to pay respects to the late Dr. R. D. Watkins, charter member of the post.

Trustees Discuss Street Proposal

A request for widening and extending the old Thompson Rd. in a new development east of Calcutta, was filed with the St. Clair Township trustees at a meeting Monday night.

Charles Coleman and Hallie Adkins were advised they would have to seek an easement from the property owners.

Kenneth McPeet of Glenmoor, who filed for appointment as a special constable for the Glenmoor and Calcutta firemen's fairs this summer, was told a request for such an officer would have to be made by the trustees of the firemen.

Fred Link of Oakmont asked to have 800 feet of Clifton and Purinton Aves. placed on the blacktop program. He was advised the request will be relayed to the county engineer.

Five requests for road oiling were received, and will be added to the work to be done by a private contractor.

Workshops To End

LISBON — Mrs. Mary Waddle, a consultant in the department of school services at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn., will complete the last of four workshops in county schools today on reading work in news and current events, according to Supt. James L. McBride. Workshops were held Monday in the Fairfield-Waterford and Beaver Local systems and are being held today at Salineville and United Local Schools.

Driver To Ask New Hearings On 2 Charges

A Shadyside Ave. motorist, convicted Monday in Municipal Court on charges of reckless operation and driving with improper plates, has informed Judge Samuel M. Chertoff he will seek a new trial.

Atty. Lawrence W. Smith, counsel for Donald C. Rockhold, said he will file the motion for new hearings on both charges as soon as the necessary paper work is completed.

Rockhold, who entered not guilty pleas, was found guilty on both counts at the full-scale hearing yesterday.

Judge Chertoff decreed a fine of $50 and costs plus a 15-day license suspension on the reckless operation charge. Rockhold was fined an additional $15 and costs for the improper plates.

He was arrested Friday by Constable Clifford Owen, who testified.

Rockhold did not take the stand in his own behalf but Elmer Martin, manager of Columbiana County Memorial Park, testified the defendant was at work at the time the constable said he arrested him.

Two Wellsville drag racers drew suspended 3-day jail terms, along with fines and license suspensions, while two other drivers also received fines and license suspensions ranging from 30 to 60 days. Two other motorists were fined in one of the busiest afternoons the court has had.

The suspended jail terms and fines of $50 and costs each were given Robert Allen Buck, 546 Campground Rd., and James Ronald Wolf, 324 Campground Rd., both of Wellsville.

Buck's license was suspended for 30 days and Wolfe's for 60 days. Both pleaded guilty to the charges by the State Highway Patrol they were drag racing April 19 on Route 7.

Robert Helman, 23, of 226 E. Chestnut St., Lisbon, who was cited by police after his Golden Star Dairy milk truck was involved in a wreck Friday in which two motorists were hurt, was fined $50 and costs for failing to stop within the assured clear distance.

Judge Chertoff also revoked Helman's license for 60 days but said he would permit him to use it to drive to and from work only.

Kenneth L. Spencer, 2111 Pennsylvania Ave., cited by the State Highway Patrol for traveling 90 miles an hour Saturday night on Route 7, was fined $25 and costs and his license was suspended for 30 days with the condition he be permitted to drive to and from work and for work purposes only.

Robert Lee Walker, 514 Oak Grove Rd., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs and Clifton L. Beohm, 1913 Ohio Ave., $10 and costs. Both were cited Saturday night by the State Highway Patrol for speeding on Route 7.

County OK's Removal Of 'Hump' At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE—Columbiana County commissioners have approved plans for removal of a hump in Brookdale Ave., using county equipment, Mayor Robert Harding announced today.

The mayor said the commissioners authorized $1,200 for the elimination of the over 50-foot long hump in the roadway. The city is to blacktop the area when the work is finished.

The county will also remove two humps and eliminate a curve on the back road to Unity, an extension of Brookdale Ave. in the county territory.

cruiser with a bogus $3,000 check but the deal dragged out.

"They said they couldn't wait and had to get away because they were both wanted on hot check charges. So they stole the boat," Barbara told newsmen in Nassau.

Police at Redondo Beach, Calif., said Table was caught with a woman companion trying to open an office safe there last May, pleaded guilty to burglary charges and was put on probation for two years. He was arrested a week later on bad check charges but made restitution and the charges were dropped.

Barbara Table said Sees was from Arkansas and talked about serving a prison term but she didn't know where.

Due Study In Austria

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP) — The Oberlin Conservatory of Music's practice of sending the entire junior class to Austria for study will go on at least three more years. The conservatory faculty voted 33-20 Monday to continue the plan started in 1958 under which the class spends the school year at the Salzburg Mozartium, Salzburg, Austria.

Traffic Crash Injures 3 Men

Three men, including a Wellsville area motorist, were injured in a headon collision Monday morning on Route 30 in Beaver County when a Youngstown driver said his vision was obscured by dust.

The crash near the Pennsylvania-West Virginia border sent William P. Barker, 37, of Wellsville R. D. 1, his passenger, Joseph Epstein, 45, of Philadelphia and Fred Federan, 26, of Youngstown to City Hospital.

Epstein suffered multiple lacerations and abrasions of the face; Federan received abrasions of the left arm and contusions of the forehead, and Barker was treated for abrasions of the left knee and arm. All were released.

Federan told Pennsylvania State Police from Carnegie he was headed east on Route 30 and was following a pickup truck. The truck pulled off onto the berm, throwing up clouds of dust, Federan said.

Unable to see, Federan's car collided almost headon with the westbound car driven by Barker. State Police estimated about $1,000 damage to each car.

IS THIS INVESTMENT IN MODERN SCHOOLS WORTH PROTECTING?
OBVIOUSLY,
THE ANSWER IS YES!!

ONE MILL WILL PROVIDE FUNDS
FOR NECESSARY YEARLY REPAIRS

In the present budget we have only $30,000 for building repairs. The new levies will permit us to increase this amount to $47,500, which equals the return from one (1) mill on our tax duplicate. The buildings of the East Liverpool School District have an insurable value of $6,990,000. The increased amount from this levy would permit the Board of Education to more adequately protect this investment. During the life of the levy the Board would never have less than $47,500.00 annually for repairs. The income from the 1 mill could be used for no other purpose.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Something is bothering me and I need an opinion from an adult. I'm 15 and trying to form some definite ideas on how to conduct myself like a lady.

My girl friend (I'll call her Linda) comes from a wealthy family. They have two maids and a cleaning lady. The cleaning lady is a big, good-natured woman who has worked for Linda's mother ever since I can remember.

The other day Linda and I were shopping in the dime store. I saw the cleaning lady and said, "Hello Mrs. McGee." She smiled and returned the greeting.

Linda pulled me aside and told me I had committed a big social error. She said: "You don't speak to help when you meet them outside your home. They aren't on the same level."

I told her I didn't know this was the way it was. I still don't know for sure. My mother said she doesn't know because we've never had any maids. Can you tell me? — CAROL.

-:-

Dear Carol: A lady speaks to everyone she knows. She doesn't classify people according to the type of work they do.

You did the correct thing when you spoke to Mrs. McGee. It was Linda who committed the "big social error." I hope your ignorant young friend will take a lesson from you before the word gets around that she's an insufferable snob and people stop speaking to HER.

Undying Love

Dear Ann: I just read the letter from Kitty who is in love with her married boss. I could wager my life that letter was written by my husband's secretary.

My husband and I were exquisitely happy once. We had lovely friends and did things together. Then the children came. Bruce was a proud father but I noticed he never seemed to be around when I needed him.

When Jimmy broke his arm, Daddy was in Atlanta on business. When Mary had her appendix out I was alone in the hospital waiting room. When the baby was born Bruce was in Texas.

Then I began to hear small rumors about Bruce and his secretary. I ignored them because I couldn't face the truth. Kitty's letter criticizes me because I fill my life with "parties, massage parlors and high-sounding charity drives." What else can a discarded wife do? If I sat home I'd lose my mind.

Kitty says Bruce wants to marry her but "his wife won't let him go." She's wrong — as are 90 per cent of the Kittys in this world.

When she's no longer young and fascinating, he'll suddenly tell her one day that she'd better find a man who will marry her. Then he'll come home to me and, because I will still love him, I'll be happy to take him back. My name is —LEGION.

Withered Bouquet

Dear Ann: Will you please tell us the proper way to handle this rather touchy problem if it arises again?

Some dear friends sent my husband a bouquet of flowers when he was in the hospital. These friends live in another city so the flowers were ordered by letter or wire. The flowers arrived withered and some of the stems were broken. To put it honestly, it was the saddest-looking bouquet ever.

We were tempted to tell the senders since they are close friends but decided against it. I'm sure they ordered and paid for first-quality flowers. If this happens again, should we notify the senders? — G.D.

-:-

Dear G.D.: When flowers arrive half-dead, notify the florist who sent them. A reputable florist will replace them.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hancock Couple Exchanges Vows At Church In Chester

Mr. and Mrs. Pete M. Sutko are honeymooning at Niagara Falls following their wedding Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist Church of Chester.

The bride is the former Miss Sarajane Herron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Herron of New Cumberland R. D. 1. The bridegroom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sutko of Logan, W. Va.

The Rev. Paul Dippolito officiated for the double ring ceremony. Gene Smith of East Liverpool was organist.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert Herron, the bride was gowned in nylon net over blue taffeta worn with layers of crinoline giving the skirt a bouffant effect. The moulded lace bodice featured three-quarter length sleeves. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings.

She observed all the familiar traditions in wearing something borrowed, something blue and carrying a penny in her shoe. She carried a white satin covered Bible borrowed from her sister, Mary Lou Herron, that was topped with an arrangement of 12 white rosebuds and satin streamers.

The bridegroom's only sister, Mrs. Anna Picklesimer of Chester, was matron of honor. She wore a pastel pink dress and a pink rosebud corsage. Leonard Cowey of Chester was best man.

The bride's mother was attired in a black and white summer sheer dress with a corsage of yellow rose buds.

A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents for members of the immediate family.

Mrs. Sutko is a 1952 graduate of Chester High School and is employed as an X-Ray technician in City Hospital. Her husband is a salesman for the Temple Motor Co. in Chester.

They will reside in Chester upon their return from Niagara Falls.

Medical Auxiliary Conducts 'Doctor's Day' Observance

What's ahead for America? Must economic growth dictate soaring inflation? Must stabilization mean stagnation? A resounding "no" on both counts is the answer of 64 well-informed representatives of business, labor and government. Meeting recently under the auspices of the American Assembly, they agreed: by working hard together we can achieve both reasonably stable prices and growth, while reducing unemployment to the minimum. Key to these goals is steadily rising productivity.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Something is bothering me and I need an opinion from an adult. I'm 15 and trying to form some definite ideas on how to conduct myself like a lady.

My girl friend (I'll call her Linda) comes from a wealthy family. They have two maids and a cleaning lady. The cleaning lady is a big, good-natured woman who has worked for Linda's mother ever since I can remember.

The other day Linda and I were shopping in the dime store. I saw the cleaning lady and said, "Hello Mrs. McGee." She smiled and returned the greeting.

Linda pulled me aside and told me I had committed a big social error. She said: "You don't speak to help when you meet them outside your home. They aren't on the same level."

I told her I didn't know this was the way it was. I still don't know for sure. My mother said she doesn't know because we've never had any maids. Can you tell me? — CAROL.

Dear Carol: A lady speaks to everyone she knows. She doesn't classify people according to the type of work they do.

You did the correct thing when you spoke to Mrs. McGee. It was Linda who committed the "big social error." I hope your ignorant young friend will take a lesson from you before the word gets around that she's an insufferable snob and people stop speaking to HER.

Undying Love

Dear Ann: I just read the letter from Kitty who is in love with her married boss. I could wager my life that letter was written by my husband's secretary.

My husband and I were exquisitely happy—once. We had lovely friends and did things together. Then the children came. Bruce was a proud father but I noticed he never seemed to be around when I needed him.

When Jimmy broke his arm, Daddy was in Atlanta on business. When Mary had her appendix out I was alone in the hospital waiting room. When the baby was born Bruce was in Texas.

Then I began to hear small rumors about Bruce and his secretary. I ignored them because I couldn't face the truth. Kitty's letter criticizes me because I fill my life with "parties, massage parlors and high-sounding charity drives." What else can a discarded wife do? If I sat home I'd lose my mind.

Kitty says Bruce wants to marry her but "his wife won't let him go." She's wrong — as are 90 per cent of the Kittys in this world.

When she's no longer young and fascinating, he'll suddenly tell her one day that she'd better find a man who will marry her. Then he'll come home to me and, because I will still love him, I'll be happy to take him back. My name is —LEGION.

Withered Bouquet

Dear Ann: Will you please tell us the proper way to handle this rather touchy problem if it arises again?

Some dear friends sent my husband a bouquet of flowers when he was in the hospital. These friends live in another city so the flowers were ordered by letter or wire. The flowers arrived withered and some of the stems were broken. To put it honestly, it was the saddest-looking bouquet ever.

We were tempted to tell the senders since they are close friends but decided against it. I'm sure they ordered and paid for first-quality flowers. If this happens again, should we notify the senders? — G.D.

Dear G.D.: When flowers arrive half-dead, notify the florist who sent them. A reputable florist will replace them.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hancock Couple Exchanges Vows At Church In Chester

Mr. and Mrs. Pete M. Sutko are honeymooning at Niagara Falls following their wedding Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist Church of Chester.

The bride is the former Miss Sarajane Herron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Herron of New Cumberland R. D. 1. The bridegroom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sutko of Logan, W. Va.

The Rev. Paul Dippolito officiated for the double ring ceremony. Gene Smith of East Liverpool was organist.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert Herron, the bride was gowned in nylon net over blue taffeta worn with layers of crinoline giving the skirt a bouffant effect. The moulded lace bodice featured three-quarter length sleeves. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings.

She observed all the familiar traditions in wearing something borrowed, something blue and carrying a penny in her shoe. She carried a white satin covered Bible borrowed from her sister, Mary Lou Herron, that was topped with an arrangement of 12 white rosebuds and satin streamers.

The bridegroom's only sister, Mrs. Anna Picklesimer of Chester, was matron of honor. She wore a pastel pink dress and a pink rosebud corsage. Leonard Cowey of Chester was best man.

The bride's mother was attired in a black and white summer sheer dress with a corsage of yellow rose buds.

A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents for members of the immediate family.

Mrs. Sutko is a 1952 graduate of Chester High School and is employed as an X-Ray technician in City Hospital. Her husband is a salesman for the Temple Motor Co. in Chester.

They will reside in Chester upon their return from Niagara Falls.

Medical Auxiliary Conducts 'Doctor's Day' Observance

"County Doctor's Day" was celebrated by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Columbiana County Medical Society with a dinner dance Saturday night at the Salem Golf Club.

Attending from East Liverpool were Dr. and Mrs. William Banfield, Dr. and Mrs. William Horger, Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Gottlieb, Dr. and Mrs. K. W. Turner, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Birnbaum and Dr. and Mrs. Janis Lauva.

A Hawaiian theme was used in the decorations and the attire of the members and guests, who were area dentists and their wives.

Dr. William A. Kolozsi of Salem screened a film, "Hawaiian Holiday."

Mrs. A. P. Falkenstein, president, gave the welcome and introduced the guests, along with Dr. Horger, who is president of the County Medical Society.

The committee in charge of arrangements included Mrs. R. J. McConner, Mrs. R. T. Holzbach, Mrs. Leonard Pritchard, Mrs. E. P. Schaefer, Mrs. R. J. Starbuck and Mrs. R. B. Vance.

A "Rose Luncheon" will be held May 20 at the East Liverpool Country Club. Installation of officers will be held and guest day will be observed. Mrs. V. E. McEldowney will be chairman, assisted by Mrs. A. L. Turner, Mrs. J. F. Jackson, Mrs. R. M. Dunlap and Mrs. Lauva.

Secretary Of State Begins Diplomatic Tour

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter took off early today on an 11-day diplomatic trip with major stops at Teheran, Istanbul and Athens.

Cub Scouts Tour TV Studio At Steubenville

Some 50 members and guests of Cub Scout Pack 7 of St. Aloysius Catholic Church toured WSTV's television studio in Steubenville Sunday.

Preceding the trip, they assembled at the church and were given a blessing by Fr. Anthony Esposito, assistant pastor.

James Harvey of the station conducted the tour and explained the equipment. The group were treated to a lunch on the return trip.

They were accompanied by Marven Moore, cubmaster; Al Gloeckner, chairman; Mathew Kuzmich, former cubmaster, who arranged the trip; Mrs. Maxine Ward, Mrs. Florence Gloeckner and Mrs. Mary Mazurka, den mothers, and Jack and Don Ward, den chiefs. Parents provided the transportation.

The next meeting will be at 7:30 p. m. Friday at the Parochial School Hall.

Extension Committee Re-Elects 2 Officers

LISBON — Ralph Schneider of North Georgetown was re-elected chairman of the Columbiana County Extension Advisory Committee Monday night in the county extension office. Seventeen attended.

Lewis Black of New Waterford was re-elected vice chairman and Mrs. Virgil Whinnery of Salem was elected secretary.

The following committees were appointed: Glen Bartholow of Salem, finance; A. A. Rudibock of Leetonia, leadership development, and Mrs. John Van Blaricom of Salem, program planning and education.

Seven members-at-large were re-elected to the board. A discussion was held on closing the extension office on Saturdays. Future meetings will be held at 8 p. m. the third Monday of each quarter.

Presbyterian Camp's Staff Named

The permanent staff for the summer Beaver Creek Presbyterian Camp was announced at a meeting of the Board of Trustees Saturday afternoon at the camp site at Grimms Bridge.

The staff hired includes John Pilutti of Irondale, crafts director; Miss Kaye Davis of East Liverpool, waterfront and recreation director; Mrs. Levada Moore of Wellsville, head cook, with Mrs. J. J. Gorrell of Wellsville and Miss Sara Cowling of East Liverpool as assistants; Miss Alice Wright of Cleveland, a student at Western Reserve Union School of Medicine, as nurse.

The camp has a capacity of 70. The season will open June 6 and close Aug. 2.

Dr. Robert Dunlap of East Liverpool will be camp physician, as in previous years. All campers are covered by insurance.

The operation committee report was submitted by Clifford Aithem of Brilliant, chairman.

The meeting opened with prayer by Miss Elizabeth Larick, Christian Education director of the Poland Church. Fifteen attended.

REPORTS WERE given by Mrs. Donald Baxter of East Liverpool and Marion Horger, also of East Liverpool, treasurer. It was announced that the 1960 food license has been acquired from the Columbiana County Health Department and that the campers' insurance was taken care of. Correspondence was read from Secretary of State Ted Brown regarding the number and status of trustees in a non-profit corporation.

Mrs. Robert Hummer of Girard, vice chairman of the Board of Trustees and chairman of the administration committee, was appointed new statutory agent to replace Judge Raymond Buzzard, who resigned.

Posters listing dates of the camp and copies of the 1960 budget have been mailed to ministers of the Steubenville - Mahoning Presbyteries, which jointly operate the camp.

THE LOAN for the kitchen addition and cook's quarters was discussed and final negotiations were made. A report of the development committee was given by the Rev. Mark Allen of Toronto, chairman, and Stanley Rose, co-chairman. Arrangements also were made for the purchase of a walk-in cooler for the new kitchen. Discussions on building plans and progress were also held.

A report of the program committee was presented by the Rev. Richard Fruit of Lake Milton. He said camp brochures will be mailed to the churches and campers, this week.

Directors have been obtained as follows:

The Rev. Gene Toot, Hopedale, Senior High work and worship camp, June 6-12.

For the Junior camps, the Rev. Richard E. Fruit, June 13-19; the Rev. Robert Geyer of Mingo Junction, June 27-July 3; the Rev. David Mellon of Brilliant, July 11-17; the Rev. H. Franklin MacAllister of Sebring, July 25-31, and the Rev. Roger Bush of Stillwater, Aug. 8-14.

JUNIOR CAMPS — the Rev. Calvin Martin of Mineral Ridge, June 20-26; the Rev. Zane Bollinger of Youngstown, July 4-10; the Rev. Joseph Varner of Salineville R. D. 1, July 18-24; the Rev. James McCollam of Salineville, Aug. 1-7, and Miss Larick, Aug. 15-21.

Counselors in Junior Camp must have completed the third year of high school. Junior High counselors must have completed high school and Senior High counselors must have been graduated a year or more ago. Adult counselors are needed especially and anyone in this vicinity wishing to volunteer may call Mrs. Baxter, write to the Rev. Richard Fruit, Box 96, Lake Milton, or notify their minister.

A TRAINING SESSION for directors and counselors of each camp period will be held at Pilgrim Hills near Wooster May 2-4. Rev. Fruit has two sets of slides and a script made at the camp site and can be contacted for use of the slides.

The Rev. John McDowell of Cleveland, field director of Christian Education for the Mahoning Presbytery, attended the meeting and presented a proposed system of representation on the Beaver Creek Camp committee for consideration.

Plans were made for the program arrangements for the counselor's training day at the camp site May 21 from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. The next meeting of the Board of Trustees also will be at the camp site following the training session. Trustees were invited to come earlier to observe part of the training, if possible.

A report was given on a panel truck as a camp vehicle and it was decided to try to lease one for the summer rather than purchase one. Grass-cutting equipment also was discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds are caretakers of the camp and live there the year round. Lunch was served the trustees by Mrs. Reynolds. The meeting closed with prayer by Rev. David D. Mellon of Brilliant.

A POLICY MEETING was held Wednesday afternoon at the camp site for members of both Presbyteries regarding the joint ownership of the camp and summer maintenance procedures and other details. The Rev. David D. Mellon opened with prayer.

Decisions were made regarding the policies of the camp, including rules set up by the Beaver Creek Camp committee.

The Steubenville Presbytery consists of 61 churches as far distant as Mingo Junction, Scio, Uhrichsville and Carrollton. The Mahoning Presbytery consists of 60 churches and includes cities such as Ashtabula, Niles, Warren, and Youngstown.

County Fund Totals $6,100

LISBON — The fund campaign of the Columbiana County Chapter of the American Cancer Society reached $6,100 — a fourth of the goal — as of Thursday, Galen Greenisen, county Cancer Crusade chairman, said. The quota is $24,400.

"It is important that Columbiana County reach its quota for 1960 so the program can be continued and all chairmen are urged to continue their efforts so this campaign can be brought to a successful conclusion," he appealed.

Anyone desiring to make a contribution may contact the local chairman or mail it to Greenisen at Salem R. D. 3.

Wellsville Lists $945 In Cancer Fund Drive

A total of $945.17 has been collected in Wellsville's Cancer Fund drive, according to Atty. William Bush, city chairman.

Of this, $574.17 was collected in the house-to-house canvass held Wednesday night by the Wellsville Women's Civic Club.

Mrs. Dorothy McCreary, door-to-door chairman, said seven division captains have not turned in reports. A total of $645 was collected by the Civic Club last year and Mrs. McCreary said she believes this will be exceeded this year.

Bush said the other $371 is from special gifts and some business and industry.

Cancer Projects Net Total $252 Collection

A total of $252 was collected by Chester Kiwanis Club members in a Cancer Fund traffic solicitation held Saturday on Carolina Ave. They were assisted by Y-Teen Girls who also made collections in a sidewalk canvass.

A total of $243 was received in the Calcutta area in a solicitation held by the Calcutta Mothers Club, Mrs. Robert Cairns, chairman reported.

Children's Home Board Holds Farm Inspection

The Board of Trustees of the Hancock County Children's Home inspected the farm and buildings near Pughtown during a brief meeting Monday night.

Attending were Dave N. Thomas of Weirton, president, and William C. Graham, Dick Wright, Robert Roach and Cyrus Spear, secretary.

The next meeting will be May 16 in the Hancock County Courthouse in New Cumberland.

Republican Committee Confers On Primaries

Final plans for the May 3 primaries were completed Monday night at a meeting of the Columbiana Couny Republican Central Committee in Village Hall at Lisbon.

"Get-out-the-vote" efforts were discussed. Atty. James L. McSweeney of Wellsville, chairman, presided. Several candidates attended.

Bike Tag Sale Slated

EAST PALESTINE — The annual sale of bicycle licenses will begin Monday in the office of City Welfare Director Robert Hunston. The 25-cent registration tag will be available Monday through Saturday from 8 to noon until the deadline June 30.

Reps. Richard M. Simpson and Alvin R. Bush, both Republicans.

In the hotly contested West Virginia primary campaign, Kennedy and Sen. Hubert M. Humphrey of Minnesota, the only opponents on the May 10 Democratic ballot, continue their tour of the state.

In their campaigning Monday, the rivals showed they had at least two things in common. Both had many admirers too young to vote, and both enjoyed lashing into the Republican administration.

At one point, 200 elementary school children met Kennedy with the chant: "Kennedy, Kennedy, he's our man; he can do what nobody can."

The two senators, however, were not in harmony on all their actions and talk. In the poorer sections of the state, Humphrey stressed the difference between Kennedy's wealth and his own financial position.

"I'm the only candidate in the Democratic party," Humphrey said at one stop, "who isn't a millionaire."

Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, a Democratic candidate who has not entered any primaries, continued his tour of Indiana.

In South Bend Monday, he predicted he would pick up a lot of the state's second-ballot votes at the Democratic National Convention.

The state delegation, voting as a unit, will be pledged to cast its 34 votes for Kennedy on the first ballot. He has no major opposition in Indiana's May 3 primary.

"If Indiana were not under the unit rule," Symington said, "I think I would get a lot of first-ballot votes."

Girl Scout Groups' Chairmen To Attend Oglebay Arts Class

Plans to send neighborhood chairmen to the Arts and Crafts Caravan May 9-12 at Oglebay Park in Wheeling were made at the meeting of the East Liverpool Area Girl Scout Council Monday at the Little House in Dixonville.

Planning to attend the courses in music, dancing, dramatics and handcraft are Mrs. Raymond Galloway, Mrs. Arthur Eddy, Mrs. Charles French, Mrs. Edwin Bayley, Mrs. Henry Koenig, Mrs. W. A. Sprouse, Mrs. Louella Myers and Mrs. Martha Reed.

Mrs. William Ogilvie, vice president, conducted business with reports read by Mrs. Charles R. Waggoner, secretary, and Miss Helen Auld, treasurer.

A motion was passed to purchase a power mower for the Little House.

Mrs. David Beatty, program chairman, reported on the recognition dinner scheduled for May 4 at the First Church of Christ. Ten- and 15-year pins and curved bars will be awarded. There will be a display of arts and crafts. Reservations must be in by Wednesday at the scout office.

Mrs. Koenig and the scouts of the Pleasant Heights Neighborhood will assist with the city's Memorial Day services. Mrs. French and the Chester scouts will participate in the services to be held at the Locust Hill Cemetery.

A "Calcutta Round-Up" is set for June 6 at the Little House. Mrs. Myers was appointed neighborhood chairman for that area to succeed Mrs. John Myler.

A final report on the cookie sale was given by Mrs. Thomas Doland and Mrs. Clarence Bryan.

Outdoor workshops are scheduled for troop leaders. The first stressing cook-out training will be held from 10 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. on May 17 at the Little House and one on nature lore and exploration trips will be set for Echo Dell with the date pending. Mrs. Reed will be instructor, assisted by Mrs. Dan Henderson, Mrs. Eileen McKinnon and Mrs. J. W. Prager.

Mrs. Fred Lawrence reported the Mildred Pittenger Living Memorial will be ready for dedication by the fall.

Mrs. Gladys Bourne was appointed troop organizer for Newell.

Final training sessions for Brownie Day Camp will be held May 2 at the YMCA and June 8 at the Little House.

Mrs. Eugene Seeley, camp director, will give instruction on handcraft. Mrs. Ben Warner, camp chairman, reported on the latest arrangements for the Brownie camp set for June 13-27. The Intermediate Day Camp will be scheduled for one day each week during July and will feature the seven basic skills of pioneer camping.

The National Girl Scout convention will be held Nov. 14-18 at St. Louis. Any regisered adult may attend, along with Senior Scouts selected as representatives of the councils.

The basic kits are being prepared for the leaders and will consist of handbooks, leader's guide, song books, and other books on safetywise, uniform and insignia and troop policies. Mrs. John Kozora is in charge of this project.

A list of guided tours in Pittsburgh, New Waterford, Steubenville and Wheeling was announced in the recent edition of "The Lark," the scout publication.

The next meeting will be May 23 at the Little House.

Presbytery's Clerk Named

The Steubenville Presbytery held a special meeting Sunday at the Toronto First Presbyterian Church for the transfer of the Rev. Richard Beidler, pastor of the Yellow Creek Presbyterian Church, from the Steubenville Presbytery to the Columbus Presbytery.

Rev. Beidler, who held the position of stated clerk, has accepted a position as camp superintendent for the Columbus Presbytery. He will work on the establishment of a church camp at a site south of Lancaster. He expects to leave next week.

The Rev. Frank Hare, pastor of the West Point Lebanon United Presbyterian Church, was elected to succeed Rev. Beidler as clerk.

Following the meeting, the United Presbyterian Men's organization of the Presbytery convened.

Dr. Blanchard Antes of Canton was speaker and showed slides of his recent trip to missionary posts throughout the world.

Season Will Open On June 6

Presbyterian Camp's Staff Named

The permanent staff for the summer Beaver Creek Presbyterian Camp was announced at a meeting of the Board of Trustees Saturday afternoon at the camp site at Grimms Bridge.

The staff hired includes John Pilutti of Irondale, crafts director; Miss Kaye Davis of East Liverpool, waterfront and recreation director; Mrs. Levada Moore of Wellsville, head cook, with Mrs. J. J. Gorrell of Wellsville and Miss Sara Cowling of East Liverpool as assistants; Miss Alice Wright of Cleveland, a student at Western Reserve Union School of Medicine, as nurse.

The camp has a capacity of 70. The season will open June 6 and close Aug. 2.

Dr. Robert Dunlap of East Liverpool will be camp physician, as in previous years. All campers are covered by insurance.

The operation committee report was submitted by Clifford Aithem of Brilliant, chairman.

The meeting opened with prayer by Miss Elizabeth Larick, Christian Education director of the Poland Church. Fifteen attended.

REPORTS WERE given by Mrs. Donald Baxter of East Liverpool and Marion Horger, also of East Liverpool, treasurer. It was announced that the 1960 food license has been acquired from the Columbiana County Health Department and that the campers' insurance was taken care of. Correspondence was read from Secretary of State Ted Brown regarding the number and status of trustees in a non-profit corporation.

Mrs. Robert Hummer of Girard, vice chairman of the Board of Trustees and chairman of the administration committee, was appointed new statutory agent to replace Judge Raymond Buzzard, who resigned.

Posters listing dates of the camp and copies of the 1960 budget have been mailed to ministers of the Steubenville - Mahoning Presbyteries, which jointly operate the camp.

THE LOAN for the kitchen addition and cook's quarters was discussed and final negotiations were made. A report of the development committee was given by the Rev. Mark Allen of Toronto, chairman, and Stanley Rose, co-chairman. Arrangements also were made for the purchase of a walk-in cooler for the new kitchen. Discussions on building plans and progress were also held.

A report of the program committee was presented by the Rev. Richard Fruit of Lake Milton. He said camp brochures will be mailed to the churches and campers, this week.

Directors have been obtained as follows:

The Rev. Gene Toot, Hopedale, Senior High work and worship camp, June 6-12.

For the Junior camps, the Rev. Richard E. Fruit, June 13-19; the Rev. Robert Geyer of Mingo Junction, June 27-July 3; the Rev. David Mellon of Brilliant, July 11-17; the Rev. H. Franklin MacAllister of Sebring, July 25-31, and the Rev. Roger Bush of Stillwater, Aug. 8-14.

JUNIOR CAMPS — the Rev. Calvin Martin of Mineral Ridge, June 20-26; the Rev. Zane Bollinger of Youngstown, July 4-10; the Rev. Joseph Varner of Salineville R. D. 1, July 18-24; the Rev. James McCollam of Salineville, Aug. 1-7, and Miss Larick, Aug. 15-21.

Counselors in Junior Camp must have completed the third year of high school. Junior High counselors must have completed high school and Senior High counselors must have been graduated a year or more ago. Adult counselors are needed especially, and anyone in this vicinity wishing to volunteer may call Mrs. Baxter, write to the Rev. Richard Fruit, Box 96, Lake Milton, or notify their minister.

A TRAINING SESSION for directors and counselors of each camp period will be held at Pilgrim Hills near Wooster May 2-4. Rev. Fruit has two sets of slides and a script made at the camp site and can be contacted for use of the slides.

The Rev. John McDowell of Cleveland, field director of Christian Education for the Mahoning Presbytery, attended the meeting and presented a proposed system of representation on the Beaver Creek Camp committee for consideration.

Plans were made for the program arrangements for the counselor's training day at the camp site May 21 from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. The next meeting of the Board of Trustees also will be at the camp site following the training session. Trustees were invited to come earlier to observe part of the training, if possible.

A report was given on a panel truck as a camp vehicle and it was decided to try to lease one for the summer rather than purchase one. Grass-cutting equipment also was discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds are caretakers of the camp and live there the year round. Lunch was served the trustees by Mrs. Reynolds. The meeting closed with prayer by Rev. David D. Mellon of Brilliant.

FACTS ADVERTISING

WHERE ARE YOUR CUSTOMERS?

HOW MUCH WILL IT COST TO REACH THEM?

Two of the most important decisions you must make in planning an advertising program are . . . how you are going to reach your prospective customers . . . and how much will it cost? For instance, Direct-By-Mail advertising can be a profitable method providing you know exactly WHO your customers are, WHERE they live, and WHEN they will be in the market to buy WHAT you have to offer.

Without this WHO-WHERE-WHEN-WHAT knowledge Direct-By-Mail is usually too costly, as you will see illustrated by a typical example later.

Assuming that your advertising program lacks this information then you should use a mass medium to do the job.

Newspapers are a good mass media because they reach almost everyone, and by so doing seek out your prospective customers at the lowest cost.

Driver Jailed 10 Days After Local Mishap

A Beaver Falls motorist was given two 10-day jail terms plus a fine of $250 and costs after pleading guilty Monday in Municipal Court to two charges filed as the aftermath of a collision early yesterday on Broadway near E. 3rd St.

It was one of three mishaps reported over the weekend.

A young bicyclist received minor injuries when he fell into a passing car and a police cruiser and an auto were damaged when the motorist opened the door of the car.

Richard Merle Rump, 23, was fined $250 and costs and sentenced to 10 days in jail for driving while under the influence of alcohol by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Judge Chertoff sentenced Rump to another 10 days in jail for driving without an operator's license. The sentences will run concurrently, the judge specified.

Police said Rump was headed north of Broadway at 12:25 a. m. when his 1951 sedan hit the parked car of William T. Polk, 403 W. 3rd St., causing about $30 damage.

Carleton Goldsmith, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith, 934 Lincoln Ave., lost his balance on his bicycle late Saturday afternoon and fell into the left side of a car driven by Harry Bridge, 48, of 1000 St. John St. at the intersection of Sutton Alley and St. John St.

Bridge said he took the youngster to his home and then offered to take him to City Hospital, but the offer was declined.

Mrs. Goldsmith said her son received brush burns of the right forearm and back, bruises of the forehead and back and an abrasion of the forehead.

The right rear fender of a 1960 cruiser driven by Patrolman Richard E. Higgins, 26, of 1978 Lisbon St. and the left front fender and left door of a 1960 Thunderbird hardtop owned by Donald C. Phelps, 1049 St. George St. were damaged in the mishap at 10:28 p. m. Saturday on Broadway near E. 6th St.

The officer said he was stopped beside Phelps' auto and as he started to drive away Phelps opened the door and it caught between the rear bumper and fender of the cruiser.

Wellsville Man Hurt In Toronto Collision

A Wellsville man was injured slightly when the car in which he was riding struck the rear of a parked car along Route 7 about a mile north of Toronto Saturday afternoon at 3, according to the Wintersville State Highway Patrol.

Officers said the car driven by Clifford Hutchinson, 37, of Toronto hit the rear of the parked car operated by Velma Brown, 37, of Hammondsville R. D. 1.

Hutchinson told officers he was headed north and had to pull to the berm to avoid a collision with a southbound vehicle which was passing another car.

Wilmont Grimm, 37, of 709 Commerce St., Wellsville, a passenger in Hutchinson's car, was treated at Ohio Valley Hospital at Steubenville for lacerations and bruises of the head.

Hutchinson suffered minor neck and knee injuries while the Hammondsville woman complained of neck pains, officers said.

Newell Auto Smashed In Cumberland Mishap

The auto of a Newell motorist was demolished in a one-car crash Saturday night at 12:05 on State Route 2 in New Cumberland.

Police said Harry Delong, 33, of Jefferson St., smashed into an iron railing and stone post along the highway near Dam 9.

Constable James Knox of New Cumberland said Delong suffered a laceration of the right eye and chest injury.

4 At Weirton Forfeit On Liquor Citations

WEIRTON — Four persons cited by police in raids last week forfeited bonds totaling $852 when they failed to appear for hearings Monday morning in Municipal Court.

They were cited in the Young Democrats Club and the Serbian Athletic Club for illegal liquor sales and operating after closing hours.

Committee Appointed To Help Name Pastor

A six-member pulpit committee was appointed to interview candidates for the pastorate of the Yellow Creek Presbyterian Church Sunday following the morning worship.

It includes Mrs. Elvada Marshall, Mrs. Portia Wolski, Robert Heckathorn, William Betteridge Jr., Dean Forbes and Roland McIntosh.

The Rev. Richard S. Beidler, pastor, who also is president of the Wellsville Ministerial Association, will leave next week to accept a position as camp superintendent for the Columbus Presbytery.

Food Distribution Dates Announced In Beaver County

Beaver County surplus food distribution for recipients in Midland and other area boroughs and townships has been set by Benedict Zupi, surplus food administrator.

Registered recipients living in Greene and Hanover Townships and Frankfort Sprints borough will receive food May 2 from 10 a. m. to 12 noon and 1 to 2 p. m. at the D. S. Wilcoxen service station at Frankfort Springs.

Shippingport, Georgetown and Hookstown recipients will obtain food the same day from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. at the Hookstown Borough Building.

Distribution for Midland and Industry boroughs, Smiths Ferry and Ohio Township will be May 6 from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. at the Midland Borough Garage on Railroad Ave.

Each applicant must have his identification card and an excuse if food is picked up for someone else, Zupi said.

Zupi announced that registration for food will be held May 2-16 at 841 Corporation St., Beaver, and will entitle new eligible recipients to receive food in June. After May 16, registration will be closed until June, he said.

16 Candidates Speak To Grant's Democrats

Sixteen state and local candidates in the May 10 primary in West Virginia spoke for five minutes each at a meeting of the Grant District Democrat Club Sunday afternoon in the Graham Building on Louisiana Ave., Chester.

The aspirants were introduced by Robert E. (Chick) Roach of New Cumberland, former member of the House of Delegates. A total of 139 attended the meeting.

Arnie Durham, president, presided and presented the new charter for inspection. A membership of 217 was reported. The secretary reported the second vice president as Julian Wilson instead of Don Delong. Delong is hospitality committee chairman.

Lunch was served by Delong's committee. The next meeting will be May 8 at 3 p. m. in the Graham building.

3 Wellsville Groups Air Park Improvements

Future improvements at Wellsville's Hammond Park were discussed by the park commission and representatives of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Ruritan Club at a meeting Sunday afternoon at the park.

The Jaycees discussed the possibility of having another shelter house erected, while the Ruritan Club discussed assistance in beautifying the park by planting trees and assisting in the seeding of grass.

Plans also were discussed for the enlargement of the baseball diamond and field to make it meet regulations of the Babe Ruth League.

The field will be staked out to proper size this week and bids will be asked for the grading of the area. John W. Powell, chairman, said a meeting will be called sometime this week after the bids were received.

"The Great Train Robbery," shown in 1903, was the first American drama portrayed through the medium of motion pictures.

One Of Four Groups To Advance

Colonials Sing Their Way To International At Dallas

The Colonials of East Liverpool will be one of four quartets representing the Johnny Appleseed district in international competition at Dallas, Tex., June 22-23-24.

The local singers advanced to the Texas event during the district contest last Saturday night at the Taft Theater in Cincinnati. Thirty quartets competed.

In addition to The Colonials, these three others moved up to the international: Town And Country, Pittsburgh; Stay Laters, Conneaut, and the Hi-Fis of Medina. The Akrolads of Akron were selected as an alternate.

The Colonials are made up of Jim Raffle, tenor; Chuck Brooks, lead; Dale Keddie, baritone, and Bill Brooks, bass.

They were organized in June 1959 and include a combination of two former Appleseed district groups — The Great Scots, international finalists, and The Babbling Brooks, international finalists and 1956-57 district champions.

Since organizing, they have appeared before virtually every conceivable type of audience — from church congregations through political rallies to barbershop Parades. They won the championship at Toledo last October, with Raffle named an all-district tenor.

The quartet has assisted in various civic enterprises, most recently having raised $75 by appearances during the Cancer Fund drive here.

Met Opera Opens

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Metropolitan Opera opened its yearly program in Public Hall Monday night with a performance of Gounod's "Faust." On hand was one of the largest audiences on record for a "Met" opening night here.

Young Driver Loses Permit

A LaCroft youth lost his driver's license for 15 days and was fined $25 and costs Monday in Municipal Court for reckless driving after being arrested by a patrolman who was crowded off the highway.

Brenton D. Wilson of 5th Ave. drew the fine and license suspension from Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after pleading guilty to the charge filed by Patrolman Richard E. Higgins.

Wilson was arrested at 9 p. m. Friday on Lisbon St. after a chase through Fisher Park, the officer said.

Wilson crossed the centerline on Lisbon St. and the officer said he had to get off the highway to avoid a collision. When Wilson realized the officer was in pursuit, he left the main thoroughfare and drove at speeds in excess of 40 mile an hour over S. Shady Ln. Dr. and Willims St., both residential streets in Fisher Park, the officer said.

Mrs. Edna J. Cassidy, 750½ Sophia St., was fined $25 and costs on a charge of driving without an operator's permit. She was cited April 12 on Route 7 by the State Highway Patrol.

Judge Chertoff shook his head in amazement when Mrs. Cassidy, who pleaded guilty, said she had never obtained a driver's license.

"You are not only endangering other people but your own life," he told the expectant mother.

Donna D. Hissan, 328 2nd St., Chester, was fined $5 and costs on a charge of failing to stop for a stop sign at St. George and Mulberry Sts. early Saturday morning.

Laco A. Swiger of 3rd St. Ext., Chester, forfeited a $31 bond on a reckless driving charge. He was cited Saturday afternoon on Park Way, police said.

No Kickback Evidence

CINCINNATI (AP) — State Treasurer Joseph Ferguson says he made a private survey last weekend of Hamilton County sales tax agents and found no evidence of kickbacks. Martin J. Hogan, a Democrat, filed suit April 12 against three county Democratic leaders, contending they had realized about $20,000 in kickbacks from tax stamp agents. Hogan asked for an accounting.

'Track Rabbit' Mishap Hurts Local Girl, 10

A city girl, hurt while riding a miniature auto, was among 13 adults and youngsters treated at City Hospital over the weekend for injuries suffered in separate mishaps.

Cynthia Wotring, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kraft, 944 Bank St., was treated Sunday afternoon for head and arm injuries received when a small "track rabbit" she was driving went over an embankment while she was visiting at a Chester area farm.

Theodore Milby, 60, of Phoenix Ave., Chester, was treated last night for a dog bite of the left leg received while visiting at the home of a son.

Linda McKinnon, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinnon of Irondale, suffered a puncture wound of the left foot on a nail in the yard at home yesterday.

In a fall from the seat of an auto, Frederick Kinsey, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kinsey of Smithfield St., received a laceration over the right eye yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Bair, 913 Bradshaw Ave., was treated yesterday for a puncture wound of the left foot received on a nail in the yard at home.

While raising a window, Raymond DeBee, 21, of Virginia Ave., Chester, received a laceration of the left hand.

Lana Phillips, 18, of Hillcrest, Wellsville, was treated yesterday for a laceration of the right hand suffered while washing dishes.

Harold Hamlett, 32, of Railroad St. was treated Saturday night for an injury to the right leg received in a fall down steps.

Lawrence Strum, 37, of Chester R. D. 1 was treated Saturday afternoon for a cut of the left hand suffered on a butcher knife.

In a fall while leaving a downtown store, Mrs. Hazel McShane of Cadmus St. suffered abrasions of the right knee and an injury to the left ankle.

Hollis Fisher, 47, of 301 Carolina Ave. was treated Saturday for a fracture of a toe of the left foot received when a brick dropped on his foot.

Jeffrey Triplett, 3, of Scioto County was treated for a fracture of a finger suffered when a brick fell on it while he was visiting in this area Sunday.

Mrs. Lucetta Reber of 3rd St., Chester, suffered a laceration of the right forehead when struck by a stone which was caught and thrown from a rotary power mower being used by her son at home Saturday.

Candidates Speak To Democrat Club

LISBON — Approximately 290 attended a dinner meeting of the Central Columbiana County Democratic Club at Lincoln School Saturday evening. Lew Sowards of Lisbon is president.

Herbert E. Arfman, candidate for county prosecutor, acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the following candidates:

Cogan and Bernard Freeman, state representative, R. Max Gard, Daniel McKeever, John Varsho, Rudy Wilk, Robert Barnett, Samuel J. Crawford and Robert L. Faulkner, county commissioners.

Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts; Albert E. Kittridge, Joseph P. McGurren, John A. Ansman, Lloyd B. Bentley and Merle Hardy, for sheriff; Lawrence A. Finlay, John E. Graham and Donald J. Longshore, county recorder; Vincent C. Judge, county treasurer, and John Ursu, county engineer.

41 More Get Absentee Ballots For Primaries

An additional 41 civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the May 3 primaries have been issued by the County Election Board, boosting the total to 175.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, warned the deadline to secure the civilian absentee and disabled ballots is 4 p. m. Thursday. The ballots must be back in the board's office at noon Friday, he added.

The board will continue to issue ballots for armed forces personnel and civilians residing temporarily outside the United States until noon Saturday. The ballot will be accepted until noon on Election Day, O'Hanlon said.

Club Gets Report On Phony Relics

A report on fake Indian relics was presented by Harry R. Cline at a meeting of the Aboriginal Explorers Club Monday night with Jim Monte of Wellsville.

Cline read an article, "Forgeries and Fantasies," dealing with fake relics now flooding the market. Cline said persons purchasing flint articles should beware as many are not genuine.

Cline also outlined an Indian camp he found near Wellsville along the Ohio River since the last meeting. Harold A. Dawson, president, reported on a new issue of the Archeological Society of Ohio bulletin. He also screened color slides of historial and interesting places in the Tri-State area.

Harry M. Cline displayed arrowhead blanks and triangular points he found while surface collecting in the West Virginia panhandle area.

Richard S. Thompson, secretary, showed flint spears, knives and hoes found in a cache in the south. Twenty-seven limestone tempered pottery shards were shown.

Monte reported he has purchased 25 volumes of Ohio history books which review several Indian mounds.

Jim Woodrow and Ray Simoni conducted a roundtable discussion on local Indian camps and villages. The next meeting will be May 9 at 7 p. m. at the home of Dawson on Boring Ln.

Ends Recruit Training

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

What Is Ness 'Score'?

A question that preys on our mind as we view "The Untouchables" these Thursday nights is "How many gangsters did Eliot Ness lead into captivity?" Not that we're a stickler for the facts when it comes to gangland history, mind you! Just curious!

Marie Torre

In the months since "The Untouchables" came to ABC, Ness (as portrayed by Robert Stack, who, incidentally, gave Deanna Durbin her first movie kiss has set a trap for at least one public enemy a week.

Imagine! Ness' efforts as federal prohibition agent in the 'thirties led, according to television, to the seizure of such underworld figures as Al Capone, "Ma" (Kate) Barker and her boys, Dutch Schultz, Frank Nitti, Jake (Greasy Thumb) Guzik, Joe Bucco, George (Bugs) Moran, Big Jim Harrington, Salvatore Spitali, and too many others to mention here.

Newspaper files offer unalterable proof that Ness was a particular thorn in the activities of Al Capone, but the records on those other gangland leaders really do Ness no justice. His name isn't even mentioned in the newspaper accounts about them.

TAKE THE "Ma" Barker story: The old girl was slain in 1935 after a six-hour battle with Federal agents at a house in Oklawaha, Fla. According to the newspaper report: "The battle started soon after daylight when Department of Justice agents led by E. J. Connelley, of Cincinnati, surrounded the house on Lake Weir. Connelley approached and called to the occupants to surrender. Machine gun fire was the answer. . ." Not a trace of the Ness name in any of the Barker stories!

The obituary of Dutch Schultz, killed in 1935, also omits mention of Ness. Also the death report on "Greasy Thumb" Guzik, who died of a heart ailment in 1956. Also the obituary of "Bugs" Moran, a victim of lung cancer in 1957.

Even the 1943 death report on Frank Nitti, who was Al Capone's cousin and who inherited his rackets, ignored the Ness name. An oversight, perhaps? A whole episode of "The Untouchables" was devoted to Ness' participation in the Nitti case, and to satisfy our curiosity we called on a lawyer who was a United States attorney in New York when Nitti was indicted by a federal grand jury here.

-:-

"Ness' part in the Nitti indictment?" echoed the lawyer. "Who's Ness?"

But we're not as concerned about "The Untouchables'" past as its future. The series is enjoying peak rating popularity, and forgetting the gangsters Ness helped apprehend, were there enough underworld fiends back in the 'thirties to keep the show running for the next two, three, or more years? One gangster a week?

Dinah Shore and Chevy will ride together again next season for a 10th year on NBC. . . Television Factbook estimates there are 91,002,800 TV sets in the world; the U.S. has 52,600,000 and 38,402,800 are in 71 other countries . . . An unconfirmed report has it that NBC has offered a $50,000 bonus to the staff salesman who locates a sponsor for its coverage of the political conventions—representing $3,000,000 in sponsorship. . . Bob Hope, who vowed to "take it easy" after his recent illness, will increase his NBC shows from six to eight next season.

Card Party Held At Salineville To Aid Cancer Fund

Twelve tables were in play at a public card party sponsored Saturday night at the Parish Hall of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Salineville, for the Cancer Fund.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Emma Whelan and Charles Sweeney, 500, and Mrs. Margaret Hanley and John Campbell, eucher. Lunch was served.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweeney of E. Main St. included Mrs. Mary Kobe and Albert Stevens of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leishman and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown and children of Euclid.

Mrs. Olive Schubert and Miss Myrtle Strabley visited at Wellsville Sunday.

Miss Gladys Jewell of Cleveland has returned after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jewell of High St.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McCullough have returned after a visit with Dr. and Mrs. C. A. McCullough at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. James Stevens visited at East Liverpool Saturday.

William Maley of R. D. visited Saturday at East Liverpool.

Mrs. Louise Gearin of E. Main St. is a patient at City Hospital.

Negotiations Avert Strike At GM Plant

CINCINNATI (AP)—A 27-hour negotiating session averted a planned strike of 1,930 United Auto Workers Union members Monday at a General Motors plant in nearby Norwood.

The deadline for a strike was 11:12 a.m., but since negotiations were still on, union members continued working at the Fisher Body plant. Agreement came at 3:15 p.m.

T. C. Ingram, president of Local 674, said the agreement settled all the issues on which a strike vote was taken two weeks ago.

The union charged there was a production speedup, and contended there were 28 cases of grievance action.

50 At Dinner-Dance

LISBON — Approximately 50 State Highway patrolmen, auxiliary patrolmen, wives and friends attended a dinner-dance held Saturday evening by the Columbiana County Patrol Auxiliary at the John J. Welsh Post American Legion home. The Legion auxiliary served the meal. Dancing followed.

Mrs. McLane To Head Class At Shippingport

Mrs. John McLane was elected president of the Helping Hands Class of the Green Valley Methodist Church Sunday School at Shippingport at a meeting Thursday night in the church social rooms. Twelve attended.

Others elected are Mrs. Clarence Green, vice president; Mrs. Thomas Green, secretary; Mrs. James Russell Jr., treasurer, and Mrs. Harry Allison, spiritual life secretary.

The group finished the Bible study of Genesis and will begin studying the book of Exodus next month. Plans were made to have a new cupboard built in the Sunday School rooms and to paint the nursery.

Lunch was served. Hostesses were Mrs. James Russell and Mrs. Ralph Mortimer.

Immunizations Given Leetonia Area Children

LISBON — The Columbiana County Health Department is giving immunizations to kindergarten, first grade and pre-school children at Leetonia Schools today, according to Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner.

Monday, 39 second-round polio shots were given to Lisbon School children — kindergarten through 12th grade.

Dr. Palmer was assisted by Mrs. Violet Peterson, county health nurse, and Mrs. Mildred Ashbridge, school nurse.

City, Salem Drivers Get Year's Suspension

Driver licenses of Pirl Shields, 57, of 236 W. 3rd St., and John C. Dillon, 24, of Salem have been suspended for a year as habitual traffic offenders.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard gave Don C. Day, 48, of 502 East North Ave., East Palestine, a year's probation.

George L. Ramsey, 21, of Salem R. D. 2 was left off without a suspension, according to the judge's entry in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon.

World speed record for railroad engines is held by two French electric locomotives which clocked 206 miles per hour in 1955.

Lisbon Adopts Appropriation For $279,086

LISBON — Council Monday evening adopted an appropriation of $279,086.58 for 1960. Last year's total revenue was $301,000.

A breakdown shows the general fund is $8,000; general fund contingencies, $2,000; safety fund, $19,000; service fund, $28,430; water fund, $49,206; parking meters, $16,937; Civil Defense, $236; cemetery fund, $15,324; street maintenance and repair fund, $26,680; sewer fund, $51,354; police pension fund, $1,858; general bond retirement fund, $16,808; special assessment bond retirement fund, $8,738; sewer construction, $8,452; swimming pool, $5,644; John H. Clark endowment $2,045, and cemetery endowment, $11,500.

Courtney Pennell, manager of the local office of the Ohio Fuel & Gas Co. requested an increase in gas rates of 7.8 per cent.

He cited higher costs of fuel, operation and equipment as the reasons for the request. Council tabled the request until the next meeting. The same request was made last year to the former Council.

Paul Kuhns, member of the Board of Public Affairs, requested four new pumper fire hydrants and also a pay raise for Edgar Kish, clerk of the water and sewer office, from $270 to $310 per month.

The clerk also receives $50 from the Cemetery Board which would make his total salary $360.

Council tabled the hydrant request until next meeting while the locations are determined. No action was taken on the pay raise.

Council decided not to change parking meter operation from Saturday to Friday nights after a poll of 65 establishments. Some 56 were reported, and operators of 10 had no comment. Twenty-three were for Saturday night meter operations and 20 against. The Friday night was favored by 19 with 25 opposed. Most of the merchants now close on Saturday nights but many store owners said they believe free parking on Friday nights stimulates their business.

The Lions club offered its services to help clean up the Public Square, and Council gave wholehearted approval. This will be a civic project of the club.

Officials of the Christian Church requested permission to remove curbing on Vine St. for a driveway into the parking lot and the work was authorized.

Mayor Dean Stockman reported on the village Civil Defense situation and the address of William Wark of Salem, county CD director, at the recent meeting of the Columbiana County Mayors' Association.

The mayor also discussed his inspection of the CD quarters in the former Lincoln School and how surplus equipment can be obtained if a CD director is appointed. The village has no director at present.

The condition of some sidewalks was discussed, the need for a mower for Willow Grove Park and the possibility of park custodian working on the Public Square park a day and a half each week.

Council authorized the provisional appointment of three new village fireman, William Crowe, James R. Stewart and Dean Berry. They will be placed on a six months probation and will attend a fireman's school.

The next meeting will be Monday, May 9, at 7:30 p. m.

Bigamist Escapes Jail Because Of Children

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Joseph R. Dischino, 35, former high school civic teacher, who supported two wives in adjoining towns, has escaped jail for bigamy because of his four children.

"If it weren't for the children," Superior Court Judge Daniel D. O'Brien told him Monday, "I wouldn't hesitate in send you to jail."

Judge O'Brien then pronounced a suspended one-year term and placed Dischino on five years probation.

His first wife, mother of three, has agreed to take him back.

Euclid Husband Wounds Wife, 4 Children And Self

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Euclid man attacked his wife and four children with a hammer and knife at their home today and wounded all of them, Euclid police reported.

Walter W. Brass, 40, an employe of an auto parts company, was treated at Euclid-Glenville Hospital for cuts on his wrists, then taken to police headquarters for questioning.

His wife, Lillian, 36, and their four children—William, 8, Lynda Ann, 6, Janet Lynn, 3, and Gail Marleen, 18 months—were more seriously injured. A team of eight doctors worked on them in emergency surgery, mostly for head wounds. No immediate report on their conditions was available.

Police said Brass was being questioned, but it was not learned immediately what motivated the violence.

Brass cut the telephone and electric wires to his house, tried to electrocute himself, turned on gas jets and also tried to drown himself in Lake Erie, officers related.

Charities Board Pays Into Fund

The Board of Directors of the Midland Area Charities met Monday evening and authorized a payment in full of $14,262 to the United Funds of Beaver County.

The board approved on motions by Salvatore Glorioso and Charles L. Smith. Some $1,751 was authorized for the county unit at the last meeting, the final payment being $12,511.

Atty. Edwin M. Wallover, president, presided at his first meeting and appointed committes. They include:

Executive — Wallover, chairman, Smith, David Schwerha, Dr. Ralph H. Jewell, Nile H. Wain and William I. McInerney.

Campaign — Donald I. Green, chairman, Lawrence G. Andres, Mrs. Paul R. Brucker, Truman E. Rodfong and Glorioso.

150 Attend Girl Scout Tea Held At Ambridge

Some 150 attended the Beaver County Girl Scout Council's annual Juliet Low tea held Saturday afternoon at Old Economy Park in Ambridge.

Presentation of world association flags was featured. Mrs. Richard Herter of Ohio View was in charge.

Midland district troops presented the following four hand-sewn flags: Denmark, presented by Mrs. John Tippett on behalf of the Ohio View neighborhood; Netherlands, for the Ohio Township neighborhood, presented by Mrs. Richard Graham; Ireland, presented by Mrs. William Black for the Midland neighborhood and Colombia, presented by Mrs. Harry Young on behalf of the Midland Heights neighborhood. Mrs. George Hamilton presented the flag of Sweden for the entire Midland district.

The theme, "International Friendship Through Food," was reflected in the menu. Varous dishes from different countries were served at the luncheon.

Eight county districts were represented. They included, Midland, Little Beaver, Aliquippa, Cheba, Oheyu, Monaca, Mingo and Sacajawea.

200 Join In Drill

EAST PALESTINE — Some 200 Scouts of the Shawnee District took part in a mock disaster program here Sunday afternoon. First aid victims were evacuated and treated and other emergency procedures were followed. Firemen held a demonstration at the City Park, where the youths were fed.

1 Killed, 11 Injured As 8 Cars Jump Tracks

SENECA, S. C. (AP) — Eight cars of a Southern Railway passenger train jumped the tracks and tumbled down a bank Monday, killing the conductor and injuring 11 other persons.

"Expansion had bucked it (the track) out," said engineer J. S. Dean, 67, of Atlanta. "I saw it too late to stop. I was doing 55 to 60 miles an hour."

The train was Southern's No. 30, the "Peach Queen," en route from Atlanta to Washington.

2 Firemen Fined

PLEASANTVILLE, N.J. (AP)—Two firemen have been fined $250 each after they pleaded no defense to charges of setting fire to a vacant house with kerosene lanterns after a night of drinking.

Club Gets Report On Phony Relics

A report on fake Indian relics was presented by Harry R. Cline at a meeting of the Aboriginal Explorers Club Monday night with Jim Monte of Wellsville.

Cline read an article, "Forgeries and Fantasies," dealing with fake relics now flooding the market. Cline said persons purchasing flint articles should beware as many are not genuine.

Cline also outlined an Indian camp he found near Wellsville along the Ohio River since the last meeting. Harold A. Dawson, president, reported on a new issue of the Archeological Society of Ohio bulletin. He also screened color slides of historial and interesting places in the Tri-State area.

Harry M. Cline displayed arrowhead blanks and triangular points he found while surface collecting in the West Virginia panhandle area.

Richard S. Thompson, secretary, showed flint spears, knives and hoes found in a cache in the south. Twenty-seven limestone tempered pottery shards were shown.

Monte reported he has purchased 25 volumes of Ohio history books which review several Indian mounds.

Jim Woodrow and Ray Simoni conducted a roundtable discussion on local Indian camps and villages. The next meeting will be May 9 at 7 p. m. at the home of Dawson on Boring La.

Ends Recruit Training

What Is Ness 'Score'?

A question that preys on our mind as we view "The Untouchables" these Thursday nights is "How many gangsters did Eliot Ness lead into captivity?" Not that we're a stickler for the facts when it comes to gangland history, mind you! Just curious!

Marie Torre

In the months since "The Untouchables" came to ABC, Ness (as portrayed by Robert Stack, who, incidentally, gave Deanna Durbin her first movie kiss has set a trap for at least one public enemy a week.

Imagine! Ness' efforts as federal prohibition agent in the 'thirties led, according to television, to the seizure of such underworld figures as Al Capone, "Ma" (Kate) Barker and her boys, Dutch Schultz, Frank Nitti, Jake (Greasy Thumb) Guzik, Joe Bucco, George (Bugs) Moran, Big Jim Harrington, Salvatore Spitali, and too many others to mention here.

Newspaper files offer unskerable proof that Ness was a particular thorn in the activities of Al Capone, but the records on those other gangland leaders really do Ness no justice. His name isn't even mentioned in the newspaper accounts about them.

TAKE THE "Ma" Barker story: The old girl was slain in 1935 after a six-hour battle with Federal agents at a house in Oklawaha, Fla. According to the newspaper report: "The battle started soon after daylight when Department of Justice agents led by E. J. Connelley, of Cincinnati, surrounded the house on Lake Weir. Connelley approached and called to the occupants to surrender. Machine gun fire was the answer. . ." Not a trace of the Ness name in any of the Barker stories!

The obituary of Dutch Schultz, killed in 1935, also omits mention of Ness. Also the death report on "Greasy Thumb" Guzik, who died of a heart ailment in 1956. Also the obituary of "Bugs" Moran, a victim of lung cancer in 1957.

Even the 1943 death report on Frank Nitti, who was Al Capone's cousin, and who inherited his rackets, ignored the Ness name. An oversight, perhaps? A whole episode of "The Untouchables" was devoted to Ness' participation in the Nitti case, and to satisfy our curiosity we called on a lawyer who was a United States attorney in New York when Nitti was indicted by a federal grand jury here.

-:-

"Ness' part in the Nitti indictment?" echoed the lawyer. "Who's Ness?"

But we're not as concerned about "The Untouchables'" past as its future. The series is enjoying peak rating popularity, and forgetting the gangsters Ness helped apprehend, were there enough underworld fiends back in the 'thirties to keep the show running for the next two, three, or more years? One gangster a week?

Dinah Shore and Chevy will ride together again next season for a 10th year on NBC. . . Television Factbook estimates there are 91,002,800 TV sets in the world; the U.S. has 52,600,000 and 38,402,800 are in 71 other countries . . . An unconfirmed report has it that NBC has offered a $50,000 bonus to the staff salesman who locates a sponsor for its coverage of the political conventions—representing $3,000,000 in sponsorship. . . Bob Hope, who vowed to "take it easy" after his recent illness, will increase his NBC shows from six to eight next season.

Card Party Held At Salineville To Aid Cancer Fund

Twelve tables were in play at a public card party sponsored Saturday night at the Parish Hall of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Salineville, for the Cancer Fund.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Emma Whelan and Charles Sweeney, 500, and Mrs. Margaret Hanley and John Campbell, euchre. Lunch was served.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweeney of E. Main St. included Mrs. Mary Kobe and Albert Stevens of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leishman and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown and children of Euclid.

Mrs. Olive Schubert and Miss Myrtle Strabley visited at Wellsville Sunday.

Miss Gladys Jewell of Cleveland has returned after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jewell of High St.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McCullough have returned after a visit with Dr. and Mrs. C. A. McCullough at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. James Stevens visited at East Liverpool Saturday.

William Maley of R. D. visited Saturday at East Liverpool.

Mrs. Louise Gearin of E. Main St. is a patient at City Hospital.

Negotiations Avert Strike At GM Plant

CINCINNATI (AP)—A 27-hour negotiating session averted a planned strike of 1,930 United Auto Workers Union members Monday at a General Motors plant in nearby Norwood.

The deadline for a strike was 11:12 a.m., but since negotiations were still on, union members continued working at the Fisher Body plant. Agreement came at 3:15 p.m.

T. C. Ingram, president of Local 674, said the agreement settled all the issues on which a strike vote was taken two weeks ago.

The union charged there was a production speedup, and contended there were 26 cases of grievance action.

50 At Dinner-Dance

LISBON — Approximately 50 State Highway patrolmen, auxiliary patrolmen, wives and friends attended a dinner-dance held Saturday evening by the Columbiana County Patrol Auxiliary at the John J. Welsh Post American Legion home. The Legion auxiliary served the meal. Dancing followed.

Mrs. McLane To Head Class At Shippingport

Mrs. John McLane was elected president of the Helping Hands Class of the Green Valley Methodist Church Sunday School at Shippingport at a meeting Thursday night in the church social rooms. Twelve attended.

Others elected are Mrs. Clarence Green, vice president; Mrs. Thomas Green, secretary; Mrs. James Russell Jr., treasurer, and Mrs. Harry Allison, spiritual life secretary.

The group finished the Bible study of Genesis and will begin studying the book of Exodus next month. Plans were made to have a new cupboard built in the Sunday School rooms and to paint the nursery.

Lunch was served. Hostesses were Mrs. James Russell and Mrs. Ralph Mortimer.

Immunizations Given Leetonia Area Children

LISBON — The Columbiana County Health Department is giving immunizations to kindergarten, first grade and pre-school children at Leetonia Schools today, according to Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner.

Monday, 39 second-round polio shots were given to Lisbon School children — kindergarten through 12th grade.

Dr. Palmer was assisted by Mrs. Violet Peterson, county health nurse, and Mrs. Mildred Ashbridge, school nurse.

City, Salem Drivers Get Year's Suspension

Driver licenses of Pirl Shields, 57, of 236 W. 3rd St., and John C. Dillon, 24, of Salem have been suspended for a year as habitual traffic offenders.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard gave Don C. Day, 48, of 502 East North Ave., East Palestine, a year's probation.

George L. Ramsey, 21, of Salem R. D. 2 was left off without a suspension, according to the judge's entry in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon.

Lisbon Adopts Appropriation For $279,086

LISBON — Council Monday evening adopted an appropriation of $279,086.58 for 1960. Last year's total revenue was $301,000.

A breakdown shows the general fund is $8,000; general fund contingencies, $2,000; safety fund, $19,000; service fund, $28,430; water fund, $49,206; parking meters, $16,937; Civil Defense, $236; cemetery fund, $15,324; street maintenance and repair fund, $26,680; sewer fund, $51,354; police pension fund, $1,858; general bond retirement fund, $16,608; special assessment bond retirement fund, $8,738; sewer construction, $8,452; swimming pool, $5,844; John H. Clark endowment $2,045, and cemetery endowment, $11,500.

Courtney Pennell, manager of the local office of the Ohio Fuel & Gas Co. requested an increase in gas rates of 7.8 per cent.

He cited higher costs of fuel, operation and equipment as the reasons for the request. Council tabled the request until the next meeting. The same request was made last year to the former Council.

Paul Kuhns, member of the Board of Public Affairs, requested four new pumper fire hydrants and also a pay raise for Edgar Kish, clerk of the water and sewer office, from $270 to $310 per month.

The clerk also receives $50 from the Cemetery Board which would make his total salary $360.

Council tabled the hydrant request until next meeting while the locations are determined. No action was taken on the pay raise.

Council decided not to change parking meter operation from Saturday to Friday nights after a poll of 66 establishments. Some 36 were reported, and operators of 10 had no comment. Twenty-three were for Saturday night meter operations and 20 against. The Friday night was favored by 19 with 26 opposed. Most of the merchants now close on Saturday nights but many store owners said they believe free parking on Friday nights stimulates their business.

The Lions club offered its services to help clean up the Public Square, and Council gave wholehearted approval. This will be a civic project of the club.

Officials of the Christian Church requested permission to remove curbing on Vine St. for a driveway into the parking lot and the work was authorized.

Mayor Dean Stockman reported on the village Civil Defense situation and the address of William Wark of Salem, county CD director, at the recent meeting of the Columbiana County Mayors' Association.

The mayor also discussed his inspection of the CD quarters in the former Lincoln School and how surplus equipment can be obtained if a CD director is appointed. The village has no director at present.

The condition of some sidewalks was discussed, the need for a mower for Willow Grove Park and the possibility of park custodian working on the Public Square park a day and a half each week.

Council authorized the provisional appointment of three new village firemen, William Crowe, James R. Stewart and Dean Berry. They will be placed on a six months probation and will attend a fireman's school.

The next meeting will be Monday, May 9, at 7:30 p. m.

Bigamist Escapes Jail Because Of Children

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Joseph R. Dischino, 35, former high school civic teacher, who supported two wives in adjoining towns, has escaped jail for bigamy because of his four children.

"If it weren't for the children," Superior Court Judge Daniel D. O'Brien told him Monday, "I wouldn't hesitate in send you to jail."

Judge O'Brien then pronounced a suspended one-year term and placed Dischino on five years probation.

His first wife, mother of three, has agreed to take him back.

Euclid Husband Wounds Wife, 4 Children And Self

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Euclid man attacked his wife and four children with a hammer and knife at their home today and wounded all of them, Euclid police reported.

Walter W. Brass, 40, an employe of an auto parts company, was treated at Euclid-Glenville Hospital for cuts on his wrists, then taken to police headquarters for questioning.

His wife, Lillian, 36, and their four children—William, 8, Lynda Ann, 6, Janet Lynn, 3, and Gail Marleen, 18 months—were more seriously injured. A team of eight doctors worked on them in emergency surgery, mostly for head wounds. No immediate report on their conditions was available.

Police said Brass was being questioned, but it was not learned immediately what motivated the violence.

Brass cut the telephone and electric wires to his house, tried to electrocute himself, turned on gas jets and also tried to drown himself in Lake Erie, officers related.

Charities Board Pays Into Fund

The Board of Directors of the Midland Area Charities met Monday evening and authorized a payment in full of $14,262 to the United Funds of Beaver County.

The board approved on motions by Salvatore Glorioso and Charles L. Smith. Some $1,751 was authorized for the county unit at the last meeting, the final payment being $12,511.

Atty. Edwin M. Wallover, president, presided at his first meeting and appointed committes. They include:

Executive — Wallover, chairman, Smith, David Schwerha, Dr. Ralph H. Jewell, Nile H. Wain and William I. McInerney.

Campaign — Donald I. Green, chairman, Lawrence G. Andres, Mrs. Paul R. Brucker, Truman E. Rodfong and Glorioso.

150 Attend Girl Scout Tea Held At Ambridge

Some 150 attended the Beaver County Girl Scout Council's annual Juliet Low tea held Saturday afternoon at Old Economy Park in Ambridge.

Presentation of world association flags was featured. Mrs. Richard Herter of Ohio View was in charge.

Midland district troops presented the following four hand-sewn flags: Denmark, presented by Mrs. John Tippett on behalf of the Ohio View neighborhood; Netherlands, for the Ohio Township neighborhood, presented by Mrs. Richard Graham; Ireland, presented by Mrs. William Black for the Midland neighborhood and Colombia, presented by Mrs. Harry Young on behalf of the Midland Heights neighborhood. Mrs. George Hamilton presented the flag of Sweden for the entire Midland district.

The theme, "International Friendship Through Food," was reflected in the menu. Varous dishes from different countries were served at the luncheon.

Eight county districts were represented. They included, Midland, Little Beaver, Aliquippa, Cheba, Oheyu, Monaca, Mingo and Sacajawea.

200 Join In Drill

EAST PALESTINE — Some 200 Scouts of the Shawnee District took part in a mock disaster program here Sunday afternoon. First aid victims were evacuated and treated and other emergency procedures were followed. Firemen held a demonstration at the City Park, where the youths were fed.

1 Killed, 11 Injured As 8 Cars Jump Tracks

SENECA, S. C. (AP) — Eight cars of a Southern Railway passenger train jumped the tracks and tumbled down a bank Monday, killing the conductor and injuring 11 other persons.

"Expansion had bucked it (the track) out," said engineer J. S. Dean, 67, of Atlanta. "I saw it too late to stop. I was doing 55 to 60 miles an hour."

The train was Southern's No. 30, the "Peach Queen," en route from Atlanta to Washington.

2 Firemen Fined

PLEASANTVILLE, N.J. (AP)—Two firemen have been fined $250 each after they pleaded no defense to charges of setting fire to a vacant house with kerosene lanterns after a night of drinking.

Giants Nip St. Louis, 9-8; Share NL Lead With Pittsburgh

MIDLAND Presentation parochial athletes, both basketball and football, were honored with a dinner and awards Monday evening by Knights of Columbus, Council 2005, in the lyceum of Presentation Catholic Church. Some 115 attended. Left to right are Louis Bruno, grand knight; Ivan Toncic, Pittsburgh University quarterback and former Presentation student; David Torres; Fr. Robert Garland, athletic director, and Sam Zigerelli. Both Torres and Zigerelli are eighth graders. Some 15 eighth graders were presented jackets and 20 others letters by Fr. Garland. John Petchel, teacher at Lincoln High and football coach from 1951 through last season, was presented a plaque by Bruno, on behalf of the Council, for his sportsmanship and outstanding leadership.

Score Five Runs In Eighth Inning

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

That's really a sophomore jinx riding Willie McCovey of the San Francisco Giants. The big first baseman is batting a mere .184—but six of his seven hits have been for extra bases. Four of them have been homers and he is tied for the National League runs-batted-in lead with 13.

The jinx? He can't hit singles.

Willie, Rookie of the Year in the NL when he batted .354 in 52 games last season, put across four RBI Monday night with his one-on homer capping a five-run eighth inning that beat St. Louis 9-8.

It was the only game scheduled in the NL and hoisted the Giants back into a first-place tie with Pittsburgh.

In the American League, Bud Daley's three-hitter and four unearned runs in the fourth gave Kansas City a 6-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox and Herb Score. Baltimore ended its slump at five, defeating Washington 3-2 on Jim Gentile's three-run homer in the first inning.

McCovey, 22, was the big gun as the Giants overhauled a 5-1 Cardinal lead. His only single in 38 times at bat counted two of the Giants three seventh-inning runs against starter Wilmer Mizell. In the eighth, singles by ex-Card Don Blasingame and Willie Mays accounted for three runs before McCovey unloaded with the clincher off losing reliever Bob Duliba (1-2).

That made it 9-7 San Francisco before pinch-hitter Carl Sawatski hammered the Cards' fourth home run of the game, off reliever Ray Monzant. Ex-Giant Daryl Spencer, connected with two on against starter Mike McCormick; Stan Musial and Ken Boyer also homered for the Cards, who now have hit home runs in all 10 of their games.

Boyer, tied with McCovey and Pittsburgh's Bob Skinner for the RBI lead, hit his No. 6 home run, tops in the majors and his fourth in three games. It was off winning reliever Johnny Antonelli (1-0), who gave up two runs in his lone inning.

Jim Davenport also homered for the Giants, who have hit 11 and have scored 41 runs in their last four games.

Chicago Drops 4th Straight

Score Runs Into Trouble In First Start For Sox

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Add yet another disappointment for Herb Score.

The tough luck guy, making his 1960 debut in his first game with the Chicago White Sox, ran into Hank Bauer's home run bat, four unearned runs and a dandy, three-hit pitching job by Bud Daley for a 6-1 setback at Kansas City Monday night.

It was the seventh straight loss since last July for the troubled young southpaw. It was the fourth in a row for the American League champion White Sox.

The defeat dropped the Sox to sixth, 3½ games behind idle, unbeaten Detroit, while Kansas City climbed into a third-place tie with Washington. The Senators lost 3-2 to the Baltimore Orioles, who had dropped five straight, in the only other AL game.

In the only National League game, San Francisco scored five in the eighth inning, capped by Willie McCovey's two-run homer, and climbed back into a first-place tie with Pittsburgh by beating St. Louis 9-8.

Score, 26, who has won only 11 since being felled by a line drive in 1957, now has missed in 10 starts since putting away his last victory—an 8-4 decision at Kansas City last July 3. He walked five, but struck out three and had allowed only two hits through three innings. One was Bauer's third-inning home run that tied it 1-all.

Then came the fourth, and five Kansas City runs.

Bob Johnson singled and rookie Ken Hamlin followed with what looked like a doubleplay ball. But shortstop Luis Aparicio threw it away. Johnson scored the lead run and the A's were on their way. Four more singles got Score (0-1) out of the game and reliever Mike Garcia gave up another.

Turk Lown and Gerry Staley blanked the A's on two hits the rest of the way, but the champs were down with their fourth defeat in six games.

Two walks and Jim Gentile's two-out home run, his first in the AL, beat right-hander Russ Kemmerer (0-1) and the Senators in the first inning at Washington. Milt Pappas (1-0) allowed five-hits on Don Mincher's first major league run, and struck out seven for his sixth in a row over the Nats since Aug. 10, 1958.

Gordon Has Confidence

Hawkins To Get Another Chance Today At Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Cleveland manager Joe Gordon thinks 24-year-old rookie Wynn Hawkins, who goes against Detroit today, may be just the man to bring the high-flying Tigers down to earth.

A fork ball is a breaking pitch, slower than a slider.

"Except for a couple of bad pitches, I though he did a good job in Kansas City," the Indians' manager added.

Jim Bunning (0-0) is Detroit manager Jimmy Dykes' choice to oppose Hawkins as the undefeated Tigers try to make it six in a row.

Harvey Kuenn, 1959 American League batting champ the Indians got from Detroit in a trade for Rocky Colavito, will remain on the sidelines unless called on to pinch-hit. Kuenn has been out since the first game a week ago, when he suffered a pulled leg muscle.

He is expected to return to the lineup Thursday night when the Indians play the White Sox in Chicago. The Indians, idle Monday have another off day Wednesday.

The schedule gives Gordon a chance to use Gary Bell against the White Sox. Bell blanked Kansas City Sunday, giving the Indians their only victory in the young season.

Burbick Paces ELHS Golfers

East Liverpool High's golfers swing against Beaver Local and Columbiana this afternoon at 3:15 at the Country Club course in search of their second triumph of the season.

The Potters sport a 1-1 record after losing to Steubenville Central Catholic, 8½-4½, Monday afternoon at Steubenville.

Craig Burbick won low medalist honors by caring a three over par 38 in match play. Behind him were Bob Putt with a 40, Sam Hughes with 43 and Rick Crable with 44.

Errors Are Costly

Potters Bumped Again, 5-2

Toronto, taking advantage of East Liverpool's loose play in the field, scored four runs in the last two innings and handed the Potters a 5-2 setback Monday afternoon at Patterson Field.

The loss was East Liverpool's seventh in eight starts. The Blue and White committed five errors in Monday's game, running their total of miscues to 37 in eight contests.

Toronto drew first blood with one run in the second inning, but East Liverpool came back to tie the count at 1-1 in the third frame.

Two runs in the sixth and two more in the seventh swung the decision toward Toronto.

Toronto collected six hits with Kestner's two safeties leading the way.

Wadas pitched a neat three-hitter and struck out 12 Potter batters. Loose fielding also accounted for East Liverpool's two runs as the Red Knights committed seven errors.

Kenny Miller, Miles and Dave Zelch collected East Liverpool's three hits.

Liston Wastes Little Time With Roy Harris

By MAX B. SKELTON

It took the big Philadelphia heavyweight just 2:35 of the first round Monday night to score a technical knockout over the Cut and Shoot schoolteacher before a record Texas crowd and closed circuit TV fans in 10 other cities.

Harris just barely had time to get in three left jabs to the nose before he was in trouble.

A left hook was the damaging blow. Harris took an eight count under the ropes. More of a push than a punch quickly brought another eight count. Then Harris slipped and fell to the canvas and Liston was ready for the kill.

Liston cut loose with a right that caught Harris squarely on the chin.

Referee Jimmy Webb did not take time to start counting. He just raised Liston's hand.

"It was my easiest fight," the Philadelphia Negro said after extending his record to 29-1 and recording his 20th knockout.

"He's a better puncher than Patterson," said Harris in taking his second defeat of his 32 pro fights.

In 1958 Harris lost a 12th round TKO in a Los Angeles title fight to former champion Floyd Patterson.

Harris said he was surprised when Webb stopped the fight.

"But I wasn't doing anything but getting up and down," he said as an afterthought.

North-South Amateur Play Opens Today

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Reports that the field for the 60th North and South Amateur Golf Tournament was the strongest in history with no clear-cut favorite were not exaggerated.

Match play began today for the 64 survivors of Monday's qualifying round that had veteran observers searching the records for its equal. They couldn't find another like it, at least through the last 10 years.

When the record field of 145 finished 11 hours of combat, the usually unyeilding 7,007-yard No. 2 course of the Pinehurst Country Club had been subjected to a thorough going over by the field that included 115 players with a 2 handicap or less. Ten men bettered par 72 and four others equalled it, despite the steaming 90-degree heat.

For the five previous years, a total of only 10 men broke par on qualifying day.

It took a score of 77 or better to survive for today's 32 first round matches. In each of the two previous years 81 was good enough to make the grade.

Herb Durham of Dallas, Tex., a surprise finalist two years ago, when he lost to Dick Chapman 11 and 10, was the hottest shooter of them all with a five-under 33-34—67.

He was one shot ahead of John Geunther of Reading, Pa. Another shot back was Frank Strafaci of Miami, Fla., who won back to back North and South titles in 1938-39.

Tied at 70 were Bob Cochran of St. Louis, a semi-finalist last year, and Young Pat Foy Brady of Reidsville, N.C.

Two rounds Wednesday will be followed by single rounds Thursday and Friday with the 36-hole finals Saturday.

South Side Scores 10-8 Win Over Beaver Local

South Side took advantage of eight Beaver Local errors to come out on top, 10-8, Monday at the Beaver Local field.

The Beavers jumped off to a 5-0 lead with three runs in the first inning and two more in the second.

The roof fell in during the third frame when South Side pushed across six runs and then added one in the fourth inning.

Beaver Local came back to tie the score at 7-7 in the fifth, but a three-run sixth inning wrapped up the victory for the visitors.

Norm Luther, who relieved Brooks, was credited with the victory while Tom Shallenberger, one of four Beaver Local hurlers, was checked with the loss.

The Beavers outhit South Side, 8-5, but the loose defense was costly.

Beaver Local travels to Chester Thursday.

Arcaro Won't Accept Mount In Derby Just For The Ride

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP) — Eddie Arcaro wants very much to ride in the Kentucky Derby May 7. But the 44-year-old winner of five derbies doesn't intend to accept any mount just to say he has ridden in 21 derbies.

"I love to win the derby," said the veteran jockey as he relaxed at home after a round of golf today. "I'd give anything in the world to win it again but there is no kick in going along just for the ride. After all I've ridden in 21 or has it been only 20?"

Eddie hasn't been without a derby mount since 1943. His last winner was Hill Gail in 1952. His first mount was Nellie Flag, a filly who finished fourth in 1935. His over-all record is five winners, three seconds, two thirds, five fourths, one fifth, three sixths and one eighth.

Arcaro was left without a derby mount when Warfare, 1959 two year old champion and future book favorite, was sidelined with a leg injury.

If he has a mount this year in all likelihood it will be Never Give In from Mrs. Elizabeth Graham's Maine Chance Farm. Arcaro rode the chestnut son of English Derby winner Never Say Die to an easy victory in a 6-furlong race April 9 at Aqueduct.

O'Toole To Duel Spahn As Redlegs Tackle Milwaukee

CINCINNATI (AP)—It was only about $50,000 ago that Jim O'Toole was sitting in University of Wisconsin classrooms, aiming for a business career.

Now he's a pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds. The money was the bonus the team had to pay to get him. Some dividends are coming through for the Reds.

That's why O'Toole is starting tonight against the formidable Milwaukee Braves and peerless pitcher Warren Spahn.

Jim says he desperately needed confidence, but didn't get it until after his freshman year in the big leagues last season.

"I worried about my control," the southpaw said. "Winter ball helped me achieve control."

Winning the Reds' opener in relief against Philadelphia this year probably did a lot for O'Toole's confidence, too.

He said he started out pitching for spots in that opening game, and "it cost me a couple of walks and a hit batsman.

"Then I decided just to throw the ball. I just dared 'em to hit me. I think my change pitch helped me too."

Brodt New B-G Track, Cross Country Coach

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP—Bowling Green State University announced today the selection of Melvin E. Brodt to be its head track and cross country coach starting with the 1960-61 school year. Brodt is now head track coach at Cleveland John Adams High School and president of the Ohio Assn. of Track Coaches.

In taking over the combined new position, Brodt will succeed Robert H. Whittaker as track coach and Dr. David O. Matthews as cross country coach.

Brodt, 34, was a standout track and cross country star at Miami (Ohio) University. Under his guidance, John Adams won state track championships in 1953 and 1956, and state cross country titles in 1954 and 1959.

Two Riders Draw Suspensions At Wheeling Downs

By The Associated Press

Jockeys Francisco Saumell and Ray Belanger, all-time leaders in winners at Wheeling Downs, have been suspended at the Wheeling track for 10 days each effective Tuesday through May 5.

The stewards at Wheeling Downs said Saumell was meted the punishment for careless riding aboard True Request in the eighth race last Friday. They said films showed a jockey on another horse in the race was unseated because of Saumell's riding.

Belanger was suspended because of an "indifferent ride" on Flaming Pincher in the sixth race April 16, the stewards reported.

Saumell was gunning for his sixth riding title at Wheeling. He had 10 winners, four more than his nearest rival.

Shenandoah Downs, a night time horse racing plant at Charles Town, had the highest percentage of winning favorits for any track in the East through last Friday's action. Forty-eight per cent of the public choices had gotten home ahead going into Saturday night's program, Triangle Publications, Inc., reported.

Ankrim, McNutt Share Honors In Weekend Golfing

Norm Ankrum and Bill McNutt shared honors in weekend golf which opened the 1960 season at the East Liverpool Country Club.

Both golfers fired a 32 to tie in Sunday's selective nine-hole event which saw Dr. R. J. Kinsey, R. T. McDaniel and Art Lynch shooting 32's.

F. J. Cloran's 33 topped Sunday's second division.

Bill Pickin was the winner of Saturday's par-birdie-eagle contest. Pickin shot a 20, while M. W. Thompson and J. S. Probst finished with 18's, and W. B. Cooper and J. W. Batey completed the round with 17 each.

Okey Ludwig fired a 21 to win the second division.

Giants Nip St. Louis, 9-8; Share NL Lead With Pittsburgh

The Review Sports

TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 1960 EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW PAGE 14

MIDLAND Presentation parochial athletes, both basketball and football, were honored with a dinner and awards Monday evening by Knights of Columbus, Council 2005, in the lyceum of Presentation Catholic Church. Some 115 attended. Left to right are Louis Bruno, grand knight; Ivan Toncic, Pittsburgh University quarterback and former Presentation student; David Torres; Fr. Robert Garland, athletic director, and Sam Zigerelli. Both Torres and Zigerelli are eighth graders. Some 15 eighth graders were presented jackets and 20 others letters by Fr. Garland. John Petchel, teacher at Lincoln High and football coach from 1951 through last season, was presented a plaque by Bruno, on behalf of the Council, for his sportsmanship and outstanding leadership.

Score Five Runs In Eighth Inning

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

That's really a sophomore jinx riding Willie McCovey of the San Francisco Giants. The big first baseman is batting a mere .184—but six of his seven hits have been for extra bases. Four of them have been homers and he is tied for the National League runs-batted-in lead with 13.

The jinx? He can't hit singles.

Willie, Rookie of the Year in the NL when he batted .354 in 52 games last season, put across four RBI Monday night with his one-on homer capping a five-run eighth inning that beat St. Louis 9-8.

It was the only game scheduled in the NL and hoisted the Giants back into a first-place tie with Pittsburgh.

In the American League, Bud Daley's three-hitter and four unearned runs in the fourth gave Kansas City a 6-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox and Herb Score. Baltimore ended its slump at five, defeating Washington 3-2 on Jim Gentile's three-run homer in the first inning.

McCovey, 22, was the big gun as the Giants overhauled a 5-1 Cardinal lead. His only single in 38 times at bat counted two of the Giants three seventh-inning runs against starter Wilmer Mizell. In the eighth, singles by ex-Card Don Blasingame and Willie Mays accounted for three runs before McCovey unloaded with the clincher off losing reliever Bob Duliba (1-2).

That made it 9-7 San Francisco before pinch-hitter Carl Sawatski hammered the Cards' fourth home run of the game, off reliever Ray Monzant. Ex-Giant Daryl Spencer, connected with two on against starter Mike McCormick; Stan Musial and Ken Boyer also homered for the Cards, who now have hit home runs in all 10 of their games.

Boyer, tied with McCovey and Pittsburgh's Bob Skinner for the RBI lead, hit his No. 6 home run, tops in the majors and his fourth in three games. It was off winning reliever Johnny Antonelli (1-0), who gave up two runs in his lone inning.

Jim Davenport, also homered for the Giants, who have hit 11 and have scored 41 runs in their last four games.

Chicago Drops 4th Straight

Score Runs Into Trouble In First Start For Sox

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Add yet another disappointment for Herb Score.

The tough luck guy, making his 1960 debut in his first game with the Chicago White Sox, ran into Hank Bauer's home run bat, four unearned runs and a dandy, three-hit pitching job by Bud Daley for a 6-1 setback at Kansas City Monday night.

It was the seventh straight loss since last July for the troubled young southpaw. It was the fourth in a row for the American League champion White Sox.

The defeat dropped the Sox to sixth, 3½ games behind idle, unbeaten Detroit, while Kansas City climbed into a third-place tie with Washington. The Senators lost 3-2 to the Baltimore Orioles, who had dropped five straight, in the only other AL game.

In the only National League game, San Francisco scored five in the eighth inning, capped by Willie McCovey's two-run homer, and climbed back into a first-place tie with Pittsburgh by beating St. Louis 9-8.

Score, 26, who has won only 11 since being felled by a line drive in 1957, now has missed in 10 starts since putting away his last victory—an 8-4 decision at Kansas City last July 3. He walked five, but struck out three and had allowed only two hits through three innings. One was Bauer's third-inning home run that tied it 1-all.

Then came the fourth, and five Kansas City runs.

Bob Johnson singled and rookie Ken Hamlin followed with what looked like a doubleplay ball. But shortstop Luis Aparicio threw it away. Johnson scored the lead run and the A's were on their way. Four more singles got Score (0-1) out of the game and reliever Mike Garcia gave up another.

Turk Lown and Gerry Staley blanked the A's on two hits the rest of the way, but the champs were down with their fourth defeat in six games.

Two walks and Jim Gentile's two-out home run, his first in the AL, beat right-hander Russ Kemmerer (0-1) and the Senators in the first inning at Washington. Milt Pappas (1-0) allowed five hits on Don Mincher's first major league run, and struck out seven for his sixth in a row over the Nats since Aug. 10, 1958.

Gordon Has Confidence

Hawkins To Get Another Chance Today At Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Cleveland manager Joe Gordon thinks 24-year-old rookie Wynn Hawkins, who goes against Detroit today, may be just the man to bring the high-flying Tigers down to earth.

Although Hawkins lasted only three innings in his major league debut against Kansas City Friday, Gordon said "Hawk's fork ball will give them trouble if he gets it over."

A fork ball is a breaking pitch, slower than a slider.

"Except for a couple of bad pitches, I though he did a good job in Kansas City," the Indians' manager added.

Jim Bunning (0-0) is Detroit manager Jimmy Dykes' choice to oppose Hawkins as the undefeated Tigers try to make it six in a row.

Harvey Kuenn, 1959 American League batting champ the Indians got from Detroit in a trade for Rocky Colavito, will remain on the sidelines unless called on to pinch-hit. Kuenn has been out since the first game a week ago, when he suffered a pulled leg muscle.

He is expected to return to the lineup Thursday night when the Indians play the White Sox in Chicago. The Indians, idle Monday have another off day Wednesday.

The schedule gives Gordon a chance to use Gary Bell against the White Sox. Bell blanked Kansas City Sunday, giving the Indians their only victory in the young season.

Burbick Paces ELHS Golfers

East Liverpool High's golfers swing against Beaver Local and Columbiana this afternoon at 3:15 at the Country Club course in search of their second triumph of the season.

The Potters sport a 1-1 record after losing to Steubenville Central Catholic, 8½-4½, Monday afternoon at Steubenville.

Craig Burbick won low medalist honors by caring a three over par 38 in match play. Behind him were Bob Putt with a 40, Sam Hughes with 43 and Rick Crable with 44.

Errors Are Costly

Potters Bumped Again, 5-2

Toronto, taking advantage of East Liverpool's loose play in the field, scored four runs in the last two innings and handed the Potters a 5-2 setback Monday afternoon at Patterson Field.

The loss was East Liverpool's seventh in eight starts. The Blue and White committed five errors in Monday's game, running their total of miscues to 37 in eight contests.

Toronto drew first blood with one run in the second inning, but East Liverpool came back to tie the count at 1-1 in the third frame.

Two runs in the sixth and two more in the seventh swung the decision toward Toronto.

Dave Pennybaker, receiving his first starting assignment, checked Toronto with only two hits for five innings. Jim Miles took over in the sixth when his teammates committed four errors in the two frames.

Toronto collected six hits with Kestner's two safeties leading the way.

Wadas pitched a neat three-hitter and struck out 12 Potter batters. Loose fielding also accounted for East Liverpool's two runs as the Red Knights committed seven errors.

Kenny Miller, Miles and Dave Zelch collected East Liverpool's three hits.

Two Riders Draw Suspensions At Wheeling Downs

By The Associated Press

Jockeys Francisco Saumell and Ray Belanger, all-time leaders in winners at Wheeling Downs, have been suspended at the Wheeling track for 10 days each effective Tuesday through May 5.

The stewards at Wheeling Downs said Saumell was meted the punishment for careless riding aboard True Request in the eighth race last Friday. They said films showed a jockey on another horse in the race was unseated because of Saumell's riding.

Belanger was suspended because of an "indifferent ride" on Flaming Pincher in the sixth race April 16, the stewards reported.

Saumell was gunning for his sixth riding title at Wheeling. He had 10 winners, four more than his nearest rival.

Shenandoah Downs, a night time horse racing plant at Charles Town, had the highest percentage of winning favorits for any track in the East through last Friday's action. Forty-eight per cent of the public choices had gotten home ahead going into Saturday night's program, Triangle Publications, Inc., reported.

Liston Wastes Little Time With Roy Harris

By MAX B. SKELTON

It took the big Philadelphia heavyweight just 2:35 of the first round Monday night to score a technical knockout over the Cut and Shoot schoolteacher before a record Texas crowd and closed circuit TV fans in 10 other cities.

Harris just barely had time to get in three left jabs to the nose before he was in trouble.

A left hook was the damaging blow. Harris took an eight count under the ropes. More of a push than a punch quickly brought another eight count. Then Harris slipped and fell to the canvas and Liston was ready for the kill.

Liston cut loose with a right that caught Harris squarely on the chin.

Referee Jimmy Webb did not take time to start counting. He just raised Liston's hand.

"It was my easiest fight," the Philadelphia Negro said after extending his record to 29-1 and recording his 20th knockout.

"He's a better puncher than Patterson," said Harris in taking his second defeat of his 32 pro fights.

In 1958 Harris lost a 12th round TKO in a Los Angeles title fight to former champion Floyd Patterson.

Harris said he was surprised when Webb stopped the fight.

"But I wasn't doing anything but getting up and down," he said as an afterthought.

North-South Amateur Play Opens Today

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Reports that the field for the 60th North and South Amateur Golf Tournament was the strongest in history with no clear-cut favorite were not exaggerated.

Match play began today for the 64 survivors of Monday's qualifying round that had veteran observers searching the records for its equal. They couldn't find another like it, at least through the last 10 years.

When the record field of 145 finished 11 hours of combat, the usually unyielding 7,007-yard No. 2 course of the Pinehurst Country Club had been subjected to a thorough going over by the field that included 115 players with a 2 handicap or less. Ten men bettered par 72 and four others equalled it, deepite the steaming 90-degree heat.

For the five previous years, a total of only 10 men broke par on qualifying day.

It took a score of 77 or better to survive for today's 32 first round matches. In each of the two previous years 81 was good enough to make the grade.

Herb Durham of Dallas, Tex., a surprise finalist two years ago, when he lost to Dick Chapman 11 and 10, was the hottest shooter of them all with a five-under 33-34—67.

He was one shot ahead of John Geunther of Reading, Pa. Another shot back was Frank Strafaci of Miami, Fla., who won back to back North and South titles in 1938-39.

Tied at 70 were Bob Cochran of St. Louis, a semi-finalist last year, and Young Pat Foy Brady of Reidsville, N.C.

Two rounds Wednesday will be followed by single rounds Thursday and Friday with the 36-hole finals Saturday.

South Side Scores 10-8 Win Over Beaver Local

South Side took advantage of eight Beaver Local errors to come out on top, 10-8, Monday at the Beaver Local field.

The Beavers jumped off to a 5-0 lead with three runs in the first inning and two more in the second.

The roof fell in during the third frame when South Side pushed across six runs and then added one in the fourth inning.

Beaver Local came back to tie the score at 7-7 in the fifth, but a three-run sixth inning wrapped up the victory for the visitors.

Norm Luther, who relieved Brooks, was credited with the victory while Tom Shallenberger, one of four Beaver Local hurlers, was checked with the loss.

Paul Luther paced South Side's five-hit attack with two singles while Beaver Local's Dick Barnhart clicked with a 3-for-4 day at the plate and Dave Myer clubbed a triple for the only extra base hit.

The Beavers outhit South Side, 8-5, but the loose defense was costly.

Beaver Local travels to Chester Thursday.

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP) — Eddie Arcaro wants very much to ride in the Kentucky Derby May 7. But the 44-year-old winner of five derbies doesn't intend to accept any mount just to say he has ridden in 21 derbies.

"I love to win the derby," said the veteran jockey as he relaxed at home after a round of golf today. "I'd give anything in the world to win it again but there is no kick in going along just for the ride. After all I've ridden in 21 or has it been only 20?"

Eddie hasn't been without a derby mount since 1943. His last winner was Hill Gail in 1952. His first mount was Nellie Flag, a filly who finished fourth in 1935. His over-all record is five winners, three seconds, two thirds, five fourths, one fifth, three sixths and one eighth.

Arcaro was left without a derby mount when Warfare, 1959 two year old champion and future book favorite, was sidelined with a leg injury.

If he has a mount this year in all likelihood it will be Never Give In from Mrs. Elizabeth Graham's Maine Chance Farm. Arcaro rode the chestnut son of English Derby winner Never Say Die to an easy victory in a 6-furlong race April 9 at Aqueduct.

Now he's a pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds. The money was the bonus the team had to pay to get him. Some dividends are coming through for the Reds.

That's why O'Toole is starting tonight against the formidable Milwaukee Braves and peerless pitcher Warren Spahn.

Jim says he desperately needed confidence, but didn't get it until after his freshman year in the big leagues last season.

"I worried about my control," the southpaw said. "Winter ball helped me achieve control."

Winning the Reds' opener in relief against Philadelphia this year probably did a lot for O'Toole's confidence, too.

He said he started out pitching for spots in that opening game, and "it cost me a couple of walks and a hit batsman.

"Then I decided just to throw the ball. I just dared 'em to hit me. I think my change pitch helped me too."

Brodt New B-G Track, Cross Country Coach

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP—Bowling Green State University announced today the selection of Melvin E. Brodt to be its head track and cross country coach starting with the 1960-61 school year. Brodt is now head track coach at Cleveland John Adams High School and president of the Ohio Assn. of Track Coaches.

In taking over the combined new position, Brodt will succeed Robert H. Whittaker as track coach and Dr. David O. Matthews as cross country coach.

Brodt, 34, was a standout track and cross country star at Miami (Ohio) University. Under his guidance, John Adams won state track championships in 1953 and 1956, and state cross country titles in 1954 and 1959.

Ankrim, McNutt Share Honors In Weekend Golfing

Norm Ankrum and Bill McNutt shared honors in weekend golf which opened the 1960 season at the East Liverpool Country Club.

Both golfers fired a 32 to tie in Sunday's selective nine-hole event which saw Dr. R. J. Kinsey, R. T. McDaniel and Art Lynch shooting 32's.

F. J. Cloran's 33 topped Sunday's second division.

Bill Pickin was the winner of Saturday's par-birdie-eagle contest. Pickin shot a 20, while M. W. Thompson and J. S. Probst finished with 18's, and W. B. Cooper and J. W. Batey completed the round with 17 each.

Okey Ludwig fired a 21 to win the second division.

Black Hawks' Hay Sweeps Rookie Honors

MONTREAL (AP) — Bill (Red) Hay of the Chicago Black Hawks swept past all contenders this season to win the National Hockey League's rookie-of-the-year award.

The 24-year-old center picked up 139 points out of a possible 180 to win the coveted Calder memorial trophy, presented annually to "the player selected as the most proficient in his first year of competition in the National Hockey League."

He will receive $1,000 from the league.

Spahn Shouts 'More Work'

CINCINNATI (AP) — Milwaukee's Warren Spahn, probably the highest paid hurler in the National League, wants to earn his salary.

"I need more work," the 39-year-old veteran southpaw said today as he awaited impatiently for the start of a two-game series between the Braves and the Cincinnati Reds tonight. "I can't stand these long layoffs. I'm not getting the least bit panicky but I've become convinced I've got to work more."

Spahn was scheduled to start on the mound for the Braves tonight, facing Jim O'Toole, former University of Wisconsin hurler. It will be Spahn's first start since last Wednesday when he failed for the second time this year to go the distance. His only other start was in the opening game at Milwaukee when he went seven innings before being lifted.

"The last time I pitched in Milwaukee I was the wildest I've been in 10 years," Spahn said. "I just have to work more often to get my control back."

Spahn said he wasn't blaming Manager Charlie Dressen or not getting enough work. He said the quirks in the schedule and the frequent off days this month had a lot to do with his idleness.

Ohio's Spring Program Gets Down To Business

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — All over Ohio 43,779 high school youngsters are running, jumping or throwing balls of various kinds.

They are the varsity athletes on the track-field, baseball, tennis and golf teams—the best of which will gather here May 27-28 for the state scholastic championships.

Only a few of them will make it here for the big title tests, and only a few of those who do can grab the crowns.

Sectional and district qualifiers are scheduled on a far-flung front, starting May 7, to weed out the less capable.

Of the state's 993 high schools, 750 have track teams made up of 22,489 boys, 862 have 17,245 boys on baseball teams, 262 boast golf squads with total 2,609 boys, and 142 have tennis teams made up of 1,436 youngsters.

Prior to the sectional and district eliminations, the four-ply spring sports program will feature hundreds of games and meets. Track, on a state championship basis, heads into its second half-century since the May meet here is the 51st.

Here's the setup for the sectional-district meets:

TRACK-FIELD

BASEBALL

Defending champions: Cincinnati Elder in Class AA, Northwestern of Wayne County in Class A. Qualifying tournaments for the 33rd state meet scheduled May 7-21 at Columbus, Bridgeport, Dover, Steubenville, Philo, Martins Ferry, Cambridge, Cleveland, Akron, Barberton, Youngstown, Canton, Berea, Warren, Lima, Defiance, Fremont, Mansfield, Swanton, Perrysburg, Toledo, Bettsville, Clyde, Holgate, North Robinson, Sycamore, Wauseon, Kalida, New Knoxville, Athens, Piqua, Dayton, Cincinnati and Oxford.

GOLF

Defending champions: Shaker Heights, team, and Earl Weiss, Shaker Heights, individual. Qualifying tournaments for 34th state meet scheduled May 20-21 at Columbus, St. Clairsville, Cleveland, Kent, Lima, Mansfield, Swanton, Toledo, Wellston, Dayton Cincinnati, Troy and Oxford.

TENNIS

Defending champions: Clark Graebner, Lakewood, singles, and James Guest-Larry Stark, Elyria doubles. Qualifying matches for 41st state tourney scheduled May 14-21 at Columbus, Cleveland, Akron, Bowling Green, Lima, Mansfield, Sandusky, Dayton and Cincinnati.

'Bring On Champ,' Hank Yells After Stopping Calhoun

By ALAN CLINE
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bring on the champ, middleweight Henry Hank hollered today after knocking out Rory Calhoun in the second round of a scheduled 10.

"If Gene Fullmer will fight me, I'll have the championship," said Hank, a cocky, 25-year-old Detroit battler.

But he acknowledged he'll fight anybody good for a fat payday. Matchmaker Bennie Ford said he'd try to get either Spider Webb or Dick Tiger to meet Hank here.

Hank, winning his 7th straight and 42nd fight, dropped Calhoun in the first round Monday night with a left hook to the head. Calhoun took the mandatory eight count, the last five on his feet.

They slugged it out in the second and for a while Rory, from White Plains, N. Y., was getting the better of it. But Hank unleashed a barrage climaxed by a devastating left hook. Then a left-right combination to the head put Calhoun on the Cow Palace deck.

He got up, but was too wobbly to stay up. Referee Vern Bybee gave him a helping hand and called a halt at 2:50.

The fight was officially scored a knockout.

Browns Add Placekicker

CLEVELAND (AP) — Coach Paul E. Brown, whose Cleveland Browns were a poor last in punting when final National Football League statistics were posted last year, hopes he has licked that problem with the acquisition of Sam Baker.

The veteran Baker, 29, averaged 42.9 yards per kick in five years with the Washington Redskins. A place-kicking specialist also, he handled all the kicking chores at Washington, and has led the squad in scoring for four years.

Brown said he was "tickled with the deal" Monday that brought Baker here in exchange for young linemen Francis O'Brien and Bob Khayat.

"We gave up youth to get an experienced pro player who fills a weakness," said Brown. "The 'Skins have another good punter in Eagle Day and Khayat is a place kicker."

Washington coach Mike Nixon needed to strengthen his offensive line, and he suggested the trade after the club got into a salary dispute with Baker.

Brown said he talked to Baker at his home in Tacoma, Wash., and found the former Orgeon State fullback agreeable to the terms he proposed.

The status of Lou (the Toe) Groza will not be changed by the acquisition of Baker, Brown said.

"There will be competition in place kicking, of course, but Groza also can be valuable at offensive tackle," Brown said.

The Browns have had a kicking problem since Horace Gillom retired in 1956. Since then, Brown has used Kenny Konz, Junior Wren, Dick Deschaine and Jim Shofner as punters, but none has been able to do an entirely satisfactory job.

Baker totaled 51 points last year, with 10 field goals in 22 tries and 21 extra points in 22 tries. Groza, who is 35, made five field goals in 16 tries and 33 extra points in 37 tries for a total of 48 points.

O'Brien was used as a fill-in at offensive tackle last season. Khayat was picked in the sixth round of the last draft. He was a guard with Mississippi's Sugar Bowl champions.

FIGHT RESULTS

Black Hawks' Hay Sweeps Rookie Honors

MONTREAL (AP) — Bill (Red) Hay of the Chicago Black Hawks swept past all contenders this season to win the National Hockey League's rookie-of-the-year award.

The 24-year-old center picked up 139 points out of a possible 180 to win the coveted Calder memorial trophy, presented annually to "the player selected as the most proficient in his first year of competition in the National Hockey League."

He will receive $1,000 from the league.

Spahn Shouts 'More Work'

CINCINNATI (AP) — Milwaukee's Warren Spahn, probably the highest paid hurler in the National League, wants to earn his salary.

"I need more work," the 39-year-old veteran southpaw said today as he awaited impatiently for the start of a two-game series between the Braves and the Cincinnati Reds tonight. "I can't stand these long layoffs. I'm not getting the least bit panicky but I've become convinced I've got to work more."

Spahn was scheduled to start on the mound for the Braves tonight, facing Jim O'Toole, former University of Wisconsin hurler. It will be Spahn's first start since last Wednesday when he failed for the second time this year to go the distance. His only other start was in the opening game at Milwaukee when he went seven innings before being lifted.

"The last time I pitched in Milwaukee I was the wildest I've been in 10 years," Spahn said. "I just have to work more often to get my control back."

Spahn said he wasn't blaming Manager Charlie Dressen for not getting enough work. He said the quirks in the schedule and the frequent off days this month had a lot to do with his idleness.

Ohio's Spring Program Gets Down To Business

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — All over Ohio 43,779 high school youngsters are running, jumping or throwing balls of various kinds.

They are the varsity athletes on the track-field, baseball, tennis and golf teams—the best of which will gather here May 27-28 for the state scholastic championships.

Only a few of them will make it here for the big title tests, and only a few of those who do can grab the crowns.

Sectional and district qualifiers are scheduled on a far-flung front, starting May 7, to weed out the less capable.

Of the state's 993 high schools, 750 have track teams made up of 22,489 boys, 862 have 17,245 boys on baseball teams, 262 boast golf squads with total 2,609 boys, and 142 have tennis teams made up of 1,436 youngsters.

Prior to the sectional and district eliminations, the four-ply spring sports program will feature hundreds of games and meets. Track, on a state championship basis, heads into its second half-century since the May meet here is the 51st.

Here's the setup for the sectional-district meets:

TRACK-FIELD

BASEBALL

Defending champions: Cincinnati Elder in Class AA, Northwestern of Wayne County in Class A. Qualifying tournaments for the 33rd state meet scheduled May 7-21 at Columbus, Bridgeport, Dover, Steubenville, Philo, Martins Ferry, Cambridge, Cleveland, Akron, Barberton, Youngstown, Canton, Berea, Warren, Lima, Defiance, Fremont, Mansfield, Swanton, Perrysburg, Toledo, Bettsville, Clyde, Holgate, North Robinson, Sycamore, Wauseon, Kalida, New Knoxville, Athens, Piqua, Dayton, Cincinnati and Oxford.

GOLF

Defending champions: Shaker Heights, team, and Earl Weiss, Shaker Heights, individual. Qualifying tournaments for 34th state meet scheduled May 20-21 at Columbus, St. Clairsville, Cleveland, Kent, Lima, Mansfield, Swanton, Toledo, Wellston, Dayton Cincinnati, Troy and Oxford.

TENNIS

'Bring On Champ,' Hank Yells After Stopping Calhoun

By ALAN CLINE
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bring on the champ, middleweight Henry Hank hollered today after knocking out Rory Calhoun in the second round of a scheduled 10.

"If Gene Fullmer will fight me, I'll have the championship," said Hank, a cocky, 25-year-old Detroit battler.

But he acknowledged he'll fight anybody good for a fat payday. Matchmaker Bennie Ford said he'd try to get either Spider Webb or Dick Tiger to meet Hank here.

Hank, winning his 7th straight and 42nd fight, dropped Calhoun in the first round Monday night with a left hook to the head. Calhoun took the mandatory eight count, the last five on his feet.

They slugged it out in the second and for a while Rory, from White Plains, N. Y., was getting the better of it. But Hank unleashed a barrage climaxed by a devastating left hook. Then a left-right combination to the head put Calhoun on the Cow Palace deck.

He got up, but was too wobbly to stay up. Referee Vern Bybee gave him a helping hand and called a halt at 2:50.

The fight was officially scored a knockout.

Browns Add Placekicker

CLEVELAND (AP) — Coach Paul E. Brown, whose Cleveland Browns were a poor last in punting when final National Football League statistics were posted last year, hopes he has licked that problem with the acquisition of Sam Baker.

The veteran Baker, 29, averaged 42.9 yards per kick in five years with the Washington Redskins. A place-kicking specialist also, he handled all the kicking chores at Washington, and has led the squad in scoring for four years.

Brown said he was "tickled with the deal" Monday that brought Baker here in exchange for young linemen Francis O'Brien and Bob Khayat.

"We gave up youth to get an experienced pro player who fills a weakness," said Brown. "The 'Skins have another good punter in Eagle Day and Khayat is a place kicker."

Washington coach Mike Nixon needed to strengthen his offensive line, and he suggested the trade after the club got into a salary dispute with Baker.

Brown said he talked to Baker at his home in Tacoma, Wash., and found the former Orgeon State fullback agreeable to the terms he proposed.

The status of Lou (the Toe) Groza will not be changed by the acquisition of Baker, Brown said.

"There will be competition in place kicking, of course, but Groza also can be valuable at offensive tackle," Brown said.

The Browns have had a kicking problem since Horace Gillom retired in 1956. Since then, Brown has used Kenny Konz, Junior Wren, Dick Deschaine and Jim Shofner as punters, but none has been able to do an entirely satisfactory job.

Baker totaled 51 points last year, with 10 field goals in 22 tries and 21 extra points in 22 tries. Groza, who is 35, made five field goals in 16 tries and 33 extra points in 37 tries for a total of 48 points.

O'Brien was used as a fill-in at offensive tackle last season. Khayat was picked in the sixth round of the last draft. He was a guard with Mississippi's Sugar Bowl champions.

FIGHT RESULTS

San Francisco — Henry Hank, 163, Detroit, knocked out Rory Calhoun, 163, White Plains, N. Y., 2.

Houston, Tex. — Sonny Liston, 212½, Philadelphia stopped Roy Harris, 195, Cut and Shoot, Tex., 1.

Miami Beach, Fla. — Freddie Blades, 180, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., stopped Alvin Green, 177, Tyler, Tex., 4.

Milwaukee — Billy Braggs, 135, Milwaukee, defeated Andero Gonzales, 137, Pittsburgh, 6.

Child Learns Discipline In Infancy

A well-disciplined adult keeps himself from doing what he knows he shouldn't and makes himself do what he's sure he sould. He got that way during all his years from infancy through childhood and adolescence. Gradually, from his early years, he acquired self - control and self - discipline by respecting and fulfilling the limitations and requirements of his parents, other adults and other children. Discipline, of course, does not consist solely of restraints and requirements. These are just among the many essentials. The child, say from two to five, is most effectively restrained when there are available approved things he is likely to do with satisfaction. Also, his accommodation to a requirement is in proportion to its inevitability, its decreasing discomfort and his increasing satisfaction from doing it.

By Garry Meyer.

THE WELL-DISCIPLINED child, two to five, respects No as final, consequently he rarely hears this word. From the few specific forbiddings he does get, he turns to satisfying experiences and finds more and more enjoyable things to do.

He respects the rights and possessions of other persons, accommodates easily to family routines and regulations, does for himself what he is able to do, amuses himself well and finds abundant fun with other children of his age. He feels happy and acts that way nearly all the time. He does not have marked angers, jealousies, fears or worries.

As he grows older, say from 6 to 12, the well - disciplined child respects decisive limitations and faithfully fulfills all requirements. He conforms well to family regulations, respects authority and the rights, possessions and feelings of other persons.

He not only does for himself what he is able to do but also does the few regular jobs assigned, which he begins and finishes almost wholly under his own supervsion, however distasteful these jobs are.

HE GETS PRACTICE at sticking to the job and working hard, whether physically or mentally. In the absence of his parents, he goes on doing or not doing what he had practiced doing or not doing in their presence. He learns creative fun, co-operation at play and work, and takes increasing responsibility for his own behavior.

When he reaches his teens, the well-disciplined child evinces self-control and mastery of his emotions. He rarely needs to be bossed. He proves himself worthy of the freedom he enjoys.

He has acquired a high regard for the rights and feelings of others and the preciousness of another's person. He dares to be different from the light of moral values and just consequences.

He has a strong urge to exert effort and to work hard to attain worthy goals, even though remote.

He bears responsibility well, especially when it requires doing what he doesn't feel like doing. He is able to say comfortably and effectively what he wants to say.

Appetite Enlarges With Overeating

"How did this enormous appetite fasten itself on me?" a perplexed overweight demands to know.

Habital overeating enlarges one's food capacity. The stomach is a muscular organ that can expand to make room for the size meal that comes its way. It can, with practice, be stretched to accommodate an enormous quantity of food. To get the picture, think of the stomach as being comparable to a balloon. After a balloon has been inflated over and over again, when deflated it never seems to shrink back to original size. While this is a very rough comparison, it gives the general idea.

By Ida Jean Kain

Fullness, or a feeling of having had enough to eat, is thought to be caused by the tension exerted from within on the circular muscle fibers of the stomach.

WITH THE ENLARGED stomach more food is required to fill the capacious space and exert the tension that signifies fullness.

When the satiety signal is repeatedly ignored, as it is all too often in the face of delicious dishes, appetitie gradually gets out of control. Also, the appetite built up during active years when the food is needed fails to diminish as fuel requirements lessen. That's because food tastes so good.

How does one begin to shrink the appetite down to reducing size? Of first importance, build every meal around a complete protein food. Not only does protein stick to the ribs, but because of its specific dynamic action, protein creates a comforting warmth which in turn produces a satiety signal...nature's way of signifying fullness.

Another effective measure in controlling the appetite is to deliberately get up from the table while you could still eat more. Thirty minutes later you will feel content.

One dietier who succeeded in losing 100 excess pounds explained; "It took three weeks of getting up from the table slightly hungry before I was convinced that I would not feel hungry all afternoon or all evening."

Physiologically here is what happens: Within 30 minutes after the meal is finished, the system is getting the energy from the food eaten. This contributes to satisfaction and to that nice feeling of well-being.

DIETERS, BE assured that when you get up from the table feeling less than content, you will not feel dissatisfied for long. Thirty minutes later you will feel quite content.

With practice, thirty days later you will be 10 pounds lighter. Moreover you will have cut your appetite down to size. How to keep the appetite curbed? Never deliberately overeat and stretch the stomach for this tends to increase food capacity and appetite.

Send a long, self - addressed, stamped envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Social Security Units Clarified

To qualify for Social Security benefits at retirement, how many work units will you need?

"Most people don't know", William J. McCauley, Youngstown's Social Security manager, commented today. Many don't even know there is such a requirement, while others mistakenly think they can qualify for payments with only a year or two of work.

"Most people need several years of credit," McCauley continued, "and the chances are, you will too." The exact number you will need depends on when you reach retirement age; 62 for women, 65 for men. People reaching retirement age now need 4½ years of earnings. Young people will need more. For example, anyone now under age 54 will need 10 years—the maximum.

Since payments in the future depend on your earnings now, it's important that you receive all credits due. If you work for wages, you should be certain your employer reports them with your correct Social Security number. If you are self - employed, you should be careful to use your correct social security number on your tax return.

For additional information about the number of credits needed to qualify for Social Security benefits, get in touch with the Youngstown Social Security Office at 123 W. Commerce St. The phone is RIverside 4-8961. Ask for the free pamphlet entitled, "Social Security Credits," at the local Post Office quarters of the Social Security representative.

14 Marksmen Get Awards At Elkton

LISBON — Fourteen prizes were given when over 50 shooters competed in a ham shoot held Sunday by the Columbiana County Fish and Game Association at its range southeast of Elkton.

Plans are underway for a small and large bore rifle shoot which will include events for muzzle - loading rifles. The date will be announced later.

Richard Mason, secretary, said the range will be closed next Sunday as the Salem Army Reserve tank corps will use it for a training program.

2 Ohio Newspaper Boys Receive Awards

CLEVELAND (AP) — Awards and checks for $100 were handed to two Ohio newspaper boys Monday night at the banquet of the Ohio Circulation Managers Assn.

The Glenn L. Cox achievement awards went to Ronald Lawrence of the Middletown Journal and Richard J. Van Drew of the Toledo Blade. They were chosen on the basis of newspaper route work, scholastic activities and personal achievement.

Noted Doctor Dies

Wellsville Boy Injured In Tumble From Swing

Kenneth Buckel, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Buckel, 202 18th St., Wellsville, is in "good" condition today at Osteopathic Hospital with a possible fracture of the left arm suffered in a fall from a swing.

Mark Welch, 4, of Washington, D. C., was treated yesterday for a laceration of the scalp suffered in a fall from a bicycle while visiting an uncle, Michael Frontone, 415 Commerce St., Wellsville.

Faces Murder Charge

CINCINNATI (AP)—Mrs. Charlie Mae Berrier, 43, faces a charge of second-degree murder in the shotgun death of her husband, Theodore, 53. Police filed the charge Monday after Berrier died of an abdomen wound.

Social Security Units Clarified

To qualify for Social Security benefits at retirement, how many work units will you need?

"Most people don't know", William J. McCauley, Youngstown's Social Security manager, commented today. Many don't even know there is such a requirement, while others mistakenly think they can qualify for payments with only a year or two of work.

"Most people need several years of credit," McCauley continued, "and the chances are, you will too." The exact number you will need depends on when you reach retirement age: 62 for women, 65 for men. People reaching retirement age now need 4½ years of earnings. Young people will need more. For example, anyone now under age 54 will need 10 years—the maximum.

Since payments in the future depend on your earnings now, it's important that you receive all credits due. If you work for wages, you should be certain your employer reports them with your correct Social Security number. If you are self - employed, you should be careful to use your correct social security number on your tax return.

For additional information about the number of credits needed to qualify for Social Security benefits, get in touch with the Youngstown Social Security Office at 123 W. Commerce St. The phone is RIverside 4-8961. Ask for the free pamphlet entitled, "Social Security Credits," at the local Post Office quarters of the Social Security representative.
